

The background of the entire image is a complex fractal artwork. It features a central cross-like shape composed of three intersecting lines. From this center, concentric rings of intricate, self-similar patterns radiate outwards. The colors are primarily gold, teal, and dark blue, creating a sense of depth and complexity. The overall effect is reminiscent of a microscopic view of a mineral or a highly detailed digital fractal.

The Christian Advocate ,1911 Christian Advocate ,1944 Literary Digest ,1920 Christian Advocate and Journal and Zion's Herald ,1911 , Visions and Faces of the Tragic Paul M. Blowers,2020 This study presses beyond the pervasive early Christian aversion to pagan theatrical art in all its forms and investigates the growing critical engagement with the genre of tragedy by Christian authors especially in the post Constantinian era A Standard Dictionary of the English Language Isaac Kaufman Funk,Francis Andrew March,1897 The Morning Star and Free Baptist ,1898 The Congregationalist ,1924 Mission Manifest Matthew K. Shannon,2024-06-15 In Mission Manifest Matthew Shannon argues that American evangelicals were central to American Iranian relations during the decades leading up to the 1979 revolution These Presbyterian missionaries and other Americans with ideals worked with US government officials nongovernmental organizations and their Iranian counterparts as cultural and political brokers the living sinews of a binational relationship during the Second World War and early Cold War As US global hegemony peaked between the 1940s and the 1960s the religious authority of the Presbyterian Mission merged with the material power of the American state to infuse US foreign relations with the messianic ideals of Christian evangelicalism In Tehran the missions of American evangelicals became manifest in the realms of religion development programs international education and cultural associations Americans who lived in Iran also returned to the United States to inform the growth of the national security state higher education and evangelical culture The literal and figurative missions of American evangelicals in late Pahlavi Iran had consequences for the binational relationship the global evangelical movement and individual Americans and Iranians Mission Manifest offers a history of living breathing people who shared personal professional and political aims in Iran at the height of American global power Turf, Field and Farm ,1866 The Cultivator & Country Gentleman ,1872 The World's Christians Douglas Jacobsen,2021-04-20 This accessible textbook describes Christianity the world's largest religion in all of its historical and contemporary diversity No other publication includes so much information or presents it so clearly and winsomely This volume employs a religious studies approach that is neutral in tone yet accommodates the lived experiences of Christians in different traditions and from all regions of the globe The World's Christians is a perfect textbook for either public university classrooms or liberal arts campuses Divided into three parts the text first describes the world's four largest Christian traditions Eastern Orthodox Roman Catholic Protestant and Pentecostal which together account for roughly 98 percent of all Christians worldwide A second section focuses on Christian history explaining the movement's developing ideas and practices and examining Christianity's engagement with people and cultures around the world The third and longest portion of the text details the distinctive experiences contemporary challenges and demographics of Christians in nine geographic regions including the Middle East Sub Saharan Africa Latin America Eastern and Western Europe South Asia North America East Asia and Oceania The second edition of this popular text has been thoroughly rewritten to take recent developments into account and each chapter now includes two primary source readings highlighting the diversity of voices that exist within the world Christian movement Like the first edition the revised text is enhanced with easily understandable maps charts tables and illustrative photographs In summary this new and improved second edition of The World's Christians is written in a clear style that readers will find engaging enriched by the addition of thought provoking primary source readings thoroughly revised to bring the story of Christianity up to the 2020s more geographically comprehensive than any competing text more theologically ecclesiastically comprehensive than any competing text amply illustrated with maps charts tables and photographs perfect for use in the classroom or for general readers who want to understand the full diversity of Christianity as it currently exists around the world Billboard

Regoverning the Workplace Cynthia Estlund,2010-01-01 This original book seeks to shape current trends toward employer self regulation into a new paradigm of workplace governance in which workers participate The decline of collective bargaining and the parallel rise of employment law have left workers with an abundance of legal rights but no representation at work Without representation even workers legal rights are often under enforced At the same time however many legal and social forces have pushed firms to self regulate to take on the task of realizing public norms through internal compliance structures Cynthia Estlund argues that the trend toward self regulation is here to stay and that worker friendly reformers should seek not to stop that trend but to steer it by securing for workers an effective voice within self regulatory processes If the law can be retooled to encourage forms of self regulation in which workers participate it can help both to promote public values and to revive workplace self governance The Christian Science Monitor Index,1997 Scientific American
