Comparative Children's Literature Emer O'Sullivan, 2005-03-05 Emer O Sullivan traces the history of children's literature studies from the enthusiastic internationalism of the post war period which set out from the idea of a world republic of childhood to modern comparative criticism The Translation of Children's Literature Gillian Lathey, 2006-01-01 In the last few decades a number of European scholars have paid an increasing amount of attention to children's literature in translation This book not only provides a synthetic account of what has been achieved in the field but also makes us fully aware of all the textual visual and cultural complexities that translating for children entails Students of this subject have had problems in finding a book that attempted an up to date and comprehensive review of the field Gillian Lathey's Reader does just this Dr Piotr Kuhiwczak Director Centre for Translation and Comparative Cultural Studies University of Warwick chapter includes a set of questions and exercises for students Translating Children's Literature is essential reading for professional translators researchers and students on courses in translation studies or children's literature A Critical History of French Children's Literature Penny Brown, 2007 Merriam-Webster's Encyclopedia of Literature Merriam-Webster, Inc, 1995 Describes authors works and literary terms from all eras and all parts of the world The Story of Babar Jean De Brunhoff, 1960 The story of Babar the little elephant The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 Translation has been a crucial process in world culture over the past two millennia and more In the English speaking cultures many of the most important texts are translations from Homer to Beckett the Bible to Freud Although recent years have seen a boom in translation studies there has been no comprehensive yet convenient guide to this essential element of literature in English Written by eminent scholars from many countries the Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation meets this need and will be essential reading for all students of English and comparative literature It highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the issues raised making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Korean from Swahili to Russian For some works e.g. Virgil's Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available The Guide is divided into two parts Part I contains substantial essays on theoretical questions a pioneering outline of the history of translation into English and discussions of the problems raised by specific types of text e.g. poetry oral literature The second much longer part consists of entries grouped by language of origin some are devoted to individual texts e.g. the Thousand and One Nights or writers e.g. Ibsen Proust but the majority offer a critical overview of a genre e.g. Chinese poetry Spanish Golden Age drama or of a national literature e.g. Hungarian Scottish Gaelic There is a selective bibliography for each entry and an index of authors and translators The Modernist Bestiary Timothy Mathews, Sarah Kay, 2020-07-08 The Modernist Bestiary centres on Le Bestiaire ou Cortège d'Orphée 1911 a multimedia collaborative work by French Polish poet Guillaume Apollinaire and French artist Raoul Dufy and its homonym The Bestiary or Procession of Orpheus 1979 by British artist Graham Sutherland Rather than reconstructing the lineage of these two compositions the book uncovers the aesthetic and intellectual processes involved that operate in different times places and media The Apollinaire and Dufy Bestiary is an open ended collaboration a feature that Sutherland develops in his re-visiting and this book shows how these neglected works are caught up in many faceted networks of traditions and genres These include Orphic poetry from the past contemporary musical settings and bestiary writing from its origins to the present The nature of productive dialogue between thought and art and the refracted light they throw on each other are explored in each of the pieces in the book and the aesthetic experience emerges as generative rather than reductive or complacent The contributors encounters with these works take the form of poetry and essays all moving freely between different disciplines and practices humanistic and posthumanist critical dimensions as well as different animals and art forms They draw on disciplines ranging from music art history translation Classical poetry and French poetry and are nurtured by approaches including phenomenology cultural studies sound studies and critical animal studies Collectively the book shows that the aesthetic encounter by nature affective is by nature also interdisciplinary and motivating and that it spurs the critical in addressing the complex issues of humananimality
