The Ecclesiology of Donald Robinson and D. Broughton Knox Chase R. Kuhn,2017-04-18 For the past forty years the Knox Robinson Ecclesiology has been the predominant ecclesiological model in the Sydney Diocese of the Anglican Church of Australia one that emerged out of a series of theological contributions over two decades The impact of this ecclesiology can be seen today across four continents Australia Europe North America Africa Though pervasive in influence there has to date been no extended systematic articulation of this ecclesiology nor a serious and sustained appraisal of it Here the ecclesiologies of Donald W B Robinson Vice Principal of Moore College 1959 1973 Archbishop of Sydney 1983 1992 and D Broughton Knox Principal of Moore College 1959 1985 are presented systematically then analyzed and evaluated Here finally is a thorough theological engagement with their provocative doctrine of the church Vatican II Melissa J.

Wilde,2018-06-05 On an otherwise ordinary Sunday morning in 1964 millions of Roman Catholics around the world experienced history For the first time in centuries they attended masses that were conducted mostly in their native tongues This occasion marked only the first of many profound changes to emanate from the Second Vatican Council 1962 1965 Known popularly as Vatican II it would soon give rise to the most far reaching religious transformation since the Reformation In this groundbreaking work of cultural and historical sociology Melissa Wilde offers a new explanation for this revolutionary transformation of the Church Drawing on newly available sources including a collection of interviews with the Council's key bishops and cardinals and primary documents from the Vatican Secret Archive that have never before been seen by researchers Wilde demonstrates that the pronouncements of the Council were not merely reflections of papal will but the product of a dramatic confrontation between progressives and conservatives that began during the first days of the Council The outcome of this confrontation was determined by a number of factors the Church's decline in Latin America its competition and dialogue with other faiths particularly Protestantism in northern Europe and North America and progressive clerics deep belief in the holiness of compromise and their penchant for consensus building Wilde's account will fascinate not only those interested in Vatican II but anyone who wants to understand the social underpinnings of religious change
