Cooks,Jennifer J. Wagelie,2021-07-07 Mannequins in Museums is a collection of historical and contemporary case studies that examine how mannequins are presented in exhibitions and shows that as objects used for storytelling they are not neutral objects Demonstrating that mannequins have long histories of being used to promote colonialism consumerism and racism the book shows how these histories inform their use It also engages readers in a conversation about how historical narratives are expressed in museums through mannequins as surrogate forms Written by a select group of curators and art historians the volume provides insight into a variety of museum contexts including art history fashion anthropology and wax Drawing on exhibition case studies from North America South Africa and Europe each chapter discusses the pedagogical and aesthetic stakes involved in representing racial difference and cultural history through mannequins As a whole the book will assist readers to understand the history of mannequins and their contemporary use as culturally relevant objects Mannequins in Museums will be compelling reading for academics and students in the fields of museum studies art history public history anthropology and visual and cultural studies It should also be essential reading for museum professionals who are interested in rethinking mannequin display techniques

Refashioning and Redress Mary M. Brooks, Dinah D. Eastop, 2017-02-27 This volume explores the conservation and presentation of dress in museums and beyond as a complex collaborative process Recognizing this process as a dynamic interaction of investigation interpretation intervention re creation and display Refashioning and Redress Conserving and Displaying Dress examines the ways in which these seemingly static exhibitions of costume or fashion are actively engaged in cultural production The seventeen case studies included here reflect a broad range of practice and are presented by conservators curators makers and researchers from around the world exposing changing approaches and actions at different times and in different places Ranging from the practical to the conceptual these contributions demonstrate the material social and philosophical interactions inherent in the conservation and display of dress and draw upon diverse disciplines ranging from dress history to social history material cultural studies to fashion studies and conservation to museology Case studies include fashion as spectacle in the museum dress as political and personal memorialization and theatrical dress as well as dress from living indigenous cultures dress in fragments and dress online and North American museum exhibitions Rooted in extensive archival research on exhibitions by global leaders in the field from the Victoria and Albert and the Bath Fashion Museum to the Brooklyn and the Royal Ontario Museums the work reveals how fashion exhibitions have been shaped by the values and anxieties associated with fashion more generally Supplemented by parallel critical approaches including museological theory historiography body theory material culture and visual studies Fashion History Museums demonstrates that in an increasingly corporate and mass mediated world fashion exhibitions must be analysed in a comparative and global context Richly illustrated with 70 images this book is essential reading for students and scholars of fashion history and museology as well as curators conservators and exhibition designers Costume Index

Isabel Stevenson Monro,Dorothy Elizabeth Cook,Kate M. Monro,1937 Disability and Art History Ann Millett-Gallant,Elizabeth Howie,2016-10-26 This is the first book of its kind to feature interdisciplinary art history and disability studies scholarship Art historians have traditionally written about images of figures with impairments and artworks by disabled artists without integrating disability studies scholarship while many disability studies scholars discuss works of art but do not necessarily incorporate art historical research and methodology The chapters in this volume emphasize a shift away from the medical model of disability that is often scrutinized in art history by considering the social model and representations of disabled figures from a range of styles and periods mostly from the twentieth century Topics addressed include visible versus invisible impairments scientific anthropological and vernacular images of disability and the theories and implications of looking staring versus gazing They also explore ways in which art responds to envisions and at times stereotypes and pathologizes disability The insights offered in this book contextualize understanding of disability historically as well as in terms of medicine literature and visual culture Theatrical Costume Jackson Kesler,1979 Costume
