Superintendent of Documents,1992 The History of Cartography, Volume 6 Mark Monmonier,2015-05-18 For more than thirty years the History of Cartography Project has charted the course for scholarship on cartography bringing together research from a variety of disciplines on the creation dissemination and use of maps Volume 6 Cartography in the Twentieth Century continues this tradition with a groundbreaking survey of the century just ended and a new full color encyclopedic format The twentieth century is a pivotal period in map history The transition from paper to digital formats led to previously unimaginable dynamic and interactive maps Geographic information systems radically altered cartographic institutions and reduced the skill required to create maps Satellite positioning and mobile communications revolutionized wayfinding Mapping evolved as an important tool for coping with complexity organizing knowledge and influencing public opinion in all parts of the globe and at all levels of society Volume 6 covers these changes comprehensively while thoroughly demonstrating the far reaching effects of maps on science technology and society and vice versa The lavishly produced volume includes more than five hundred articles accompanied by more than a thousand images Hundreds of expert contributors provide both original research often based on their own participation in the developments they describe and interpretations of larger trends in cartography Designed for use by both scholars and the general public this definitive volume is a reference work of first resort for all who study and love maps A Soldier's Life Edna W. Cummings,2025-05-08 One woman s extraordinary personal journey in the US military and her triumphant effort to honor her predecessors with the Congressional Gold Medal Looking back on her remarkable career Retired Army Colonel Edna W Cummings can justly say that the odds ain t good but good stuff happens Her story is as inspiring as it is improbable but her memoir is about much more than herself Chronicling Cummings s unlikely but successful path to leadership roles in the army and afterward it also tells the story of the 6888th Central Postal Directory Battalion known as the Six Triple Eight a trailblazing African American World War II Women s Army Corps unit now the subject of a Netflix film and a Broadway bound musical and the grassroots campaign Cummings led to honor them In 2022 due in large part to Cummings s efforts the Six Triple Eight was awarded the nation s highest civilian honor the Congressional Gold Medal Among the fewer than two hundred recipients including the crew of Apollo 11 and the Navajo Code Talkers the Six Triple Eight is the only women s unit to receive this prestigious decoration In A Soldier s Life Colonel Cummings narrates her path from childhood to advocate and how she overcame incredible odds not only for herself but on behalf of those who had come before her The Liberators Michael Hirsh,2010-03-16 At last the everyday fighting men who were the first Americans to know the full and horrifying truth about the Holocaust share their astonishing stories Rich with powerful never before published details from the author s interviews with more than 150 U S soldiers who liberated the Nazi death camps The Liberators is an essential addition to the literature of World War II and a stirring testament to Allied courage in the face of inconceivable atrocities Taking us from the beginnings of the liberators final march across Germany to V E Day and beyond Michael Hirsh allows us to walk in their footsteps experiencing the journey as they themselves experienced it But this book is more than just an in depth account of the liberation It reveals how profoundly these young men were affected by what they saw the unbelievable horror and pathos they felt upon seeing stacks of bodies like cordwood and skeletonlike survivors in camp after camp That life altering experience has stayed with them to this very day It s been well over half a century since the end of World War II and they still haven t forgotten what the camps looked like how they smelled what the inmates looked like and how it made them feel Many of the liberators suffer from what s now called post traumatic stress disorder and still experience Holocaust related nightmares Here we meet the brave souls who now in their eighties and nineties have chosen at last to share their stories Corporal Forrest Robinson saw masses of dead bodies at Nordhausen and was so horrified that he lost his memory for the next two weeks Melvin Waters a 4 F volunteer civilian ambulance driver recalls that a woman at Bergen Belsen fought us like a cat because she thought we were taking her to the crematory Private Don Timmer used his high school German to interpret for General Dwight Eisenhower during the supreme Allied commander s visit to Ohrdruf the first camp liberated by the Americans And Phyllis Lamont Law an army nurse at Mauthausen Gusen recalls the shock and ultimately the hope that you can save a few From Bergen Belsen in northern Germany to Mauthausen in Austria The Liberators offers readers an intense and unforgettable look at the Nazi death machine through the eyes of the men and women who were our country s witnesses to the Holocaust The liberators recollections are historically important vivid riveting heartbreaking and on rare occasions joyous and uplifting This book is their opportunity perhaps for the last time to tell the world
