Surrealism, Politics and Culture Raymond Spiteri,Donald Lacoss,2020-03-18 This title was first published in 2003 Drawing on literary art historical and historical studies this essay collection explores the complex encounter between culture and politics within Surrealism The Surrealist movement was one of the first cultural movements to question explicitly the relation between culture and politics and its attempt to fuse social and cultural revolution has been a critical factor in shaping our sense of modernity This anthology addresses not only the contested ground between culture and politics within Surrealism itself and within the subsequent historical accounts of the movement but also the broader implications of this encounter on our own sense of modernity Its goal is to delineate the role of radical politics in shaping the historical trajectory of Surrealism

Culture of The Sacred Space Olimpia Niglio,2024-12-03 This book highlights the relationship between sacred architecture and tourism specifically focusing on the role of interior design strategies It explores how the interior design of sacred spaces can influence the tourist experience and shape their perception of these places The book touches upon elements such as spatial organization symbolism material selection lighting and acoustics all of which contribute to creating a meaningful and immersive environment for visitors It explores the architectural design ideological motivations and the historical context surrounding the palace's construction. The book also addresses the eventual abandonment of the project and its transformation of their uses, reflecting on the complexities of realizing utopian visions in architecture. It examines how the sanctuary's architectural design and spatial arrangement interact with the surrounding landscape, including elements such as topography, vegetation, and water features. Moreover, it focuses on the interior design and explores the symbolism, spatial organization, artistic elements, and spiritual experiences associated with the dome interiors of these structures. The book showcases the historical context, cultural influences, and the evolution of design principles that shaped these remarkable spaces. Also, this book investigates the transition of visionary architectural drawings from the realm of professional architects. Furthermore, it explores how architectural drawings serve as a medium for expressing imaginative and utopian ideas and how this transition occurs in the context of architectural education.

A Private Passion Stephan Wolohojian, Anna Tahinci, 2003

For the Winthrop collection's international debut exhibition, curators at the Fogg Art Museum of the Harvard University Art Museums, headed by Stephan Wolohojian, organized the selection and invited more than sixty specialists to write on artworks in their particular area of expertise. Works include such highlights in their creator's oeuvre as Jacques-Louis David's sketchbooks for The Coronation of Napoleon and The Crowning of Josephine; Theodore Géricault's Mutiny on the Raft of the Medusa; Vincent van Gogh's The Blue Cart; Jean-Auguste-Dominique Ingres's Odalisque with the Slave; William Blake's illustrations for The Divine Comedy; Dante Gabriel Rossetti's Blessed Damozel; and James Abbott McNeill Whistler's Nocturne in Blue and Silver. In addition, an essay by Wolohojian provides a fascinating and informative description of Winthrop and the growth of his collection.
