History Workshop A Journal Of Socialist And Feminist Historians Issue 16:

Women in Movement (Routledge Revivals) Sheila Rowbotham, 2013-10-14 First published in 1992 this book is an historical introduction to a wide range of women's movements from the late eighteenth century to the date of its publication. It describes economic, social and political ideas which have inspired women to organize not only in Europe and North America but also in the Third World. Sheila Rowbotham outlines a long history of women's challenges to the gender bias in political and economical concepts. She shows women laying claim to rights and citizenship while contesting male definitions of their scope and seeking to enlarge the meaning of economy through action around consumption and production, environmental protests and welfare projects.

Dignity and Daily Bread Swasti Mitter, Sheila Rowbotham, 2003-09-02 First published in 1993. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informal company.

Ladies who Lunge Tara Brabazon, 2002. Ladies who Lunge Essays on Difficult Women dances through history with the unconventional woman. Witty and refreshing, the tone, texture and feeling of the words on the page are as unconventional as the plucky women who punctuate the prose. It is a tough, determined, moving, frank and funny review of difficult women: how they got there, how we can understand their actions and how we can learn from them.

People's History and Socialist Theory (Routledge Revivals) Raphael Samuel, 2016-05-12. First published in 1981, this book brings together different types of work by numerous fragmented groups in the field of Marxist history and puts them in dialogue with each other. It takes stock of then recent work, explores the main new lines and looks at the political and ideological circumstances shaping the direction of historical work past and present. The scope of the book is international, with contributions on African history, fascism and anti-fascism, French labour history and the transition from feudalism to capitalism. It also incorporates feminist history and gives attention to some of the leading questions raised for social history by the women's movement.

Queer Gothic George E. Haggerty, 2006. George Haggerty examines the ways in which gothic fiction centers on loss as the foreclosure of homoerotic possibility and the relationship between transgressive sexual behaviors and a range of religious behaviors understood as Catholic.

Feminism and Tradition in Aesthetics Peggy Zeglin Brand, Carolyn Korsmeyer, 2010-11-01.

Compulsive Technology Tony Solomonides, Les Levidow, 1985.

Renaissance Women Patrons Catherine King, 1998-07-15. This book considers how writing over the period of a century justified and was affected by the introduction and extension of British domination of India, thus demonstrating the link between writing and the ideological, economic and political climate and debates.

Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09. The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama. Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day, including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz, whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate.
