Kenyan Student Airlifts To America 1959 1961 An Educational Odyssey:

Kenyan Student Airlifts to America 1959-1961 Stephens, Robert F.,2014-01-16 What did it take to get hundreds of Kenyan students thirsting for higher education into US colleges in the late 1950s and early 1960s It took perseverance help from countless people and the overwhelming desire of the students themselves This is an engaging and insightful book about an important and ignored slice of history When we think of vital historical airlifts minds race back to the Berlin Airlift Robert Stephens takes us to another American sponsored airlift that brought a generation of future African leaders to American shores for higher education This effort profoundly altered the lives of these men and women the development of East African nations and the perception of America At a time when the world struggled to understand the value of soft as opposed to military power this book offers a valuable historical model Set during the last days of colonialism in Kenya the book documents the development of human talent that would foster a majority ruled independent Kenya Its focus on Africans their individual and collective biographies aspirations and intermittent assistance from the US and others is the story

Education and Development in Colonial and Postcolonial Africa Damiano Matasci,Miguel Bandeira Jerónimo,Hugo Gonçalves Dore,2020-01-03 This open access edited volume offers an analysis of the entangled histories of education and development in twentieth century Africa It deals with the plurality of actors that competed and collaborated to formulate educational and developmental paradigms and projects debating their utility and purpose pondering their necessity and risk and evaluating their intended and unintended consequences in colonial and postcolonial moments Since the late nineteenth century the educability of the native was the subject of several debates and experiments numerous voices arguments and agendas emerged involving multiple institutions and experts governmental and non governmental religious and laic operating from the corridors of international organizations to the towns and rural villages of Africa This plurality of expressions of political social cultural and economic imagination of education and development is at the core of this collective work

City Boy: Chronicles of a Nairobi Life Dr. Frank Njenga,2025-05-22 The mention of an African autobiography often evokes images of a want and penury a childhood sullied by poverty and hopelessness and the predictable rags to riches narrative Not so for City Boy In this bold and refreshing account Dr Frank Njenga a leading psychiatrist and author weaves a compelling tale of growing up in an affluent neighbourhood attending a once European only school enjoying foreign travel in childhood and all the trappings of a good upbringing His account of the Mau Mau period as well as the post independence era is captivating With candour and charm he invites readers into the world that shaped him a world of books travel privilege and the rich tapestry of people who influenced his journey It is a story that turns tables on the notion that rural poverty and adversity in childhood are the building blocks of a successful life Rather City Boy offers a new lens through which to view adolescence in the 1960s personal ambition and what it takes to scale the heights of professional growth In City Boy Dr Njenga rewrites the script on success with elegance honesty and a rare clarity of thought

Cold War Photographic

Diplomacy Darren Newbury, 2024-02-06 The emergence of newly independent African nations onto the world stage in the mid twentieth century precipitated a contest for influence among Cold War superpowers leading the United States to mount an international campaign of photographic diplomacy underpinned by a faith in the medium's capacity to cross cultural boundaries. However, the increasing global visibility of racial injustice undermined US claims that the nation had transcended colonial racism. Drawing on extensive research in the archives of the United States Information Agency (USIA) and concentrating on the period from the mid 1950s through to the late 1960s, Darren Newbury traces the role of photography in the United States' appeal to Africa. Newbury shows how photographing the political, cultural and educational visits of Africans to the United States provided a space for the imagination of international cooperation and friendship; how the United States presented the civil rights struggle as an example of democracy in action; and how it pictured a world of integration and racial coexistence. Cold War Photographic Diplomacy chronicles this careful scripting of images and picture stories and details the cultural and pedagogical work that photography was expected to perform as it was inserted into the visual culture of African cities through magazines, posters, pamphlets and window displays. Locating photography at the intersection of African decolonization, racial conflict in the United States and the cultural Cold War, this study will especially appeal to students and scholars of the history of photography, American studies and Africana studies. Thus Until Emilia Ilieva, Reuben Matheka, 2025-08-04 Thus Until: A History of Egerton University is a thorough historical, chronological and well researched account of Egerton University from a whites only college when it started in 1939 through to the expansion it has experienced over the years, culminating in being a full university. More than any other university in Kenya, Egerton has a long and colourful history, but like all the other universities, it has suffered from the political, economic and financial challenges of the time, especially since the double intake of the 1990s. Chapter One provides the required background to the study, highlighting agricultural and educational policies and steering away from the Happy Valley hype so characteristic of the period. The reader will learn about the Egerton family in Chapter Two and particularly about Lord Egerton himself and the colonial circumstances within which he lived. The chapter dispels some of the popularly held myths about him. Chapter Three deals with the beginnings of the college and the various structural and curriculum experiments tried out and the kind of enrolment and students it experimented with as an all white establishment. The chapter ends with Africans beginning to agitate for change. With great attention to detail, the later chapters put the university in a broader local and international context, thereby increasing its relevance to society. A History of Egerton University though heavily footnoted and with a detailed bibliography, is written in a simple, easy flowing and accessible style. Obama Senior Fredrick Donde, 2015-08-06 On January 20, 2009, Barack Hussein Obama made history as the first African American president of the United States of America since its founding in 1776. Around the world, people celebrated his election as if he were one of their own and held exceedingly high expectations of his presidency. When, as senator of Illinois, he visited his father's village in Nyangoma K'Ogelo in Kenya he was struck by the ecstatic reception that the people accorded him. He was deeply touched by the abject poverty and fullness of spirit of the people. The level of need and the challenges that he witnessed in the poor neighbourhoods of Chicago in the US, in Indonesia and Kenya may have significantly contributed to his spirited drive to the White House. In this book the author re-traces the life of Barack Obama Senior and how his character, vision and intellect influenced his sons' drive to the most powerful office in the land. In so doing, the author revisits the events in pre and post colonial Kenya and how these too had a bearing on the life of Obama Senior. The book also relates the history of his people, the Luo, from their original settlements along the Nile in Egypt and the Sudan to their present homelands in East Africa and the Great Lakes region. It details the often tragic and ultimately triumphant struggle of a people in pursuit of a just, peaceful and progressive society.

In Pursuit of Peace in Africa Daniel Opande, 2019-08-23. Lieutenant General Daniel Opande, in his autobiography In Pursuit of Peace in Africa, shares his experiences in childhood, education, family and military career until his retirement. He wore many hats: soldier, military leader, peacemaker, humanitarian, peace ambassador and mediator. Notable highlights include his role in Kenya's Shifta Campaign of the 1960s and engaging with rebels during peace operations he led in Namibia, Mozambique, Liberia and Sierra Leone. In retirement, General Opande has occasionally mediated conflicts among them: the 2007, 2008, 2013 and 2017 election crises in Kenya and the aftermath of the 2015 upheavals in South Sudan. This book is a rich inspirational resource for aspiring leaders.

Dash before Dusk Khamisi, Joe, 2015-03-01. Dash before Dusk: A slave descendant's journey in freedom is an account of the life and times of Joe Khamisi, a Kenyan slave descendant whose ancestors were taken captive by Arab traders from Nyasaland and Tanganyika, rescued at sea by the British and settled at Rabai, a slave encampment along the East African coast. Khamisi, a former journalist, diplomat and politician, narrates the significant contributions former slaves and their descendants made in the transformation of Kenya into an independent state and their continuing struggle for recognition.

A Daunting Journey Kiereini, Jeremiah Gitau, 2015-09-04. He is described as a Mau Mau oath taker, seemingly of two minds, both for and against, loyal and disloyal. In A Daunting Journey, Jeremiah Gitau Kiereini lets us into his life spanning three generations. He reveals insights into the influences and intrigues surrounding the early civil service and the powerful individuals who held Kenya's future in their hands. Kiereini also exposes the dichotomy that irreconcilably split the communities involved in the struggle for independence.

and the personal contradictions and challenges he encountered as he sought to find pride and loyalty in service to a newly independent Kenya This is truly a fascinating chronicle that takes us from the humble and difficult years of childhood through the Mau Mau years the Kenyatta administration the Moi regime and on to the present in the life of Jeremiah Kiereini Most captivating is the narrative on the infamous 1969 oath taking commonly referred to as Caai wa Gatundu and the 1982 coup

Breaking the Illusions Sicily Kariuki,2024-02-08 Breaking the Illusions is the story of resolve and grit in the face of seemingly insurmountable challenges In this tell all book the author paints an insider s view of government exposing the odds that are inexorably ranged against those who challenge the status quo and are perceived to be all powerful Hers is the intriguing story of a mistaken tag that at once opens multiple warfronts with shadowy detractors and opens previously unimaginable doors The author provides a window into statecraft in a way that leaves the reader researchers ministers and even serving and aspiring public servants the richer

Doctor at Heart Dan Gikonyo,2024-09-24 Doctor at Heart is not just about Dr Gikonyo s life journey but it also delves into pertinent social economic and political issues at the local and global levels The author criss crosses generations and in so doing presents their respective opportunities and challenges while at the same time advancing theories and worldviews that the reader will find very engaging The book also brings out the authors multiple skills each of which he pursues with a passion His authentic search for solutions to the challenges of life aptly depict him as a Doctor at heart Notably Dr Gikonyo emphasises some of the elements of transformation that he envisages for Kenya through a never before published interview of Mwai Kibaki a transcript of which is included in the book

Beyond Politics Njeri Rugene,2021-08-27 Kiraitu Murungi easily fits into the category of Philosopher King a leader who according to Plato combines intellect intelligence and wisdom in leadership An alumnus of the University of Nairobi and the prestigious Harvard University Kiraitu has applied these qualities to serve the society at constituency county and national levels In this candid interview with veteran journalist Njeri Rugene Kiraitu is blunt brutal frank and rational on politics and development issues The first of its kind in the country this lengthy interview is not only inspiring but also an insightful and igniting expos of realpolitik in Kenya

Airlift to America Tom Shachtman,2009-09-15 This long hidden saga reveals how a handful of Americans and Kenyans fought the British colonial government the U S State Department and segregation to send nearly 800 young East African men and women to U S universities many of whom would go on to change the world
