Lonely At The Top The High Cost Of Mens Success:

Lonely at the Top Thomas Joiner, 2011-10-25 Men appear to enjoy many advantages in society on average they make more money have more power and enjoy a greater degree of social freedom than women But many men pay a high price for the pursuit of success and power Taking family and friends for granted men will often let relationships take a back seat to their professional ambitions only to ultimately find themselves with few real friends they can rely on in hard times As a result they turn to affairs alcohol and other self destructive behaviors Sadly millions of men suffer untreated depression In this groundbreaking and provocative book award winning clinical psychologist Thomas Joiner makes an impassioned call for society to recognize the harmful effects that solitude can have on men Drawing on original research done for the National Institute of Mental Health he focuses on the particular situations that leave men rudderless He offers advice on support systems that are most useful to men and he offers prescriptive advice on how men can improve their lives SUICIDE IN

PROFESSIONAL AND AMATEUR ATHLETES David Lester, John F. Gunn, 2013-05-01 This book looks at the problem of why so many professional and amateur athletes kill themselves Professional athletes lead what seem to us to be glamorous lives and make large and sometimes huge salaries In schools the athletes are often the formal and informal leaders given recognition and honors News of their suicides shocks us because to the rest of us these are the successful members of our society often looked up to as heroes and role models The book therefore explores the incidence of suicide in athletes and reviews the risk factors that increase the likelihood of suicide in athletes Research on these risk factors such as the role of steroids and concussions is reviewed and case studies are provided to illustrate these risk factors Some of the topics include suicide in baseball and cricket how steroids is often linked to suicide as well as concussion and traumatic brain injury how social relationships of athletes including suicide among lesbian gay and bisexual athletes and sexual abuse can lead to suicide suicide as a result of bullying among high school and college athletes and suicide contagion how spectators involvement in sports can be related to suicide and the effect of retirement on athletes psychiatric problems among athletes and how substance abuse among athletes can cause suicide along with many other topics The book concludes with ways in which suicide might be prevented in athletes It will be of great interest to crisis workers and those who work in crisis centers as well as suicidologists mental health workers and others interested in the topic The Wonder of Aging Michael

Gurian, 2016-06-07 The topic of aging after fifty is frequently only discussed in terms of health what are the physical symptoms that come with advanced age and what can we do about them This book aims to look at aging in a new spirit as something that is positive and life giving showing how miraculous our second half of life can be In providing research and anecdotes that help readers discover a new paradigm for aging bestselling author Michael Gurian focuses on four aspects of life after fifty showing how aging affects people physically mentally relationally and spiritually In this kind of holistic focus he shows how we become elders Gurian divides life after 50 into four stages Stage 1 The Age of Transformation This is the stage of life from the late forties to approximately sixty Stage 2 The Age of Distinction This stage of life lasts from approximately sixty to seventy five Stage 3 The Age of Completion This stage involves completing our life journey both together if we are still coupled and alone if our spouse has passed on or if we are divorced He developed these stages in response to both scientific and anthropological information and in response to the needs of his clients who sought help understanding where they were and what to expect in the second half of life Our culture has focused very well on staging childhood adolescence youth adulthood and middle age but resources regarding the stages of age after fifty are scarce Gurian also discusses sex how men and women age differently the effects of aging on the brain and what to expect in the last chapter of life Miraculous Age provides a full holistic and comforting roadmap to what to expect in the second half of life and indeed how to celebrate it

Reclaiming Men's Spirituality Christopher Felix Bezzina, 2024-02-16 Reclaiming Men's Spirituality is a study that investigates men's spirituality by exploring three research questions Can a form of spirituality about men be identified and described how can this spirituality be examined and what is it that needs to be reclaimed To answer these questions and at the same time remain committed to the importance of lived experience this study opted to investigate the lives of men by attending to ten spiritual histories The study is situated in Malta and the ten spiritual histories provide access to various features expressions and contours that relate closely to men's being Semi structured interviews were also conducted with ten spiritual directors who have men as spiritual directees Their contribution clarifies the structure of men's spirituality the effort required when directing male spiritual directees and the impact generated in the lives of men thanks to spiritual direction To provide a frame of reference for the examination of all the gathered data John of the Cross's spiritual framework has been chosen as the mystical instrument against which men's spiritualities are studied leading to richer insights into the operations motives goals and problems of such spiritualities

The Enlightened Marriage Jed Diamond,2025-09-12 Love and marriage are two of the greatest gifts life has to offer yet too many marriages fail because couples don't fully understand the five stages of relationships. Because most of us have had hurtful experiences in past relationships often going back to childhood we develop an inaccurate love map that causes us to get off track when the stresses of life increase. For more than 40 years Jed Diamond has been helping couples repair even the most damaged relationships and reweave the broken strands of marriage. In The Enlightened Marriage Dr. Diamond will help you Get through Stage Three Disillusionment without losing your love. Understand that when your partner says I love you but I'm not in love with you anymore it is not the end but the beginning of Stage Four Real Lasting Love. Learn why healing childhood wounds is the greatest gift of love you can give and receive from your partner. Recognize and address the mid-life stresses of menopause, irritable male syndrome and male type depression. Follow your calling in Stage Five to make a real difference in the world.

Preaching Hope in Darkness Scott M. Gibson, Karen E. Mason, 2020-11-23 How can a preacher best address suicide from the pulpit? Pastors face many challenges. Suicide in a congregation is amongst the most heart-rending and intimidating. However, the preacher has a unique capacity to engender gospel hope for preparing the congregation and comforting the bereaved. To do so, preachers need help understanding the challenges and opportunities presented by addressing suicide from the pulpit. In Preaching Hope in Darkness, two practitioners in fields that do not typically interact, homiletics Scott M. Gibson and psychology Karen Mason work together to support the preacher in this difficult task. Gibson and Mason offer wise advice on a range of topics such as suicide prevention, post-crisis care, and funeral sermon preparation. With an appendix of sample sermons and a sample funeral liturgy, Preaching Hope in Darkness is an essential go-to guide for this difficult topic.

Game Plan Alan Lyme, David Powell, Stephen Andrew, 2012-11-20 An invaluable resource for any man who wants to lead a more whole and satisfying life.

Mindlessness Thomas Joiner, 2017-07-03 A contemplative practice with Buddhist roots, mindfulness is the awareness that arises from paying attention on purpose in the present moment, non-judgmentally. Practicing mindfulness can be an effective adjunct in treating psychological disorders such as depression, anxiety, and addiction. But have we gone too far with mindfulness? Recent books on the topic reveal a troubling corruption of mindfulness practice for commercial gain, with self-help celebrities hawking mindfulness as the next miracle drug. Furthermore, common misunderstanding of what mindfulness really is seems to be fueled by a widespread cultural trend toward narcissism, egocentricity, and self-absorption. Thomas Joiner's Mindlessness chronicles the promising rise of mindfulness and its perhaps inevitable degradation. Giving mindfulness its full due, both as a useful philosophical vantage point and as a means to address various life challenges, Joiner mercilessly charts how narcissism has intertwined with and co-opted the practice to create a Frankenstein's monster of cultural solipsism and self-importance. He examines the dispiriting consequences for many sectors of society, e.g., mental health, education, politics, and ponders ways to mitigate if not undo them. Mining a rich body of research, Joiner also makes use of material from popular culture, literature, social media, and personal experience in order to expose the misuse of mindfulness and to consider how we as a society can back away from the brink.

salvaging a potentially valuable technique for improving mental and physical wellbeing Falling into Grace John Newton, 2016-04-01 Jesus was quite clear that we must lose our life before we find it This book gives a hopeful and realistic look at what losing our life entails articulating how growth in the Christian life is not our ascent to God but the process by which our eyes are opened to the beauty God has already given to us It is a book about descending into God and into our own inner depths about the deep waters of the Christian faith Put out into the deep and let your nets down for a catch Luke 5 4 We live in a world that values productivity and success and we vainly imagine that God expects us to be spiritually productive and successful too It doesn't matter how much we talk about grace our conversation is often narrowly focused on what we need to do for God so much so that we often block the work God longs to do in us This book does not articulate God's work as a process by which we become spiritually strong but rather as the process by which we embrace our weakness as the place where we most fully experience God's perfect strength 2 Corinthians 12 9 Fyodor Dostoevsky—In the Beginning (1821-1845) Thomas Gaiton Marullo, 2017-02-24 More than a century after his death in 1881 Fyodor Dostoevsky continues to fascinate readers and reviewers Countless studies of his writing have been published more than a dozen in the past few years alone In this important new work Thomas Marullo provides a diary portrait of Dostoevsky's early years drawn from the letters memoirs and criticism of the writer as well as from the testimony and witness of family and friends readers and reviewers and observers and participants in his life Marullo's exhaustive search of published materials on Dostoevsky sheds light on many unexplored corners of Dostoevsky's childhood adolescence and youth Speakers of excerpts are given maximum freedom Anything they said about the writer the good and the bad the truth and the lies are included with extensive footnotes providing correctives counter arguments and other pertinent information The first part of this volume All in the Family focuses on Dostoevsky's early formation and schooling i e his time in city and country and his ties to his family particularly his parents The second section To Petersburg features Dostoevsky's early days in Russia's imperial city his years at the Main Engineering Academy and the death of his father The third part Darkness before Dawn deals with the writer's youthful struggles and strivings culminating in the success of his work Poor Folk This clear and comprehensive portrait of one of the world's greatest writers will appeal to students teachers and scholars of Dostoevsky's early life as well as general readers interested in Dostoevsky literature and history Overcoming Fears of Intimacy and Commitment Herb
