Closing the Gap Allerd Stikker, 2002 Today's patriarchal societies have their roots in antiquity a time when matrilineal societies gradually gave way to ancient civilizations in which men were granted more and more importance and power and women were made not only subordinate but also gradually separated from realms of the male In Closing the Gap Allerd Stikker argues that the male female duality we still perceive has resulted in a loss of coherence and integrity for all people and that only the unity and interdependence of the sexes can preserve a sustainable human society on our planet

It From Bit or Bit From It? Anthony Aguirre, Brendan Foster, Zeeya Merali, 2015-02-03 The essays in this book look at the question of whether physics can be based on information or as John Wheeler phrased it whether we can get It from Bit They are based on the prize winning essays submitted to the FQXi essay competition of the same name which drew over 180 entries The eighteen contributions address topics as diverse as quantum foundations entropy conservation nonlinear logic and countable spacetime Together they provide stimulating reading for all physics aficionados interested in the possible roles of information in the laws of nature The Foundational Questions Institute FQXi catalyzes supports and disseminates research on questions at the foundations of physics and cosmology particularly new frontiers and innovative ideas integral to a deep understanding of reality but unlikely to be supported by conventional funding sources
