Happy Homes, and How to Make Them John William Kirton, 2017-11-05 Excerpt from Happy Homes and How to Make Them Or Counsels on Love Courtship and Marriage Yet nightly pitch my moving tent A day s march nearer Home Home is a sweet and terrible word as Douglas Jerrold says and no wonder for were not the last words of Jesus spent in asking John to provide a home for his mother Yes Home is the chief school of human Virtue Its responsibilities joys sorrows smiles tears hopes and solitudes form the chief interests of human life Go where a man may home is the centre to which his heart turns The thought of his Home nerves his arm and lightens his toil For that his heart yearns when he is afar off There he garners up his best treasures God has ordained for all men alike the highest earthly happiness in providing for all the sanctuary of Home Every one must have remarked that almost the strongest motives to well doing to honesty sobriety diligence and good conduct in general arise with the bulk of people from considerations connected with their families About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Physiological Mysteries and Revelations in Love, Courtship and Marriage

Eugène Becklard, 2017-11-15 Excerpt from Physiological Mysteries and Revelations in Love Courtship and Marriage An Infallible Guide Book for Married and Single Persons in Matters of the Utmost Importance to the Human Race The principal authorities I have consulted in preparing this volume are my own experience and the verbally expressed opinions of many practical members of the faculty for whose valuable assistance and information I hereby return my most cordial thanks I am also indebted for casual hints to the writings of Hunter Blumen back Swammerdam Dubois Goad Button and others but in cases where there was a point at issue between us I trusted more to my own experience than to their theories But taking in view the sentence I commenced with I have written too long a preface and accordingly I shall at once close it with a highly relevant motto from Virgil About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

For (Dear) Life Eva-Sabine Zehelein, 2014 When Canadian Alice Munro was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2013 she had already declared her resignation from the post of short story writer following the publication of her 2012 collection Dear Life This present volume offers critical analyses of Alice Munro's complete final short story collection The book's contributors exercise in depth close readings of each individual story and situate them in Munro's lifetime oeuvre as well as in her work's critical reception to date Scholars set out to show how complex irritating disturbing and enchanting Munro's stories are and how often all that matters is to hold life dear or to hold on for dear life Series MasterResearch Vol 7 Subject Literary Criticism The Classic Guide to Dating Henry J. Wedding Customs Mira Donnelly, AI, 2025-03-06 Wedding Customs explores the fascinating world of marriage traditions across cultures highlighting how these customs reflect social structures historical influences and community values Wedding ceremonies serve as unique lenses through which to examine cultural identity and social dynamics offering insights into how societies define relationships and transmit values For instance the book contrasts the elaborate multi day Indian wedding celebrations with the more community focused practices in some African cultures where ancestral veneration takes precedence The book begins by introducing key concepts in wedding anthropology and then progresses to exploring the historical development of marriage practices across various regions It analyzes the symbolism embedded in wedding rituals examining the meaning of vows the exchange of gifts and the role of music and dance One intriguing fact is how wedding customs illuminate societal priorities in some cultures weddings are primarily about forging alliances between families while in others they emphasize individual love and commitment This exploration extends to how globalization and cultural exchange impact wedding traditions blending ancestral customs with emerging practices Lectures on the Beautiful and Sublime in Nature and in Morals George Mather,1872 Lectures on the beautiful and sublime in nature and in morals George Mather (Wesleyan minister.),1872 The Publisher ,1910 Delphi Collected Works of G.
