Love Works San Francisco Poet Laureate Series:

Love Works Janice Mirikitani, 2001 This impressive collection brings together Mirikitani's strongest poems on a diversity of subjects: the incarceration of Japanese Americans during World War II, the fragility and challenges of family relationships, and the quest by people at the margins of society to claim justice, bread, and dignity. Also included is her long inaugural essay in which she discusses how poetry can connect people and transform lives. Janice Mirikitani is the author of three books of poetry. She has over the past 35 years created and directed programs for young people and people in need at Glide Memorial Church in San Francisco's Tenderloin district.

Asian American Writers Deborah L. Madsen, 2005 Presents career biographies and criticism of Asian American writers from the late 19th century up to the current time. Many works focus on the experience of Asians living in the United States.

Writing America Shelley Fisher Fishkin, 2015-11-11 Winner of the John S. Tuckey 2017 Lifetime Achievement Award for Mark Twain Scholarship from The Center for Mark Twain Studies.

American novelist E. L. Doctorow once observed that literature endows places with meaning. Yet as this wide-ranging new book vividly illustrates, understanding the places that shaped American writers' lives and their art can provide deep insight into what makes their literature truly meaningful. Published on the eve of the 50th anniversary of the Historic Preservation Act, Writing America is a unique, passionate, and eclectic series of meditations on literature and history covering over 150 important National Register historic sites, all pivotal to the stories that make up America: from chapels to battlefields, from plantations to immigration stations, and from theaters to internment camps. The book considers not only the traditional sites for literary tourism, such as Mark Twain's sumptuous Connecticut home and the peaceful woods surrounding Walden Pond, but also locations that highlight the diversity of American literature: from the New York tenements that spawned Abraham Cahan's fiction to the Texas pump house that irrigated the fields in which the farm workers central to Gloria Anzald's poetry picked produce. Rather than just providing a cursory overview of these authors' achievements, acclaimed literary scholar and cultural historian Shelley Fisher Fishkin offers a deep and personal reflection on how key sites bore witness to the struggles of American writers and inspired their dreams. She probes the global impact of American writers' innovative art and also examines the distinctive contributions to American culture by American writers who wrote in languages other than English, including Yiddish, Chinese, and Spanish. Only a scholar with as wide-ranging interests as Shelley Fisher Fishkin would dare to bring together in one book writers as diverse as Gloria Anzald, a Nicholas Black Elk, David Bradley, Abraham Cahan, S. Alice Callahan, Raymond Chandler, Frank Chin, Elizabeth Cook, Lynn Countee, Cullen, Frederick Douglass, Paul Laurence Dunbar, Jessie Fauset, William Faulkner, F.
