Kurpershoek, 2022-06-27 This work presents the complete collection of oral poetry by ad Dind n a bedouin poet of the Duw sir tribe in southern Najd transcribed and translated on the basis of taped recordings The text is representative of a poetic tradition which has remained remarkably close to the desert poetry of the early classical age An extensive glossary including detailed cross references to the classical Arabic vocabulary completes this edition The introduction describes Dind n s somewhat anomalous position in local society as a result of his stubborn attachment to nomadism his fierce artistic temper and his unreconstructed bedouin ethos It also discusses the composition of oral poetry the d w n s themes and its place in the Najdi tradition the impact of literacy on the poet s oral work and the prosodic and linguistic features of the text

Introduction to Djibouti Gilad James, PhD, Located in the Horn of Africa Djibouti is a small country that is often overlooked on the continent It is one of the smallest countries in Africa with a population of just over one million people Despite its size Djibouti is strategically located at the mouth of the Red Sea and is a hub for international trade and military operations This has led to the construction of several major ports including the Port of Djibouti which is one of the busiest in Africa The country is also home to several foreign military bases including those of France the United States and China As a result Djibouti has become an important player in regional politics and is often referred to as the gateway to Africa However despite its geopolitical significance Djibouti faces several challenges such as poverty unemployment and political instability The country s economy is largely dependent on foreign aid and military spending which has resulted in an unequal distribution of wealth and limited economic opportunities for the majority of its citizens
