V John Zorn,2010 Mysticism magic and alchemy all come into play in the creative process For centuries musicians have tapped into things spiritual embracing ritual spell incantation and prayer deeply into their life and work Although the connection of music to mysticism has been consistent well documented and productive it is still shrouded in mystery and largely misunderstood For this special edition Arcana focuses on the nexus of mysticism and spirituality in the magical act of making music Far from an historical overview or cold musicologist s study these essays illuminate a fascinating and elusive subject via the eloquent voices of today s most distinguished modern practitioners and greatest adult thinkers providing insights into the esoteric traditions and mysteries involved in the composition and performance of the most mystical of all arts Book cover Magic and Mysticism Herbert Stanley Redgrove,1971 Magic and Mysticism Stanley Redgrove,1970-10

Magic, Mysticism, and Modern Medicine Irving Oyle,1973 Mysticism, Magic, and Monasteries Sebastian Morello,2024-11-22 If the hierarchy spent only half the time on disseminating the mystical and liturgical tradition of the Church that it does on destroying our own liturgical inheritance it could drag us out of the nihilism of the secular age in the flash of a moment According to Sebastian Morello the Church possesses the most potent resources for mystical transformation with the event of the Incarnation and the outpouring of grace it entailed radically altering the cosmic order But we would hardly know it today A leaden blanket of rationalism materialism reductionism all that goes by the name of modernity has descended over this ancient treasury of divine wisdom and myopic pastoral programmes which only intensify the despoilment and quashing of the Lord s Kingdom have eclipsed its innate appeal to the searching heart of modern man In this ambitious and at times unconventional book Morello proposes a pathway of escape from what he calls the hex toward a rediscovery of the Sacred Mystery at the heart of reality The American Journal of Religious Psychology and Education ,1912

Mystic Moderns James H. Thrall, 2020-01-21 Mystic Moderns examines the responses of three British authors Evelyn Underhill 1875 1941 May Sinclair

1863 1946 and Mary Webb 1881 1927 to the emerging modernity of the long early twentieth century moment encompassing the First World War As they explored divergent but overlapping understandings of what mystical experience might be these authors rejected claims that modernity s celebration of the secular and rational left no place for the mystical rather they countered sensitivity to a greater reality could both establish and validate personal agency and was integral to their identities as modern women Their preoccupations with the dynamism of human connection drew on prevailing ideas of vital energy or life force developed by Arthur Schopenhauer and Henri Bergson in ways that channeled modernity s erotic energy of change By using their fiction to describe new self authenticating forms of mysticism separate from either the prevailing orthodoxy of establishment Christianity or the extreme heterodoxy of their era s enthusiasm for paranormal experimentation they also contributed to the rise of a generic concept of spirituality Mystic Moderns thus offers historical perspective on contemporary claims for self constructed non institutional spiritual experience associated with the claim I m spiritual not religious Working as they did within the shadow of the First World War Underhill Sinclair and Webb were in the end attempting to determine what might be of authentic value for a modern age marked by ubiquitous death While not themselves utopian authors each was touched by her era s complicated hunger for the best of all possible worlds Their constructions of how an individual should be and act in the midst of modernity thus simultaneously projected visions of what that modernity itself should become
