Transcending Architecture Julio Bermudez,2015 Please fill in marketing copy The Origins of Shamanism, Spirit Beliefs, and Religiosity H. Sidky,2017-06-21 In The Origins of Shamanism Spirit Beliefs and Religiosity H Sidky examines shamanism as an ancient magico religious divinatory medical and psychotherapeutic tradition found in various parts of the world Sidky uses first hand ethnographic fieldwork and scientific theoretical work in archaeology cognitive and evolutionary psychology and neurotheology to explore the origins of shamanism spirit beliefs the evolution of human consciousness and the origins of ritual behavior and religiosity Public Performances Jack Santino,2017-12-15 Public Performances offers a deep and wide ranging exploration of relationships among genres of public performance and of the underlying political motivations they share Illustrating the connections among three themes the political the carnivalesque and the ritualesque this volume provides rich and comprehensive insight into public performance as an assertion of political power Contributors consider how public genres of performance express not only celebration but also dissent grief and remembrance examine the permeability of the boundaries between genres and analyze the approval or regulation of such events by municipalities and other institutions Where the particular use of public space is not sanctioned or where that use meets with hostility from institutions or represents a critique of them performers are effectively reclaiming public space to make public statements on their own terms an act of popular sovereignty Through these concepts Public Performances distinguishes the sometimes overlapping dimensions of public symbolic display Carnival and thus the carnivalesque is understood to possess tacit social permission for unconventional or even deviant performance on the grounds that normal social order will resume when the performance concludes. Ritual and the ritualesque leverages a deeper symbolic sensibility one believed or at least intended by the participants to effect transformative longer term change. Contributors: Roger D. Antonio Noé Zavaleta Ph.D., 2016-08-17. El Niño Fidencio and the Fidencistas. Folk Religion on the U.S. Mexican Borderland is a biographical ethnography examining the life of Mexico's most famous folk healer as well as the folk religious healing cult that has followed him since his death in 1938. Dr. Zavaleta examines curanderismo, the transmigrational patterns of Mexicans in the United States as well as Latino social psychology and importance of folk beliefs and practices in their daily lives. In 2009, Zavaleta's lifetime of research supporting Mexican nationals living abroad, Mexicanos en el Extranjero, earned him the prestigious Ohtli, a Nahuatl Aztec word meaning pathfinder. The Ohtli is regarded as the highest community-minded award which the Republic of Mexico bestows to non-Mexican citizens for their service to Mexico. In 2010, Zavaleta was appointed by President Obama to the Good Neighbor Environmental Commission of the EPA, which reports directly to the President and is dedicated to observing and analyzing ongoing events within the cross-border eco-systems of the United States-Mexico borderlands. Zavaleta studied anthropology at The University of Texas at Austin, completing a doctoral degree in 1976. For the past 40 years, he has been a faculty member and administrator at The University of Texas at Brownsville and Texas Southmost College and The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley. Dr. Zavaleta retired in 2016 and lives in Brownsville, Texas. The Religious Men in Jebel Marra. Bakheit M. Nur Mohammed, 2017. The study investigates how Muslim religious specialists (fuqar) acquire Qur'anic knowledge in the context of the communities of practice. It contextualises the Qur'anic schools of Jebel Marra in the Sudan, arguing that the fuqar increase their access to knowledge of the Qur'an by socially interacting with each other. The book is grounded in an ethnographic study of Qur'anic memorisation and activities that the fuqar perform after graduation from Qur'anic schools. It thus provides a fresh perspective to Islamic learning and epistemology. The great value of the study lies in the author's reconstruction of the practices and techniques (cognitive and corporeal) which are systematically employed to memorise the whole of the Qur'an. Page 4 of cover. Religion and Anthropology. Brian Morris, 2006. This important textbook provides a critical introduction to the social anthropology of religion, focusing on more recent classical ethnographies. Comprehensive, free of scholastic jargon, engaging and comparative in approach, it covers all the major religious traditions that have been studied concretely by anthropologists: Shamanism, Buddhism, Islam, Hinduism, Christianity, and its relation to African and Melanesian religions, and contemporary Neopaganism. Eschewing a thematic approach and treating religion as a social institution and not simply as an ideology or symbolic system, the book follows the dual heritage of social anthropology in combining an interpretative understanding and sociological analysis. The book will appeal to all students of anthropology.
