Multiculturalism and Magic Realism in Zadie Smith's novel White Teeth: Between Fiction and Reality Sylvia Hadjetian, 2014-03-01 Since the 1970s there has been increasing concern with the impact of post colonialism on British identities and culture White Teeth by Zadie Smith is the story of three families from three different cultural backgrounds set mostly in multicultural London. The first part of this book provides an overview of the former British Empire, the Commonwealth, and the history of Bangladesh, Jamaica, and the Jews in England as relevant to White Teeth. Following this, the role of the former centre of London will be presented. Subsequently, definitions and postcolonial theories (Bhabha, Said, etc.) shall be discussed. The focus of this book is on life in multicultural London. The main aspects analysed in these chapters deal with identity, the location where the novel is set, and racism. A further aim of the book is a comparison between the fictional world of White Teeth and reality. One chapter is devoted to the question of magic realism and the novel's position between two worlds. In a summary, the writer hopes to convince the readers of the fascination felt when reading the novel and when plunging into the buzzing streets of contemporary multicultural London.

The Oxford Handbook of Global Realisms Vaysman, 2025-11-04. Realism is an artistic practice that aims to faithfully represent reality. Historically, it has been practiced across different media from early pictorial art and epic oral narratives through literature and visual arts to film, music, and digital media. However, an understanding of what it means to faithfully represent reality is not universal; rather, it varies from culture to culture. The Oxford Handbook of Global Realisms approaches realism as a transnational, transhistorical, and intermedial global phenomenon. It brings the diversity of global realisms to the fore, showcasing previously underrepresented and marginalized theories, practices, forms, and media of realist cultural production.

Magical Feminism in the Americas: Resisting Female Marginalisation and Oppression through Magic Abu Shahid Abdullah, 2025-01-07. The book aims to show the way magical feminism resists female marginalisation and oppression in the Americas. Dealing with multiple victimisation of women in the Americas who have suffered not only because of their gender but also their race, ethnicity, political ideology, social status, financial insecurity, and such, magical feminism provides a voice to them so that they can speak about their marginalisation and victimisation. In other words, by using magical feminism, these female authors attempt to give a voice to the oppressed women, enabling them to resist and challenge the traditional female role and to raise their voices against various social and political issues. The subversive and transgressive power of magical feminism enables the oppressed women to break patriarchal constraints and to reverse the traditional power structure. By creating an imaginary realm through traditions, local beliefs, and rituals, myth, magic, and the spirits of the dead ancestors as guides, magical feminist technique functions as a survival strategy for women in traumatic and oppressive situations and provides them consolation. The project includes a total of eight novels from African American Gloria Naylor's Mama Day, Latin American Isabel Allende's The House of the Spirits, Native American Louise Erdrich's Tracks, Chicana Ana Castillo's So Far from God, North American Gail Anderson Dargatz's The Cure for Death by Lightning, Central American Gioconda Belli's The Inhabited Woman, Hawaiian American Kiana Davenport's Shark Dialogues, and Cuban American Cristina Garc'a's Dreaming in Cuban background.
