Postcolonial Portuguese Migration to Angola Lisa Åkesson, 2018-02-19 Grounded in extensive and original ethnographic fieldwork this book makes a novel contribution to migration studies by examining a European labour migration to the Global South namely contemporary Portuguese migration to Angola in a postcolonial context In doing so it explores everyday encounters at work between the Portuguese migrants and their Angolan hosts and it analyses how the

Luso African postcolonial heritage interplays with the recent Portuguese Angolan migration in the re construction of power relations and identities Based on ethnographic interviews the book describes the Angolan Portuguese relationship as characterized not only by hierarchies of power but also by ambivalence and hybridity This research demonstrates that the identities of the ex colonized Angolan and the Portuguese ex colonizer are shaped by a history of unequal and violent power relations Further it reveals how this history has produced a sense of intimacy between the two and the often fraught nature of this relationship Combining a strong connection to the field of migration studies with a postcolonial perspective this original work will appeal to students and scholars of migration postcolonial studies the sociology of work and African Studies

Authoritarian Regimes Christine Hackenesch,2018-05-30 This open access book analyses the domestic politics of African dominant party regimes most notably African governments survival strategies to explain their variance of opinions and responses towards the reforming policies of the EU The author discredits the widespread assumption that the growing presence of China in Africa has made the EU s task of supporting governance reforms difficult positing that the EU s good governance strategies resonate better with the survival strategies of governments in some dominant party regimes more so than others regardless of Chinese involvement Hackenesch studies three African nations Angola Ethiopia and Rwanda which all began engaging with the EU on governance reforms in the early 2000s She argues that other factors generally identified in the literature such as the EU good governance strategies or economic dependence of the target country on the EU have set additional incentives for African governments to not engage on governance reforms

Democracy, Elections, and Constitutionalism in Africa Charles Manga Fombad, Nico Steytler, 2021. This volume examines democracy and elections in Africa, taking stock of the state of constitutional democracy on the continent after the democratic gains of the 1990s and 2000s, focusing on how competitive politics or multiparty democracy can be realized and how, through competition, such politics could lead to better policy and practice outcomes.

The Big Con Mariana Mazzucato, Rosie Collington, 2025-05-20. A vital and timely investigation into the opaque and powerful consulting industry and what to do about it. There is an entrenched relationship between the consulting industry and the way business and government are managed today that must change. Mariana Mazzucato and Rosie Collington show that our economies' reliance on companies such as McKinsey Company, Boston Consulting Group, Bain Company, PwC, Deloitte, KPMG, and EY stunts innovation, obfuscates corporate and political accountability, and impedes our collective mission of halting climate breakdown. The Big Con describes the confidence trick the consulting industry performs in contracts with hollowed-out and risk-averse governments and shareholder-value-maximizing firms. It grew from the 1980s and 1990s in the wake of reforms by the neoliberal right and Third Way progressives and it thrives on the ills of modern capitalism, from financialization and privatization to the climate crisis. It is possible because of the unique power that big consultancies wield through extensive contracts and networks as advisors, legitimators, and outsourcers, and the illusion that they are objective sources of expertise and capacity. In the end, the Big Con weakens our businesses, infantilizes our governments, and warps our economies. In The Big Con, Mazzucato and Collington throw back the curtain on the consulting industry. They dive deep into important case studies of consultants taking the reins with disastrous results, such as the debacle of the roll-out of HealthCare.gov and the tragic failures of governments to respond adequately to the COVID-19 pandemic. The result is an important and exhilarating intellectual journey into the modern economy's beating heart. With peerless scholarship and a wealth of original research, Mazzucato and Collington argue brilliantly for building a new system in which public and private sectors work innovatively for the common good.

Africa's Shadow Rise Pádraig Carmody, Peter Kragelund, Ricardo Reboledo, 2020-09-17. For years, economists have spoken of Africa rising, and despite the global financial crisis, Africa continues to host some of the fastest-growing economies in the world. Africa's Shadow Rise, however, argues that the continent's apparent economic rise is essentially a mirage driven by developments elsewhere, most particularly the expansion in China's economy. While many African countries have experienced high rates of growth, much of this growth may prove to be unsustainable and has contributed to environmental destruction and worsening inequality across the continent. Similarly, new economic relationships have produced new forms of dependency.

as African nations increasingly find themselves tied to the fortunes of China and other emerging powers Drawing on in depth fieldwork in southern Africa Africa s Shadow Rise reveals how the shifting balance of global power is transforming Africa s economy and politics and what this means for the future of development efforts in the region Shortlisted for the Business Council for Africa s African Business Book of the Year 2023
