The Drama of Preaching Eric B. Watkins, 2017-02-16 Preaching is dramatic Through it we hear the voice of the living God as he speaks to us both through the reading and the preaching of the word of God But where do the hearers of sermons fit into the drama This book suggests ways in which the drama metaphor may help to address age old questions about the centrality of the gospel and the place of the hearer in preaching As God in Christ is the central character in the biblical drama of redemption he also calls hearers to understand their role in creatively yet faithfully living according to the biblical script Thus no sermon is complete until God s redemptive work is powerfully proclaimed and his people are instructed in how they too are participating in the Missio Dei In this work Hebrews 11 is employed as a means of showing how God not only reveals his redemptive work to his people but also through them As postmodernism sets the stage of contemporary preaching The Drama of Preaching interacts with some of the particular challenges preachers face in engaging postmodern listeners that they might not only be hearers but doers of the preached word

Paul and the Language of Faith Nijay K. Gupta, 2020-02-04 A dynamic reading of Paul s faith language outlining its subtle nuances as belief trust and faithfulness Faith language permeates the letters of Paul Yet its exact meaning is not always clear Many today reflecting centuries of interpretation consider belief in Jesus to be a passive act In this important book Nijay Gupta challenges common assumptions in the interpretation of Paul and calls for a reexamination of Paul s faith language Gupta argues that Paul s faith language resonates with a Jewish understanding of covenant involving goodwill trust and expectation Paul s understanding of faith involves the transformation of one s perception of God and the world through Christ relational dependence on Christ as well as active loyalty to Christ Pastors and scholars alike will benefit from this close examination of Paul s understanding and use of faith language For Gupta Paul s understanding involves a divine human relationship centered on Christ that believes trusts and obeys
