The European Union and Its Eastern Neighbourhood Andriy Tyushka, Tobias Schumacher, 2021-11-29 This edited volume brings together some of the most important scholarly perspectives in the form of both journal article reprints and original contributions on the structure and dynamics of the EU's multi layered relations with its Eastern neighbours within the Eastern Partnership EaP framework and beyond In May 2019 the EU's EaP an ambitious and sophisticated policy framework conjoining elements of cooperation and integration with the EU's six eastern neighbours i.e. Ukraine Belarus Moldova Georgia Armenia and Azerbaijan turned ten years This anniversary in conjunction with repeatedly voiced critique by scholars and policy makers alike regarding the framework's effectiveness and utility led the EU to submit the EaP to a fundamental auditing and revision. Structured around both enduring and emerging issues in the broader EU Eastern neighbourhood framework, this book provides a retrospective analysis of key structural and relational challenges, unfolding regional dynamics, distinctive forms of bilateral/multilateral engagement, whilst also offering a critical perspective on the contested future relations between the EU and its Eastern neighbours. Looking backwards and providing a critical and thorough assessment of the first ten years of the EaP in practice, this book thinks forward and gauges its many potential future avenues. This comes at a crucial moment as the EU and its six Eastern neighbours are in search of new and mutually acceptable forms of association.

The Unwanted Europeanness? Branislav Radeljić, 2021-01-18. Can we be optimistic about the future of Europe? To what extent has the European integrationist project affected the discourse about the core and the semi-periphery? Why does the European Union struggle with its own and the neighbouring Other? These are some of the questions addressed in this thought-provoking volume about the dilemmas surrounding the ever-uncertain European unity. A wide range of contributors have drawn upon invaluable sources and data to examine a broad selection of official discords and discrepancies characterizing the EU's relations with the Balkans, East Central Europe and beyond. Moreover, past events have shaped present political and socioeconomic cooperation or its deficiencies with no reason to believe that these present challenges will not further influence future arrangements at a supranational or intergovernmental level. Whichever the period, questions of belonging, solidarity and the unwanted Other have remained relevant and have continued to penetrate discussions. In addition to complementing the existing analyses of European developments, the present findings are of great relevance for researchers, policymakers and general readership. In fact, they are essential if we want to see Europe develop.

Changing Perceptions of the EU at Times of Brexit Natalia Chaban, Arne Niemann, Johanna Speyer, 2020-07-19. This volume brings together contributions that conceptualize and measure EU perceptions in the strategic regions around the world in the aftermath of the UK referendum. Contributors assess the evolution of EU perceptions in each location and discuss how their findings may contribute to crafting foreign policy options for the new EU-27. Brexit is very likely to have a substantial bearing on EU external policy, not merely because of the loss of a major member state with a special relationship to the US and the Commonwealth, but also because it challenges the integrational success story that the EU strives to embody. This book thus serves a dual purpose: on the one hand, it broadens the recent studies on Brexit by focusing on external partners' reactions; and on the other, it allows for an innovative evaluation of policy options for EU foreign policy. Based on a solid theoretical foundation and empirically rich data, it constitutes an innovative and timely addition to the evolving debate on Brexit and its consequences This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of European politics Brexit British politics EU politics comparative politics and international relations
