centers on Buddhist art from the Western Ch in 385 431 A D in eastern Kansu northwest China primarily from the cave temples of Ping ling ssu and Mai chi shan A detailed chronological and iconographic study of sculptures and wall paintings in Cave 169 at Ping ling ssu particularly yields a chronological framework for unlocking the difficult issues of dating early fifth century Chinese Buddhist art and offers some new insights into textual sources in the Lotus Hua yen and Amitabha sutras Further this study introduces the iconography of the five Buddhas and its relation to the art of Gandhara and the famous five colossal T an yao caves at Y n kang The Publishers Weekly ,1998 Great Religious Myths of the Twenty-First Century Pram Nguyen,2009-08 Early Buddhist Art of China and Central Asia, Volume 3 Marilyn M. Rhie,2010-06-14 Presenting new studies on the chronology and iconography of Buddhist art during the Western Ch in 385 431 A D in northwest China including Ping ling ssu and Mai chi shan this book addresses issues of dating textual sources the five Buddhas and relation with Gandhara Extraordinary Times, Extraordinary Beings Wayne S. Peterson,2003-03-01 All major religions of the world are expecting him Christians know him as the Christ Jews are still awaiting the Messiah Hindus anticipate the coming of Krishna Muslims are expecting the Imam Mahdi And Buddhists call him the Fifth Maitreya Buddha The names are all different but many believe they all refer to the same person a world Teacher who is among us now and is called Maitreya But he does not come as a religious leader He is here as a guide for people of all religions all countries all societies In this age of crisis he is here to inspire all of us to put down the sword of religious social and economic strife and to seek justice based on sharing and global cooperation of the human family His message is that of all great teachers of the ageless wisdom peace love the golden rule Some very prominent world leaders and celebrities and many others are aware of Maitreya s reappearance but are not yet prepared to go public due to the possible effect on their professional reputations however many believe that it s just a matter of time before everyone will recognize that the world teacher is back living among us Wayne Peterson a former American diplomat and director of the Fulbright Scholarship program tells the story of his own extraordinary encounters with Maitreya and why Maitreya has returned It is a story of strange fascinating events and penetrating wisdom and an inspirational message of hope for the future It is a story that deals with nothing less than humanity s opportunity to redefine its institutions and beliefs based on the ancient wisdom common to all traditions Above all it is a story both personal and planetary of love and of those extraordinary spiritual beings who embody it to the world

Maitreya on the Image of God Elizabeth Clare Prophet,1990 Religion and Social Formation in Korea Sang-t'aek Yi,1996 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series Anarchy in the Pure Land Justin Ritzinger, 2017-08-31 Anarchy in the Pure Land investigates the twentieth century reinvention of the cult of Maitreya the future Buddha conceived by the reformer Taixu and promoted by the Chinese Buddhist reform movement The cult presents an apparent anomaly It shows precisely the kind of concern for ritual supernatural beings and the afterlife that the reformers supposedly rejected in the name of modernity This book shows that rather than a concession to tradition the reimagining of ideas and practices associated with Maitreya was an important site for formulating a Buddhist vision of modernity Justin Ritzinger argues that the cult of Maitreya represents an attempt to articulate a new constellation of values integrating novel understandings of the good clustered around modern visions of utopia with the central Buddhist goal of Buddhahood In Part One he traces the roots of this constellation to Taixu's youthful career as an anarchist Part Two examines its articulation in the Maitreya School's theology and its social development from its inception to World War II Part Three looks at its subsequent decline and contemporary legacy within and beyond orthodox Buddhism Through these investigations Anarchy in the Pure Land develops a new framework for alternative understandings of modernity in Buddhism
