Make Us Dream A Liverpool Fans View Of The 2013 Or 14 Season:

Make Us Dream: A Fan's View of the 2013/14 Season Neil Collins, 2014-07-05 LAST summer few football fans would've given Liverpool a realistic chance of Champions League qualification let alone a title challenge sustained to the final day But one man believed The 2013 14 season marked the year when Brendan Rodgers revolutionised the club by restoring the faith and reconnecting it with its fans Throughout the entire campaign he oversaw a breathtaking brand of football spearheaded by Suarez Sturridge Sterling and Steven Gerrard or poetry in motion as the Anfield faithful called it Kopites asked the squad to make us dream and Liverpool were finally awoken from being one of the game's sleeping giants to becoming a force again Relive all the classic moments through the eyes of a diehard supporter on the road with Rodgers Reds And experience fly on the wall accounts of the sights sounds songs and smells of match days Crammed with in depth analysis humour and facts Make Us Dream is not the closing of a chapter but the start of a compelling new one Focus On: 100 Most Popular

Expatriate Footballers in Spain Wikipedia contributors, Red Mist: A Fan's View of the 2014/15 Season Neil Collins, 2015-07-13 AFTER the heartbreak of last year's near miss Kopites anticipated Brendan Rodgers Liverpool taking one step further and winning their first title since 1990 But what followed was one of the most tumultuous seasons in the club's history Luis Suarez was embroiled in the third biting incident of his career at the World Cup and was reluctantly sold to Barcelona His replacement was the equally controversial Mario Balotelli And with the season at its lowest ebb the bombshell was dropped that arguably Liverpool's greatest ever player Steven Gerrard would be leaving Experience all the trials and tribulations from the perspective of an obsessive LFC fan featuring articles from The Liverpool Way Red All Over the Land and We Are Liverpool fanzines Packed with honesty and dark humour Red Mist is an intense examination of what exactly went wrong at Anfield this season both on the pitch and behind the scenes Ta Ra Fergie Pete Molyneux, 2013-06-03 In December 1989 United fanatic Pete Molyneux raised a banner calling for Alex Ferguson's head sparking the most famous protest in Old Trafford's 103 years For manager and supporter alike it was their darkest hour Pete never gave up on his team and thank God Fergie stayed Ta Ra Fergie tells Pete's story of his time following United at home and abroad since 1963 attending over 2 000 matches This is the story of United from a fan's perspective It covers Busby's European triumph the despair of relegation and the tortuous false dawns of the 1980s to that elusive title win and Alex Ferguson's twenty six year reign Watching United has brought countless thrills but for Pete it has also had a darker side that led to heartache and tragedy The Illustrated London News, 1858 The Times Index, 2013-04 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Time educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement Make Us Dream Neil Atkinson, John Gibbons, 2014-07-28 Liverpool's 2013/14 campaign was no ordinary football season It was the season when everything changed A year of hope fantasy adventure where joyous reclamation met crushing disappointment and won A season defined by many individuals moments goals and memories A time when the brand of heroic and daring football and footballers that seemed consigned to the sepia toned era of the game's past returned. It was a season when millions of Liverpool supporters dared to dream again. And yet as records tumbled and players wowed it was a season that ultimately transcended football in which a fanbase were reminded what they love most about the game and their club excitement spirit and pride. In Make Us Dream The Anfield Wrap's Neil Atkinson and John Gibbons take us on a journey through Liverpool's most remarkable Premier League season. In a journey that takes them from Melbourne to Merseyside and all places in between they detail the explosion of belief from Liverpool's worldwide diaspora. Demonstrating how Liverpool's season impacted a club and support at a crossroads between its past and football's future the authors are joined by a series of guest writers sharing their own impressions and experiences. Between them they create a compelling and passionate narrative of a club city and supporter base having the most fun in the world. Make Us Dream Neil Atkinson, John Gibbons, 2014. A diary of Liverpool Football Club's 2014/15 season with a difference. The book may kick off with a chapter on the season opener and end with the last game but this diary isn't written by a single author. Nor does it focus heavily on the actual football. Instead We're Everywhere, Us is a collaboration a compilation of pieces offering a different personal take on what it means to support Liverpool. Friendship Family Travel Tragedy Work. Each piece is a long rich read completely unique and distinct from those that precede and follow it. Some of the finest writers on Liverpool FC are involved including Simon Hughes Kevin Sampson Melissa Reddy Paul Tomkins Mike Nevin and Steve Kelly. There are also contributions from Liverpool supporters living abroad which gives We're Everywhere, Us a truly international feel while opposition fans add yet another perspective on Liverpool FC's season our captivating city and proud history. A Surprising Season Pablo Gutierrez, 2014-06-11. Many terms could accurately be applied to Liverpool FC 2013/2014 season. Almost all of them charged with positive reminiscences.

Since the beginning of the Premier League more than 20 years ago Liverpool FC had never been closer to winning the title had never been challenging for so long had never scored more than 100 times had never had a string of 11 consecutive league wins A season that has been enthralling hopeful inspiring full of proud and dreams interesting encouraging no doubt with a touch of disappointment A season that has also been surprising Surprising in many ways From a 7th finish in the league table the previous season hardly anyone could have hoped the kind of season that the team has offered to the fans Therefore surprise is a prevalent feeling Almost every player has performed above their expected level thus laying the foundations for the team to have such a successful run in the Premier League In particular Sterling Suarez and Gerrard each one in their own task have simply excelled to a surprising extent and in one moment or another led the team to success Surprise after surprise only the final culmination has been elusive to Liverpool FC in 2013 2014 In the form of a diary this book offers a personal view on how the season and its surprises unfolded for Liverpool FC It provides the reader with an opportunity to relive all the process with the joyful moments and the final frustration it also provides the opportunity to keep the season alive to keep experiencing the surprise

Liverpool FC 2013/14 Season in Review: Poetry in Motion Karl Matchett, Si Steers, Andrew Lawrence, Jack Lusby, Henry Jackson, Tom McMahon, Ben Twelves, Neil Poole, 2014-05-27 Liverpool Football Club's 2013 14 season saw the club finally re emerge as a contender for the Premier League title playing out an enthralling season of attack minded football full of goals big wins over rivals and plenty of moments to have fans dreaming of success once more With the likes of Luis Suarez Daniel Sturridge Steven Gerrard and Raheem Sterling in the team Reds manager Brendan Rodgers masterminded the first genuine title push in five years giving belief that the club are on the path to ending their long wait for a league championship title at last Poetry in Motion captures the excitement and feeling of reawakening experienced by supporters over the course of the campaign and includes memories and analyses from key fixtures along with a complete review of all the club went through during a season to remember
