future Cover The Complete Idiot's Guide to Getting Out of Debt Ken Clark, CFP,2009-02-03 Borrowing from Peter to pay Paul The American economy is dragging with unemployment rates rising and consumer debt hitting 2.5 trillion Many people are in deep and need help Here a Certified Financial Planner explains the mathematics of debt strategies to deal with credit card mortgage student and other loans why debt consolidation and taking loans from a 401 k can lead to problems truths about bankruptcy and how to use debt while eliminating it Includes essential resources and websites sample letters and forms loan forgiveness programs bankruptcy resources Author a Certified Financial Planner Covers every kind of debt mortgages to credit cards to student loans National credit card debt is growing exponentially The Complete Idiot's Concise Guide to Getting Out of Debt Ken Clark, CFP CFP,2014-07-01 You want to lower or even eliminate your debt But it's not easy to balance your checkbook when so much of your salary is consumed by life This helpful guide offers solid strategies to help you get out of your money pit In it you get an understanding of where debt comes from and how to control your cash flow expert advice on creating a budget plan and payment strategy you can live with tactics for regaining control over credit cards your mortgage and other debt and real world tips on getting creditors off your back All the Money in the World Laura Vanderkam,2012-03-01 How happy would you be if you had all the money in the world The universal lament about money is that there is never enough We spend endless hours obsessing over our budgets and investments trying to figure out ways to stretch every dollar We try to follow the advice of money gurus and financial planners then kick ourselves whenever we spend too much or save too little For all of the stress and effort we put into every choice why are most of us unhappy about our finances According to Laura Vanderkam the key is to change your perspective Instead of looking at money as a scarce resource consider it a tool that you can use creatively to build a better life for yourself and the people you care about For instance the average couple spends 5 000 on engagement and wedding rings making these pricey purchases largely because everyone else does But what if you decided to spend 300 on rings and apply the rest to future date nights weekend getaways and thinking of you bouquets over the next ten years In the long run what would bring more joy to your marriage Likewise will owning a home with a pristine lawn and a two car garage the American Dream really make you more satisfied Or are you saving up for this investment just because financial planners tell you it's worth it Vanderkam shows how each of us can figure out better ways to use what we have to build the lives we want Drawing on the latest happiness research as well as the stories of dozens of real people Vanderkam offers a contrarian approach that forces us to examine our own beliefs goals and values Among her advice Laugh at the Joneses It's human nature to compare yourself to those around you but you can create lifestyle that rings your personal satisfaction without copying your neighbors Give yourself the best weekend ever Studies show that experiences often bring more pleasure than material goods With a little planning and creativity you can give yourself a memorable getaway without leaving town or going broke Embrace the selfish joy of giving Giving back not only helps you build karma it also helps you build a community which is much more fulfilling than a tax deduction All the Money in the World is a practical and inspiring guide that shows how money can buy happiness if we spend it wisely
