Make Love Not War Coloring:

Make Love, Not War David Allyn, 2016-05-23 When Helen Gurley Brown's Sex and the Single Girl hit bookstores in 1962 the sexual revolution was launched and there was no turning back Soon came the pill the end of censorship the advent of feminism and the rise of commercial pornography Our daily lives changed in an unprecedented time of sexual openness and experimentation Make Love Not War is the first serious treatment of the complicated events ideas and personalities that drove the sexual revolution forward Based on first hand accounts diaries interviews and period research it traces changes in private lives and public discourse from the fearful fifties to the first tremors of rebellion in the early sixties to the heady heyday of the revolution Bringing a fresh perspective to the turbulence of these decades David Allyn argues that the sexual revolutionaries of the 60s and 70s by telling the truth about their own histories and desires forced all Americans to re-examine the very meaning of freedom Written with a historian's attention to nuance and a novelist's narrative drive Make Love Not War is a provocative vivid and thoughtful account of one of the most captivating episodes in American history Also includes an 8 page insert

Dr. Leigh Davis, 2012-02-29 ABOUT THE BOOK The 1960s represent the 7th decade of the 20th century and are remembered as a time of change youth influence radicalism and the sexual revolution The baby boomers of the 1940 s were coming of age and the largest population of college age men and women banded together to mark a major turning point in the culture of nations worldwide From the swinging sixties in London and the hip fashions on Carnaby Road to the political activism and demonstrations in the United States and the standoffs on college campuses to Woodstock the music festival to end all music festivals in upstate New York the 1960s were influenced by youth no longer content to be representations of the generation preceding them and of course a time of sex love and rock who frequently works as a TV news legal analyst Dr Leigh Davis has taught at Cal State University and is a native of Beverly Hills California

EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK The people who invented the twenty first century were pot smoking sandal wearing hippies from the West Coast like Steve because they saw differently he said The hierarchical systems of the East Coast England Germany and Japan do not encourage this different thinking The sixties produced an anarchic mind set that is great for imagining a world not yet in existence Walter Isaacson on Steve Jobs Buy a copy to keep reading Canyon Cinema

Scott MacDonald, 2008-01-02 Bringing alive a remarkable moment in American cultural history Scott MacDonald tells the colorful story of how a small backyard organization in the San Francisco Bay Area emerged in the 1960s and evolved to become a major force in the development of independent cinema Drawing from extensive conversations with men and women crucial to

Canyon Cinema from its newsletter Canyon Cinemanews and from other key sources MacDonald offers a lively chronicle of the life and times of this influential idiosyncratic film exhibition and distribution collective His book features many primary documents that are as engaging and relevant now as they were when originally published including essays poetry experimental writing and drawings

COLOR BLIND Dr. John "Coach" Tice, 2023-11-21 John's Colorblind Journey isn't just a history lesson it's also a personal story about an average person living through amazing times It shows how strong the human spirit is and how people don't let differences stop them from getting along His story is meant to get you to look deeper and accept the values of equality tolerance and friendship that continue to shape our diverse and always changing society If you read John's Colorblind Journey you can put yourself in his shoes and go through an unforgettable period in American history he was born without a sense of color so he never understood the idea of different races He thought that relationship was about more than skin color and this idea would change his life in ways he could never have imagined His story starts in 1969 in West Melbourne Florida when he was a sophomore in high school At the time America was going through a very big change The Civil Rights Act of 1964 had just been signed into law which was a turning point in the history of our country It made it illegal to treat people differently because of their race gender sex or country of birth and it started to break down the long standing system of division As he went through high school he saw big changes around him The Voting Rights Act of 1965 aimed to make it easier for African Americans especially in the South to vote The Fair Housing Act 1968 aimed to stop housing discrimination based on race These were big steps forward for the Civil Rights Movement and his own life happened at the same time as they happened As we go through this book together he hopes his experiences and views will strike a chord with you and make you think about how long Americans have fought for equality and togetherness John's Colorblind Journey is more than just his story it shows how we all should have worked towards a more fair and open society

Color as Field Karen Wilkin, Carl Belz, Denver Art Museum, 2007-01-01 Color field painting which emerged in the United States in the 1950s is based on radiant uninflected hues Exemplified by the work of Helen Frankenthaler Morris Louis Kenneth Noland Jules Olitski Larry Poons and Frank Stella among others these stunningly beautiful and impressively scaled paintings constitute one of the crowning achievements of postwar American abstract art Color as Field offers a long overdue reevaluation of this important aspect of American abstract painting The authors examine how color field painting rejects the gestural layered and hyper emotional approach typical of Willem de Kooning and his followers yet at the same time develops and expands ideas about color and the primacy of color posited by the work of other members of the abstract expressionist generation such as Adolph Gottlieb Hans Hofmann Robert Motherwell Jackson Pollock and Mark Rothko From the fresh historical standpoint of the 21st century this fascinating reassessment ranges across the artists individual approaches and their commonalities concluding with insights into the ongoing legacy of post 1970s color field painting among present day artists

young when he wrote the poems in this book He began writing at age 15 and by age 19 he had completed over 160 poems Jerry wrote these poems with your mind in mind They will take you on a mystical journey through color and time to places far away through strange doorways to somewhere familiar yet strange Watch time stand still see the wind disappear as you slip into another world beyond the door Experience the mystery and wonder as you journey through this collection of poems

psychoanalysis out of the cozy confines of the consulting room and into the realms of the marginalized to the very individuals whom this theory and practice often overlooked In doing so he brought together psychoanalytic and social theory and examined how divisions of race class and culture reflect and influence splits in the developing self more often than not leading to a negative self image of the other in an increasingly polarized society Much like the original this second edition of The Analyst in the Inner City opens up with updated detailed clinical vignettes and case presentations which illustrate the challenges of working within this clinical milieu Altman greatly expands his section on race both in the psychoanalytic and the larger social world including a focus on whiteness which he argues is socially constructed in relation to blackness However he admits the inadequacy of such categorizations and proffers a more fluid view of the structure of race A brand new section Thinking Systemically and Psychoanalytically at the Same Time examines the impact of the socio political context in which psychotherapy takes place whether local or global on the clinical work itself and the socio economic categories of its patients and vice versa Topics in this section include the APA s relationship to CIA interrogation practices group dynamics in child and adolescent psychotherapeutic interventions and psychoanalytic views on suicide bombing Ranging from the day to day work in a public clinic in the South Bronx to considerations of global events far outside the clinic s doors but closer than one might think this book is a timely revision of a groundbreaking work in psychoanalytic literature expanding the import of psychoanalysis from the centers of analytical thought to the margins of clinical need Born Again Hunter David Dawson Humes,2010-12-27 Born Again Hunter - Special Family Edition David Dawson Humes,2010-12-27 Popular Fads and Crazes through American History Nancy Hendricks,2018-08-17 This informative two volume set provides readers with an understanding of the fads and crazes that have taken America by storm from colonial times to the present Entries cover a range of topics including food entertainment fashion music and language Why could hula hoops and TV westerns only have been found in every household in the 1950s What murdered Russian princess can be seen in one of the first documented selfies taken in 1914 This book answers those questions and more in its documentation of all of the most captivating trends that have defined American popular culture since before the country began Entries are well researched and alphabetized by decade At the start of every section is an insightful historical overview of the decade and the set uniquely illustrates what today s readers have in common with the past It also contains a Glossary of Slang for each decade as well as a bibliography plus suggestions for further reading for each entry Students and readers interested in history will enjoy discovering trends through the years in such areas as fashion movies music and sports
