

Step 3

Powder

For a matte finish, long wear, apply loose powder in a light, effortless way for subtle, if any, coverage. Set your complexion using the same blending brush as a loose powder puff.

Apply powder to the correct shade For your skin tone, choose the shade of the face using a powder puff or powder brush.

Pat the powder lightly and evenly over your face, avoiding the hairline.

Step 4

Blush

Smile and apply a natural shade of blush to the apples of cheeks. Blend up toward the hairline, then downward to soften the color.

For long-lasting results Layer a ring of fingertip blush on top.

For all-day glow Dust a delicate powder on the cheekbones with a fine powder brush, or use a smaller brush applied with your finger.

Tap or blow off any extra powder. Blush that has been applied before applying skin care may feel sticky due to the oils in the skin. There is no need to wait until the skin is dry.

Put fingers on your chin and use your thumb to pat the skin.

Brush a comb over the skin, patting down the skin along the jawline, especially along the hairline, to blend the blush into the skin.

Step 5

Lipstick

Start with clean, smooth lips.

Smile. Apply the lipstick and allow the color to set. To apply lipstick from the tube, hold the tube like a lip brush to apply lipstick in full, even strokes, which require gentle application.

Use the corner of your finger to gently smudge the lipstick into the skin. The lips should appear moist and smooth, with the lipstick color that just fits.

Apply lipstick to the lips and use a finger to pat the lipstick into the skin. The lips should appear moist and smooth, with the lipstick color that just fits.

Step 6

Lip Liner

The softest natural-looking definition can be kept out of the hairline. Use a lip liner to define the lips, applying the color to the lips and then the hairline.

To make your lipstick last longer, apply the lip liner to the lips and then the hairline.
