Making A Global Immigrant Neighborhood Brooklyn's Sunset Park Asian American History Cultu:

Making a Global Immigrant Neighborhood Tarry Hum, 2014-06-13 Based on more than a decade of research Making a Global Immigrant Neighborhood charts the evolution of Sunset Park with a densely concentrated working poor and racially diverse immigrant population from the late 1960s to its current status as one of New York City's most vibrant neighborhoods. Tarry Hum shows how processes of globalization such as shifts in low wage labor markets and immigration patterns shaped the neighborhood. She explains why Sunset Park's future now depends on Asian and Latino immigrant collaborations in advancing common interests in community building, civic engagement, entrepreneurialism, and sustainability planning. She shows too how residents' responses to urban development policies and projects and the capital represented by local institutions and banks foster community activism. Hum pays close attention to the complex social, political, and spatial dynamics that forge a community and create new models of leadership as well as coalitions. The evolution of Sunset Park so astutely depicted in this book suggests new avenues for studying urban change and community development. Mapping AsiaTown Cleveland Rebecca Jo Kinney, 2025-04-11 Cleveland's AsiaTown presents a unique opportunity to analyze the role of regional racial formation in the community development of an Asian American urban center in a midsize Rust Belt city, underscoring the contextual and mutable understanding of place. The Asian American Avant-Garde Audrey Wu Clark, 2015-10 The Asian American Avant Garde is the first book-length study that conceptualizes a long neglected canon of early Asian American literature and art. Audrey Wu Clark traces a genealogy of counter universalism in short fiction, poetry, novels, and art produced by writers and artists of Asian descent who were responding to their contemporary period of Asian exclusion in the United States between the years 1882 and 1945. Believing in the promise of an inclusive America, these avant-gardists critiqued racism as well as institutionalized art. Clark examines racial outsiders including Isamu Noguchi, Dong Kingman, and Yun Gee to show how they engaged with modernist ideas, particularly cubism. She draws comparisons between writers such as Sui Sin Far and Carlos Bulosan with modernist luminaries like Stein, Eliot, Pound, and Proust. Acknowledging the anachronism of the term Asian American with respect to these avant-gardists, Clark attempts to reconstruct it. The Asian American Avant Garde explores the ways in which these artists and writers responded to their racialization and the Orientalism that took place in modernist writing. Creating a Buddhist Community Jiemin Bao, 2015-04-10 The Wat Thai Buddhist Temple in Silicon Valley was founded in 1983 by a group of predominantly middle-class men and women with different ethnic and racial identities. The temple, which functions as a religious, social, economic, educational, and cultural hub, has become a place for the community members to engage in spiritual and cultural practices. In Creating a Buddhist Community, Jiemin Bao shows how the Wat Thai participants practice Buddhism and rework gender relationships in the course of organizing temple space, teaching meditation, schooling children in Thai language and culture, merit making, fundraising, and celebrating festivals. Bao's detailed account of the process of creating an inclusive temple community with

Thai immigrants as the majority helps to deconstruct the exoticized view of Buddhism in American culture Creating a Buddhist Community also explores Wat Thai s identification with both the United States and Thailand and how this transnational perspective reimagines and reterritorializes what is called American Buddhism The Collected Short Stories of Bharati Mukherjee Bharati Mukherjee,2023-07-07 This volume is the first work of its kind to collect the complete short fiction of acclaimed author Bharati Mukherjee Unsettled Eric Tang,2015-10 As many as 10 000 Southeast Asian refugees arrived in the Bronx during the 1980s and 90s This book chronicles the odyssey of Bronx Cambodians closely following one woman and her family for several years Argues that refuge is never found that rescue discourses mask a more profound urban reality characterized by racialized geographic enclosure economic displacement and unrelenting poverty and the criminalization of daily life Views the hyperghetto as a site of extreme isolation punishment and confinement What does it mean for these Cambodians to resettle into this distinct time and space of slavery s afterlife publisher Refugee Lifeworlds Y-Dang Troeung,2022-08-29 Utilizing the concept of aphasia this book demonstrates how Cambodian refugee narratives resist state violence and take head on hegemonic discourses across popular and scholarly spaces that prop up colonial imperial capitalist heteropatriarchal and ableist formations of the Cold War in Cambodia

Fashioning Diaspora Vanita Reddy,2016-02 The author maps how transnational itineraries of Indian beauty and fashion shaped South Asian American cultural identities and racialized belonging from the 1990s through the first decade of the twenty first century She observes how diasporic subjects engage with and respond to various encounters with Indian beauty and fashion She examines a range of literature visual art and live performance such as novels by Bharati Mukherjee and Jhumpa Lahiri young adult literature performance art by Shailja Patel beauty and adornment practices as well as objects of popular culture including an Indian American fashion doll Reddy challenges fashion and beauty as a set of dematerialized overly commodified cultural practices She argues instead that beauty and fashion structure South Asian Americans uneven access to social mobility capital and citizenship and she demonstrates their varying capacities to produce social attachments across national class racial gender and generational divides Passing for Perfect erin Khuê Ninh,2021-07-30 What is it about model minority identity that is so hard to let go of What is so enthralling about its high achieving gloss or terrifying about its reputational loss that could drive someone to pose as a student at Stanford or medical school or even to murder

Racial Feelings Jeffrey Santa Ana,2015-06-12 In Racial Feelings Jeffrey Santa Ana examines how Asian American narratives communicate and critique to varying degrees the emotions that power the perception of Asians as racially different Santa Ana explores various forms of Asian American cultural production ranging from literature and graphic narratives to film and advertising to illuminate the connections between global economic relations and the emotions that shape aspirations for the good life He illustrates his argument with examples including the destitute Filipino immigrant William Paulinha in Han Ong s Fixer Chao who targets his anger on the capitalist forces of objectification that racially exploit him and Nan and Pingpin in Ha Jin's A Free Life who seek happiness and belonging in America Racial Feelings addresses how Asian Americans both resist and rely on stereotypes in their writing and art work In addition Santa Ana investigates how capitalism shapes and structures an emotional discourse that represents Asians as both economic exemplars and threats

Unquiet Tropes Elda E Tsou, 2015-03-27 Until quite recently Asian American literary criticism had little to do with form Instead the tendency was to bind the literary tradition to identity formation For Elda Tsou however the distinctions of ethnic writing extend beyond such facile referential practices to incorporate form and aesthetics In Unquiet Tropes Tsou reconceptualizes the literature as a set of highly particular classical rhetorical tropes including antanacrisis rhetorical question apophasis catachresis and allegory Looking at five canonical works Aiiieeeee No No Boy China Men Blue's Hanging and Native Speaker Tsou shows how these texts use figurative means to confront the problem of race She also explores how traces of Asian American history live on through these figures Each case study in Unquiet Tropes considers a different scenario defiance coercion necessity error and deceit to show how literary representation from the 1950s through 1997 has responded to a specific political condition
