The Social Context of Birth Gurcharan Rai,2017-09-07 Greatly expanded revised and updated with an entirely new chapter on disability The Social Context of Birth Second Edition provides an essential understanding of how social issues affect midwives the birth process and motherhood Childbirth is much more than a biological event or a set of case notes No one has an uneventful pregnancy and women seek narratives through which they can explain and try to make sense of what has happened to them This is often neglected in the relentlessly technocratic modern culture of childbirth Appreciating the social context surrounding an individual enriches the understanding a midwife must have if she is to work successfully alongside a woman and her family throughout a pregnancy and birth in an insightful intelligent and informed manner This comprehensive guide provides countless valuable insights for midwives nurses obstetricians and health visitors into the many different lives experiences and expectations of women in their childbearing years their babies and families in the 21st Century Written by a team of highly experienced health professionals it also covers contentious areas of maternity care such as new reproductive technologies and fetal surveillance Reproductive Health Psychology Olga B. A. van den Akker, 2012-04-02 REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH PSYCHOLOGY This wide ranging and well researched book goes well beyond the traditional confines of reproductive psychology It expertly interweaves evidence on the biological psychological social and cultural factors that affect the reproductive development behaviours and decision making of both women and men As well as the expected chapters on sexual development pregnancy and birth and artificial reproduction it addresses sex and gender development across the lifespan from childhood to old age parenthood and reproductive issues for under represented groups such as homosexual men and women intersex individuals and those who are childless by choice The book will be a valuable reference for psychologists and sociologists as well as midwives gynaecologists and obstetricians and indeed anyone with research or clinical interests that intersect with reproduction and with gender Christina Lee Professor of Health Psychology University of Queensland This book provides a comprehensive and accessible introduction to psychological aspects of reproductive health throughout the lifespan Drawing on psychological theory and a wealth of empirical research the importance of psychological factors in reproductive health is clearly demonstrated conceptualized within a broadly bio psycho social model The coverage of a broad range of topics from foetal growth to menopause including adolescence menstruation contraception abortion fertility pregnancy and post natal experience along the way is a great strength This book will become a key resource for health psychologists nurses and medical students who wish to understand psychological aspects of reproductive experience Jane M Ussher Professor of Women s Health Psychology University of Western Sydney and Author of The Madness of Women Myth and Experience This much needed resource brings together the most up to date and relevant research from a variety of disciplines to give a comprehensive account of the psychological factors surrounding reproductive health today Olga van den Akker provides a multidisciplinary exploration of all stages of the reproductive life span from embryonic infant child and adolescent sexual and reproductive development through reproductive and sexual health in adulthood and old age The book addresses the psychological influences on and impacts of sex gender and reproduction as well as adjustment to life after sexual or reproductive success failure or disease and disability Together the wide variety of topics are illuminating and challenging fostering a deeper understanding of the context of reproductive health through the life span

Gay Fathers, Their Children, and the Making of Kinship Aaron Goodfellow, 2015-06-01 While the topic of gay marriage and families continues to be popular in the media few scholarly works focus on gay men with children Based on ten years of fieldwork among gay families living in the rural suburban and urban area of the eastern United States Gay Fathers Their Children and the Making of Kinship presents a beautifully written and meticulously argued ethnography of gay men and the families they have formed In a culture that places a premium on biology as the founding event of paternity Aaron Goodfellow poses the question Can the signing of legal contracts and the public performances of care replace biological birth as the singular event marking the creation of fathers Beginning with a comprehensive review of the relevant literature in this field four chapters each presenting a particular picture of paternity explore a range of issues such as interracial adoption surrogacy the importance of physical resemblance in familial relationships single parenthood delinquency and the ways in which the state may come to define the norms of health The author deftly illustrates how fatherhood for gay men draws on established biological theological and legal images of the family often thought oppressive to the emergence of queer forms of social life Chosen with care and described with great sensitivity each carefully researched case examines gay fatherhood through life narratives Painstakingly theorized Gay Fathers Their Children and the Making of Kinship contends that gay families are one of the most important areas to which social scientists might turn in order to understand how law popular culture and biology are simultaneously made manifest and interrogated in everyday life By focusing specifically on gay fathers Goodfellow produces an anthropological account of how paternity sexuality and masculinity are leveraged in relations of care between gay fathers and their children Beyond Expectation Jacquelyne Luce,2010-01-01 An in depth study of lesbian bi and queer women s experiences of thinking about and trying to become a parent Beyond Expectation draws on eighty two narrative interviews conducted during the late 1990s in British Columbia Jacquelyne Luce chronicles these women s experiences which took place from 1980 to 2000 during a period that saw significant changes to the governance of assisted reproduction and the status of lesbian gay bisexual and transgender parents and same sex partners Beyond Expectation looks closely at the changing contexts in which women s experiences occurred and draws attention to complex issues such as contracting relationships mediating understandings of biology and genetics and decision making amidst various social legal and medical developments Luce skillfully juxtaposes the stories of her interviewees with the wider public discourses about lesbian bi queer parenting and reproductive technology and highlights gaps in existing legislative reforms Most importantly Beyond Expectation foregrounds the lived experiences of lesbian bi and queer women as they negotiate kinship at the intersection of reproduction technology and politics Out the Window Gerry Mulligan,2022-10-19 The Citrus County Chronicle was a small county seat weekly when Gerry Mulligan joined it in the late 1970 s Over the next 43 years he led the charge to turn the newspaper into a seven day daily in one of the state s fastest growing markets Along the way he was bitten by snakes screamed at by sheriffs maligned by politicians and ultimately had poop in his shoe from his own dog Over four decades he never once missed writing his weekly column For more than 2 200 consecutive weeks he told the stories of his community Some were funny some were sad and a few put Mulligan in the hospital In Out the Window you can enjoy some of the best The Safe Baby Debra Smiley Holtzman,2005 Protecting their children is the greatest concern for most parents and grandparents The Safe Baby provides them comprehensive help in making their homes safer for the entire family What Our Children Teach Us Piero Ferrucci,2001-04-09 Children They have the ability to turn our lives upside down to disrupt our plans and our sleep to try our patience and to elicit our most ferocious love But children also have the power to teach us the greatest lessons we ll ever
