Making Friends Prek 3 A Social Skills Program For Inclusive Settings:

Making Friends PreK-3 Ruth Herron Ross, Beth Roberts-Pacchione, 2014-08-05 Research shows that a child's social and behavioral skills affect the development of cognitive and physical abilities. Set students on a path to success and have fun doing it with this newly retitled edition of the popular Wanna Play. The authors provide hundreds of activities that help children learn how to behave appropriately and make friends. Included are tools for teaching emotion regulation, team playing, and body safety to all children, making this resource ideal for use in inclusive settings. New features include a social interaction checklist for identifying learners' strengths and weaknesses, teacher-friendly activities that can be used in small groups or with the whole class, a chapter on teaching emotions and communication skills. Students with social challenges benefit from direct instruction, and early intervention helps prevent behavior problems and pave the way to academic success. This hands-on guidebook gives teachers, counselors, behavior therapists, and caregivers a wealth of easily implemented and fun-filled ways to enhance children's skills in all areas of social interaction.

Creating Inclusive Learning Environments for Young Children Clarissa Willis, 2009 Invites teachers to apply appropriate strategies in classroom environments for young children with special needs, setting the stage for future school success. Toby Karten, Author, Inclusion Strategies That Work. This book helps teachers better understand specific disabilities and intentional support mechanisms that encourage ALL children to learn and grow. It is a resource that I will use for years to come. Kim Hughes, Therapeutic Preschool Teacher. Project Enlightenment, Wake County Public Schools, NC. Research-based techniques to help all children thrive in early childhood settings. More and more frequently, early childhood educators teach children with special needs, yet few have the necessary background knowledge and experiences to meet the challenge of teaching in an inclusive classroom. Creating Inclusive Learning Environments for Young Children gives teachers targeted information, strategies, and activities to address the learning needs of all children, including those at risk. The author provides in-depth information on a variety of disabilities, including autism, vision, and hearing loss, communication delays, and sensory integration disorders. Each chapter offers a glossary of terms, a list of suggested resources, and a brief summary of relevant research. Aligned with NAEYC and DEC standards, this engaging and comprehensive resource helps readers create appropriate inclusive environments and establish daily schedules, build relationships among peers with and without disabilities, work productively with families, special education teachers, and paraprofessionals, understand individualized education programs, and respond to intervention. This handbook gives preschool and kindergarten teachers the tools to support all young learners by building relationships and providing positive classroom experiences.
