Queen of Prison Ministry Michael Glenn Maness, 2008-06 This WW II novel revolves around the experience of a callow youth destined to join the Fourth Infantry Division in Hurtgen Forest The narrative traces the bonded ties of six comrades in arms three of whom are killed and three wounded Vividly detailed the stressful existence of Combat Infantrymen causes some men to break What helps those who see it through is their loyalty to one another called a culture of caring by their Chaplain In Part I our innocent recruits are sobered by incidental casualties on the way up which initiate them into the inconsequence of death Part II takes them into Hurtgen a battle fought under continuous icy rain in steep hilled terrain favoring the well entrenched Germans Casualties often run over 100% of a Company's authorized strength Attacks are met by unrelenting artillery and mortar fire machine guns at close range In a typical situation our narrator covers a Sergeant who after taking out a machine gun pinning the Company down is himself killed by a sniper A hard headed West Pointer insists on night action impossible in the Forest and after stepping on a mine that takes his legs off he rolls on another that hits those nearby General Patton called Hurtgen an epic of stark infantry combat Part III deals with how badly depleted in numbers and morale the men successfully withstand the Breakthrough thereby saving Luxembourg a defense for which Patton gave the Fourth a Unit Citation In the concluding Part the narrator is wounded and put on limited assignment He dislikes the rear echelon life style guys being obsessed with whores drinking stealing and feasting but he holds his peace and decides he'll return to the world where reality matters

Relationships for Life Richard Marks, 2011-03 We all have these Sometimes they can be the most wonderful treasure this world has to offer At other times they can break your heart I'm talking about relationships Everybody has a myriad of different relationships in this adventure called life Each relationship has its own dynamics its own foibles and its own language We interact with parents children siblings co workers spouses authority and for some even God The greatest resource of joy progress hope and prosperity is in connections with each other But the problem is that the way we develop sustain and communicate in relationships is unhealthy The reason they are unhealthy is because we as individuals bring error into them from the past and from harmful views of ourselves If you can t think healthy about yourself how can you interrelate with others in beneficial relationships How can you have a strong family and an intimate love life if you don t know how to communicate or meet each other s needs What would be the purpose of building friendships if you don t know how to nurture and sustain them This book is designed to answer all those questions and more Each chapter builds on how to improve yourself your self image and the relationships around you You will discover from documented research how your brain works in diverse situations the different ways you handle conflict how to communicate effectively with others and how to build the theme of Us ness in life s important relationships and much more

A Life Worth Living Barbara Fafard,2023-03-30 In today s world we may be faced with all kinds of trials and heartbreaks that can cause us to believe that our life is not worth living That was true for Barbara Fafard Having come from an abusive home and with her marriage falling apart as her young alcoholic husband became verbally abusive Barbara became totally hopeless and without even thinking about her two toddler sons she decided to end her life This is where God interceded and helped Barbara to realize that through God s guidance He could help her see that her life was worth living In her book A Life Worth Living Barbara invites her readers to experience God s faithfulness as He encouraged her along her journey to become the woman whom God created her to be With God s help and lots of research Barbara was able to acquire tools to mend and bless her marriage Wanting to help other couples to achieve a blessed marriage Barbara wrote a marriage workshop that she titled Keeping the Marriage Alive During the last twenty years Barbara and Larry have taught their workshop to over five thousand attendees The tools that Barbara and Larry taught were such a success that Barbara has included them in her book so that her readers marriages can be blessed as well Along with achieving valuable tools to bless their marriage Barbara s readers will enjoy reading about Barbara and Larry s amazing journey along with experiencing profound lessons that God has taught Barbara along her journey with Him During Barbara and Larry s fifty two years of being married they have had to face several trials but as they applied the marriage tools that they learned and taught other couples they have been able to achieve a blessed happy and flourishing marriage
