Making A Good Script Great:

Making a Good Script Great Linda Seger, 2010 Making a good script great is more than just a matter of putting a good idea on paper. It requires the working and reworking of that idea. Making a Good Script Great takes you through the whole screenwriting process from initial concept through final rewrite, providing specific methods that will help you craft tighter, stronger, and more salable scripts. While retaining the invaluable insights that placed its first two editions among the all-time most popular screenwriting books, this expanded, revised, and updated third edition adds rich and important new material on dialogue, cinematic images, and point of view, as well as an interview with screenwriter Paul Haggis. If you're writing your first script, this book will help develop your skills for telling a compelling and dramatic story. If you're a veteran screenwriter, it will help you articulate the skills you know intuitively. And if you're currently stuck on a rewrite, this book will help you analyze and solve your script's problems and get it back on track. Book jacket

Making a Good Script Great Linda Seger, 1994 Making a good script great is not just a matter of having a good idea. Nor is it a matter of just putting that good idea down on paper. In scriptwriting, it's not just the writing but also the rewriting that counts. This book focuses on the rewriting process and offers specific methods to help you craft tighter, stronger, and more workable scripts. While retaining all the valuable insights that have made the first edition one of the all-time most popular screenwriting books, this expanded second edition adds new chapters that take you through the complete screenwriting process from the first draft through the shooting draft. If you're writing your first script, this book will help develop your skills for telling a compelling and dramatic story. If you're a veteran screenwriter, this book will articulate the skills you know intuitively. And if you're currently stuck on a rewrite, this book will help you analyze and solve the problems and get your script back on track. Back cover

Life Or Movie

Mickael L. Rozwarski, 2002 Life or movie Which comes first is a glimpse into an aspiring screenwriter's mind as he tries to figure out the inner workings of high concept movies. The author starts out with the premise that there are very easy rules that govern storytelling rules which are universal and tolerate no exceptions. That is how he was led to discard traditional perspectives of movie analysis one after the other: Field, Campbell, Jung, Freud, which all proved to be unfaithful to observable facts. The author proposes then a change of paradigm and a different look at storytelling: fiction is like magic you cannot explain it or it will break the spell, ruin the magic. But when you think about it there are no two rational ways of making a rabbit appear from a hat.
