Making All Things New Henri J. M. Nouwen, 1981-06-03 During the past few years various friends have asked me What do you mean when you speak about the spiritual life Every time this question has come up I have wished I had a small and simple book which could offer the beginning of a response I have felt that there was a place for a text that could be read within a few hours and could not only explain what the spiritual life is but also create a desire to live it This feeling caused me to write Making All Things New The beginning of the spiritual life is often difficult not only because the powers which cause us to worry are so strong but also because the presence of God s Spirit seems barely noticeable If however we are willing to live a life of prayer and practice the disciplines of solitude and community a new hunger will make itself known This new hunger is the first sign of God s presence When we remain attentive to this divine presence we will be led always deeper into the kingdom There to our joyful surprise we will discover that the power of our worries is weakening and all things are being made new from Making All Things New evangelical activism through a new experience of the gospel seen as both personal liberation and the transformation of all things the church begins to move and the world begins to change Walking with Henri Nouwen Robert Waldron, 2003

Written in journal form as a preparation for a retreat on Henri Nouwen one of the most revered spiritual writers and guides of our time this engaging book examines themes of brokenness transcended and integrated into Christian wholeness Waldron takes full measure of Nouwen's often conflicted personal nature struggles with loneliness rejection depression and sexuality and professional from brilliant tenure as a pastoral psychologist at Yale Harvard and Notre Dame to his call to personal ministry to the profoundly mentally and physically disabled at L'Arche Daybreak in Canada He augments it with in depth accounts of Nouwen's literary works his interest in painting iconography music and clowning The result is this poignant multifaceted work that resounds in its chief conceit the walk or journey toward wholeness is achieved through the balm of healing that we receive when we follow Jesus' example and take on the crosses of the broken and weak Students and scholars of art literature psychology and religion followers of Nouwen retreatants and the general public will find this work compelling
