Peter Catholic University of America God's Court and Courtiers in the Book of the Watchers Philip Francis Esler, 2017-11-06 First Enoch is an ancient Judean work that inaugurated the genre of apocalypse Chapters 1-36 tell the story of the descent of angels called Watchers from heaven to earth to marry human women before the time of the flood the chaos that ensued and God's response They also relate the journeying of the righteous scribe Enoch through the cosmos guided by angels Heaven including the place and those who dwell there God the angels and Enoch plays a central role in the narrative But how should heaven be understood Existing scholarship which presupposes Judaism as the appropriate framework views the Enochic heaven as reflecting the temple in Jerusalem with God's house replicating its architecture and the angels and Enoch functioning like priests Yet recent research shows the Judeans constituted an ethnic group and this view encourages a fresh examination of 1 Enoch 1-36 The actual model for heaven proves to be a king in his court surrounded by his courtiers The major textual features are explicable in this perspective whereas the temple and priests model is unconvincing The author was a member of a nontemple scribal group in Judea that possessed distinctive astronomical knowledge promoted Enoch as its exemplar and was involved in the wider sociopolitical world of their time *Broken moon. Mauck, JD,2017-07-04 Have you ever thought of Jesus as a lawyer It may sound odd but at times in His ministry Jesus wore his lawyer hat When he defended the adulterous woman when he argued from Scripture that the disciples were fine to pick grain on the Sabbath and in other instances Jesus insightfully applied to uphold justice and promote goodwill The legal aspects of Jesus ministry have long been obscured or misunderstood particularly his interactions with and attitude toward the law and lawyers Jesus desire in his day and ours is to use the law to secure the rights of people to hear the gospel and to set humanity free In other words to be the best citizens we can be we need to follow in the footsteps of the greatest citizen who ever lived Jesus in the Courtroom covers topics like Why we should care about the law Strategic involvement with the law How God has used the law to expand His kingdom What can happen when we partner with legal professionals How citizenship is part of discipleship Christian citizenship in matters like adoption abortion minimum wage foster care and schools We are citizens of two kingdoms but many of us duck and run when it comes to civil life For anyone who cares about their community parents teachers pastors you name it engagement with our legal system can play a huge role in the health of our communities and in cultivating a context where the gospel can flourish Jesus in the Courtroom will help us understand not only why we have failed to appreciate the legal aspect of Jesus life but also to understand and cooperate with his legal ministry to us and through us If we are going to be faithful citizen disciples in this challenging new world we need to look anew at how Jesus taught thought and interacted with the legal establishment of his day California.
