Gods Good World Reclaiming The Doctrine Of Creation:

God's Good World Jonathan R. Wilson, 2013-04-15 The doctrine of creation has often been neglected in Christian theology Distinguished evangelical theologian Jonathan Wilson exposes what has been missing in current theological discourse and offers an original constructive work on this doctrine The book unites creation and redemption showing the significance of God s work of creation for understanding the good news of redemption in Jesus Christ Wilson develops a trinitarian account of the life of the world and sets forth how to live wisely hopefully peaceably joyfully and generously in that world He also shows how a mature doctrine of creation can help the church think practically about contemporary issues including creation care sexuality technology food and water and more T&T Clark Handbook of the Doctrine of Creation ,2024-03-07

The T how the doctrine of creation informs and is informed by various dogmatic commitments and how the doctrine of creation relates to a range of human concerns and activities The Handbook represents a celebration of fascination with bewilderment at lament about and hope for all that is and serves as a scholarly innovative and constructive reference for those interested in attending to what Christian belief has to contribute to thinking about and living with the mysterious existence named creation Barth's Doctrine of Creation Andrew K. Gabriel, 2013-12-06 Theologians working on the doctrine of creation are compelled to wrestle with Karl Barth s explication of this doctrine And yet studies on Barth have not paid a significant amount of attention to this aspect of his theology To help fill this gap Gabriel introduces and clarifies Barth s doctrine of creation by outlining its contours and evaluating three prominent critiques of Barth critiques that focus on questions regarding the place of nature the Trinity Jesus and history in his doctrine Gabriel finds value in these critiques while also identifying ways in which Barth s theology sometimes adequately addresses them Through this Gabriel mines insights from Barth that can contribute to a theology of nature or ecological theology and a Trinitarian theology of creation

Engaging the Doctrine of Creation Matthew Levering, 2017-07-18 Distinguished scholar Matthew Levering examines the doctrine of creation and its contemporary theological implications critically engaging with classical and modern views in dialogue with Orthodox and Reformed interlocutors among others Moving from the Trinity to Christology Levering takes up a number of themes pertaining to the doctrine of creation and focuses on how creation impacts our understandings of both the immanent and the economic Trinity He also engages newer trends such as ecological theology Kingdom Come Jason Byassee, Jeremy Kidwell, Jonathan Wilson-Hartgrove, Leah Wilson-Hartgrove, 2022-09-19 For four decades the Rev Dr Jonathan R Wilson has cultivated an imagination for kingdom realism as a pastor teacher theologian and friend To celebrate his seventieth birthday Kingdom Come has gathered reflections from fellow theologians popular authors poets and practitioners to mark both the range of Wilson s influence on the Christian church and the consistency of his prayer and work for God s kingdom to come here on earth as it is in heaven Becoming the Gospel Michael J. Gorman, 2015-05-06 The first detailed exegetical treatment of Paul s letters from the emerging discipline of missional hermeneutics Michael Gorman s Becoming the Gospel argues that Paul's letters invite Christian communities both then and now to not merely believe the gospel but to become the gospel and in doing so to participate in the life and mission of God. Showing that Pauline churches were active public participants in and witnesses to the gospel, Gorman reveals the missional significance of various themes in Paul's letters. He also identifies select contemporary examples of mission in the spirit of Paul, inviting all Christians to practice Paul-inspired imagination in their own contexts. God, Evolution, and Animal Suffering Bethany N. Sollereder, 2018-10-29 After the publication of On the Origin of Species in 1859, theologians were faced with the dilemma of God creating through evolution. Suddenly, pain, suffering, untimely death, and extinction appeared to be the very tools of creation and not a result of the sin of humanity. Despite this paradigm shift, the question of non-human suffering has been largely overlooked within theodicy debates, overwhelmed by the extreme human suffering of the twentieth century. This book redresses this imbalance by offering a rigorous academic treatment of the questions surrounding God and the suffering of non-human animals. Combining theological, philosophical, and biblical perspectives, this book explores the relationship between God and Creation within Christian theology. First, it dismantles the popular theological view that roots violence and suffering in the animal kingdom in the fall of humanity. Then, through an exploration of the nature of love, it affirms that there are multiple reasons to suggest that God and creation can both be good even with the presence of violence and suffering. This is an innovative exploration of an under-examined subject that encompasses issues of theology, science, morality, and human-animal interactions. As such, it will be of keen interest to scholars and academics of religion and science, the philosophy of religion, theodicy, and biblical studies. Leadership Mosaic Daniel Montgomery, Jared Kennedy, 2016-10-13 There's a leadership crisis in the church. Every leadership model claims to have all the answers to the challenges of leadership. Each perspective emphasizes certain qualities, and we search desperately for answers in the absence of clear direction. But there's no simple leadership formula that meets every need we have in life and ministry. Challenging the conventional wisdom about what makes for a good leader, Daniel Montgomery calls us to a countercultural perspective on leadership rooted in our Creator. He presents a new framework for leadership, not just a beckoning to further pragmatism, relentless productivity, or a reactionary cultural fad. He helps us see leadership as a mosaic of five characteristics: conviction, creativity, courage, collaboration, and contemplation, reflective of the very image of the triune God. Armed with this perspective, we will be able to see, strive after, and celebrate the great and complex vision of leadership God has called us to for the flourishing of our homes, churches, and workplaces. Christian Witness in Cascadian Soil Ross A. Lockhart, 2021-02-17 The Centre for Missional Leadership at St Andrew's Hall, Vancouver, has curated a dynamic collection of essays from missional thinkers in church and academy. Together, they explore both the pitfalls and possibilities of Christian witness in the post-Christendom soil of the Pacific Northwest. What does it mean to till, plant, and nurture Christian community while awaiting growth in the rocky soil of secularity in this West Coast land, better known for its hipsters, baristas, and outdoor lifestyle? Each chapter is an attempt to dust for divine fingerprints at work within the church and wider culture giving evidence of God's activity in our midst Within this book you will encounter women and men who are finding hopeful ways to proclaim and live the gospel that are bearing fruit and growing hope within Christian communities and the neighborhoods they call home Ecology of Vocation Kiara A. Jorgenson, 2020-05-15 Critically surveying various approaches to Christian ecological ethics alongside the vexing moral ambiguities of the Anthropocene Ecology of Vocation offers an integrative approach to responsible living vis vis one of Protestantism's key theological resources the doctrine of vocation Drawing on H Richard Niebuhr's germinal ethical framework with a decidedly ecofeminist perspective Kiara A Jorgenson demonstrates how vocation's emphasis on right relationship practically speaks to the embodied realities of planetary interrelatedness By excavating the ecological promise of the early Reformers democratized renderings of calling and linking their concerns to the contemporary context she argues that vocation cannot be reduced to the particular aim of monetized work nor to an elitist escape from it Rather vocation must be recast as the dynamic and vibrant space among the myriad roles any of us inhabits at any given time in a particular place When understood in this light vocation signals much more than a job a passion or a quest for self discovery An alternative understanding of vocation's very ecology can extend Christian conceptions of the neighbor beyond the human and lead the church to more faithfully pursue lives characterized by humility restraint wisdom justice and love Coming Home to Earth Mark S. Bocker, 2016-09-13 As a young Norwegian Lutheran teenager in rural Wisconsin Bocker lay awake one night worrying whether he believed in Jesus enough to get to heaven This getting to heaven anxiety reflected an excessive focus on individual salvation and a loss of concern for the well being of the Earth community A faith journey that leaves Earth behind is misguided Ever since those early teen years Bocker has been on a journey to come home to Earth Coming Home to Earth makes the case that there is no salvation apart from Earth and that Earth care is at the core of our identity and mission as followers of Jesus The ecological consequences of a loss of concern for the well being of Earth have been devastating Bocker is especially concerned to determine what will motivate followers of Jesus to make radical changes in our way of life so that we can participate in the healing of wounded Earth and all of its inhabitants both human and nonhuman We are far more likely to make needed sacrifices for our fellow creatures if we share God's delight in and affection for them and cherish Earth as our home A Handbook of Theology Dr. Daniel L. Akin, David S. Dockery, Nathan A. Finn, Christopher W.

Morgan, 2023-04-01 In A Handbook of Theology editors Daniel Akin David Dockery and Nathan Finn select nearly fifty contributors in the Baptist and evangelical heritage to lay a biblically informed foundation of a Christian theology for students pastors and church leaders This volume surveys six parts of theology foundations Part 1 types of theology Part 2 history and geography Part 3 Christian doctrine Part 4 the Christian life Part 5 and theology and culture Part 6 Each author centers their theological topics in the Scriptures while also being Trinitarian Christ centered Spirit enabled and mission focused The Theology for the People of God series is edited by David S Dockery Nathan A Finn and Christopher W Morgan

Earthkeeping and Character Steven Bouma-Prediger, 2019-11-19 Addressing a topic of growing and vital concern this book asks us to reconsider how we think about the natural world and our place in it Steven Bouma Prediger brings ecotheology into conversation with the emerging field of environmental virtue ethics exploring the character traits and virtues required for Christians to be responsible keepers of the earth and to flourish in the challenging decades to come He shows how virtue ethics can enrich Christian environmentalism helping readers think and act in ways that rightly value creation

The Interface of Science, Theology, and Religion Dennis Ngien, 2019-03-07 In celebration of Alister E McGrath's sixty fifth birthday in 2018 this Festschrift aims to highlight him as a lauded scholar who exemplifies an interface of science theology and religion It comprises works by McGrath's theological allies and colleagues from diverse ecclesial homes including Graham Ward Oliver Crisp Tony Lane Sung Wook Chung Randall Zachman Veli Matti Kärkkäinen Jonathan Wilson Jeffrey P Greenman Robert Kolb Sister Benedicta Ward Michael Lloyd Bethany Sollereder and Patrick Franklin Critical but appreciative is the posture with which these contributors engage the wide range of McGrath's own scholarly pursuits and publications This volume edited by Dennis Ngien covers these themes that are central to the life and witness of the church atonement Christology Trinity eschatology mission Reformation science nature culture evangelism and theodicy there is much to ponder and reap here Readers will join with the contributors and pay tribute to McGrath who has risen to a life of significance as a scientist turned theologian professor author Christian apologist and churchman

What Good is God? Roger Abbott, Robert White FRS, 2020-11-20 In a world where natural disasters are increasingly impacting our lives this insightful book brings together a variety of voices to discuss how we can respond practically and faithfully to such tragedies Consciously making room for the perspectives of survivors responders and academics it provides a multi layered and compassionate examination of a difficult and often underexplored subject As we try to make sense of a seemingly chaotic world that features earthquakes tsunamis and pandemics readers will find this unique conversation a truly inspiring resource for thought prayer and action

Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium, and the Renewal of the Church Duncan Dormor, Alana Harris, 2017 Focuses exclusively on Evangelii Gaudium as interpreted from a variety of interdisciplinary and denominational perspectives with a sharper focus on the ecclesiological as well as the ecumenical potentialities for the reform and renewal of the church contained within this reorientation and reappreciation of the church's primary mission to evangelization in the modern world

A Pentecostal Political Theology for American Renewal Steven M. Studebaker, 2016-10-26 This book argues that Christians have a stake in the sustainability and success of core cultural values of the West in general and America in particular Steven M Studebaker considers Western and American decline from a theological and specifically Pentecostal perspective The volume proposes and develops a Pentecostal political theology that can be used to address and reframe Christian political identity in the United States Studebaker asserts that American Christians are currently not properly engaged in preventing America's decline or halting the shifts in its core values The problem he suggests is that American Christianity not only gives little thought to the state of the nation beyond a handful of moral issues like abortion but its popular political theologies lead Christians to think of themselves more as aliens than as citizens This book posits that the proposed Pentecostal political theology would help American Christians view themselves as citizens and better recognize their stake in the renewal of their nation The foundation of this proposed political theology is a pneumatological narrative of renewal a biblical narrative of the Spirit that begins with creation proceeds through Incarnation and Pentecost and culminates in the new creation and everlasting kingdom of God This narrative provides the foundation for a political theology that speaks to the issues of Christian political identity and encourages Christian political participation

In the Midst of Much-Doing Charles R. Ringma, 2023-05-31 How are we to sustain activism and compassion amidst the never ending crises of the twenty first century While the concern for social justice is deeply biblical cynicism burnout and despair are all too common side effects when action is divorced from contemplation To effectively serve as the hands and feet of Jesus the church must attend to the revitalization of its inner life through the spiritual practices which feed support and sustain the work of the kingdom Rather than the fragmentation and dualism that have led denominations to choose between prayer and service evangelization and justice the church must integrate heart mind and body in order to fulfil its calling to transform the world from within Drawing from Scripture and a wide range of Christian traditions from the monastic to the evangelical this book inspires its readers to integrate spiritual renewal and prophetic witness for the glory of God and the good of his creation

Revisioning, Renewing, Rediscovering the Triune Center Derek J. Tidball, Brian S. Harris, Jason S. Sexton, 2014-11-10 An international cast of theologians come together in this volume to offer essays in tribute to the late Stanley J. Grenz one of the leading theologians of his generation Accordingly the volume includes timely explorations in some of the most exciting areas in contemporary theology It is only fitting that these very explorations revolve around the key motifs of Grenz's theology Trinity community eschatology and the key sources from which he drew for theology's construction Scripture tradition culture While engaging key features seen in Grenz's work some of the essays here interact with Grenz's own writings reflecting on his theological journey and his contributions to evangelical theology In these ways this volume highlights the kind of evangelical theology that so many have experienced in recent years and of which Stanley Grenz was a leading proponent Revisioning, Renewing, Rediscovering the Triune Center then makes a significant contribution to discussions in contemporary theology while itself setting out to honor the life and work of an eminent theologian who did so much for evangelical theology

Counting the Cost Art Lindsley, 2017-08-08 If Christians want to accelerate the world's transition out of abject poverty they need to examine the role of capitalism Counting the Cost helps readers begin with the truth of Scripture It then relies on the economic realities that come from our God-given design as the foundation for enabling readers to think critically about capitalism We live in an unprecedented time in human history The number of people living in abject poverty is decreasing at an unprecedented rate Capitalism has played a major role in lifting people out of such poverty

yet many raise legitimate concerns Does capitalism hurt the poor Promote materialism Harm the environment Allow the rich to get richer at the expense of everyone else Is capitalism really the best system for organizing societies and the economies that keep them running This edited volume of articles by noted economists and theologians takes an honest and empathetic look at capitalism and its critiques from a biblical perspective

The Top Books of the Year Gods Good World Reclaiming The Doctrine Of Creation The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Gods Good World Reclaiming The Doctrine Of Creation : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Gods Good World Reclaiming The Doctrine Of Creation : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Gods Good World Reclaiming The Doctrine Of Creation : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
