Tales to Read Before the End of the World Haden James, 2012 This is a collection of short stories exploring the absurd Most of the short stories contained within this book revolve around central themes Everything Changes is about the vanity of the human condition Faking It takes aim at the absurdity of modern society And Beale Street Blues explores the breakdown of communication within a relationship These three themes are continuously prodded while the reader attempts to understand them The exceptions are Ascension and The Worst Date Ever Ascension is piece of historical fiction based in Ancient Egypt And while it doesn't explore the absurdity of modern society it does exploit some of the absurd notions of even our greatest ancient civilizations The Worst Date Ever takes everything terrifying and horrendous about the world of dating and combines them into a comedy of errors

A World of Local Voices Klaus Martens, Paul Duncan Morris, Arlette Warken, 2003 The present volume contains papers and poems presented at Saarland University's international conference A World of Local Voices Poetry in English Today October 22-23 1999 and the Day of International Poetry October 24 1999 both organised by the university's Department of North American Literature and Culture The conference set out to explore how the modernist tendency towards overarching concepts and a poetry of ideas is slowly being superseded by a more modest poetry of place which at the same time seems to be loosely subsumed within the unifying medium of English in its various forms The Day of International Poetry was meant to put into operation some of the poetic issues discussed during the conference by asking poets from several English speaking countries Canada India Jamaica and the USA to contribute their individual voices to an international reading of poetry This volume comprises critical contributions which deal with the interplay of aesthetic cultural and political forces in contemporary poetry The common reference of this collection is poetry written in varieties of the English language including translations The essays show awareness of the current critical debates concerning postcolonialism and intercultural literary relations while also suggesting new paradigms of critical understanding based on the analyses of individual poetic expression As a supplement selected poets and translators have submitted individual poetic texts with accompanying commentaries
