Representations of Black Women in the Media Marquita Marie Gammage, 2015-10-16 In 1920 W E B Du Bois cited the damnation of women as linked to the devaluation of motherhood This dilemma he argues had a crushing blow on Black women as they were forced into slavery Black womanhood portrayed as hypersexual by nature became an enduring stereotype which did not coincide with the dignity of mother and wife This portrayal continues to reinforce negative stereotypes of Black women in the media today This book highlights how Black women have been negatively portrayed in the media focusing on the export nature of media and its ability to convey notions of Blackness to the public It argues that media such as rap music videos television dramas reality television shows and newscasts create and affect expectations of Black women Exploring the role that racism misogyny and media play in the representation of Black womanhood it provides a foundation for challenging contemporary media's portrayal of Black women

Urban Culture Decoded, 2015-07-20 Gotta Laugh to Keep from Crying Duane Bowser, 2025-06 The Greater the Pain the Louder the Laughter The Louder the Laughter the Quieter the Cries So much is hidden in laughter and so much is revealed when we don't cry I learned early on that pain doesn't always scream sometimes it jokes It entertains It smiles in front of a crowd then suffers in silence That's what I did That's what so many of us do You see the greater the pain the louder the laughter not because we're okay but because we're trying to survive And the louder the laughter the quieter the cries not because we don't hurt but because we were never given the space to fall apart This story is not just about struggle it's about silence strength and what happens when you carry your wounds so long they start to look like personality traits It's about learning to love when you were raised in survival It's about what happens when a little boy grows up in chaos and still finds a way to dream Still finds a reason to fight Still finds the courage to write this book If you've ever smiled when you wanted to scream or held in tears because you thought no one would care this is for you Welcome to my story Welcome to Gotta Laugh to Keep From Crying
