Histoire générale des peuples de l'antiquité à nos jours Maxime Petit, 1926 Catalogue of the Harvard University Fine Arts Library, the Fogg Art Museum Harvard University. Fine Arts Library, 1971 The Restoration of Paintings in Paris, 1750-1815 Noémie Étienne, 2017-02-21 The decades following the 1973 publication of Alessandro Conti's Storia del Restauro have seen considerable scholarly interest in the development of restoration in France in the second half of the eighteenth century A number of technical treatises and biographies of restorers have offered insight into restoration practice The Restoration of Paintings in Paris 1750 1815 however is the first book to situate this work within the broader historical and philosophical contexts of the time Drawing on previously unpublished primary material from archives in Paris Berlin Rome and Venice Noémie Étienne combines art history with anthropology and sociology to survey the waning decades of the Ancien Régime and early post Revolution France Initial chapters present the diversity of restoration practice encompassing not only royal institutions and the Louvre museum but also private art dealers artists and craftsmen and examine questions of trade secrecy and the changing role of the restorer Following chapters address the influence of restoration and exhibition on the aesthetic understanding of paintings as material objects The book closes with a discussion of the institutional and political uses of restoration along with an art historical consideration of such key concepts as authenticity originality and stability of artworks emphasizing the multilayered dimension of paintings by such important artists as Titian and Raphael There is also a useful dictionary of the main restorers active in France between 1750 and 1815

Painting and Sculpture in Europe 1780-1880 Fritz Novotny, 1995-01-01 From the Classicism of Jacques Louis David to the Realism of Courbet and the Early Impressionism of Renoir this book outlines the course taken by painting and sculpture in Europe during the 19th century Faced with the untidy sprawl of individualism which followed the French Revolution and threw up isolated geniuses like Goya the author nevertheless charts the currents in what was predominantly a century of Naturalism and also whilst artists were increasingly preoccupied with the inner man of great landscape painting when Friedrich Corot and the Impressionists proper added light and atmosphere to the former achievements of the great Dutch masters The National union catalog, 1968-1972, 1973 National Union Catalog, 1982 General History of Africa International Scientific Committee for the drafting of a General History of Africa, 1988-12-31 One of UNESCO's most important publishing projects in the last thirty years the General History of Africa marks a major breakthrough in the recognition of Africa's cultural heritage Offering an internal perspective of Africa the eight volume work provides a comprehensive approach to the history of ideas civilizations societies and institutions of African history The volumes also discuss historical relationships among Africans as well as multilateral interactions with other cultures and continents

Catalog of the Middle Eastern Collection University of Chicago. Library, 1977 The National Union Catalogs, 1963-, 1964 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1970 Quatremère de Quincy David Gilks, 2024-05-31

Antoine Chrysosth me Quatrem re de Quincy 1755 1849 was the most distinguished writer on art and architecture at the end of the enlightenment However as David Gilks shows in Quatrem re de Quincy Art and Politics during the French Revolution he was never simply an esoteric antiquarian and theoretician he was also a zealous functionary and skilled publicist whose writings on the arts often served political purposes Quatrem re de Quincy Art and Politics during the French Revolution demonstrates how Quatrem re s early writings on art and antiquity formed the foundation for a politics grounded in faith authority and hierarchy that favoured gradual social and political evolution over destruction and experimentation Gilks then traces how Quatrem re set aside his antiquarian research and became a royalist politician and publicist during the revolutionary decade Quatrem re feared that the Revolution would destroy the cosmopolitan republic of letters that had flourished when states across Europe supported the papacy s rediscovery of the past restoration of taste and revival of learning Yet Gilks reveals that Quatrem re was also a resourceful and an opportunistic political actor who deployed his opponents language for strategic reasons Gilks therefore reinterprets Quatrem re s interventions by situating them in their polemical contexts and treating them as contributions to debates and quarrels by locating his sources and reconstructing his social and political networks The resulting study revises our understanding of Quatrem re s famous reflections on the Academy of Painting and Sculpture the Panth on art plunder and museums but it also discovers and sheds light on previously ignored writings Although the study focuses on the period 1789 1799 it examines the second half of Quatrem re s life to substantiate his commitment to crown and altar and show how he fought against the Revolution s legacy of godless materialism and calculation that was inimical to the arts This is a thoroughly researched and richly detailed contextual study of the most eventful period in Quatrem re s life but it also offers an original and unfamiliar history of the French Revolution Gilks integrates the study of political power with the history of ideas and art history and provides a window into institutional and legal reforms and debates about cultural patronage and education
