History's Place Seth Graebner,2007-05-30 History s Place explores nostalgia as one of the defining aspects of the relationship between France and North Africa Dr Seth Graebner argues that France s most important colony developed a historical consciousness through literature and that post colonial writers revised it while retaining its dominant effect The North African city became a privileged place in the relationship between literacy and historical discourses in the colony Graebner analyzes the importance of architecture and urbanism as markers of historical development as the urban fabric and descriptions of it became signs of difference between metropole and colony Discussing writers as diverse as Bertrand Randau and Kateb this book examines how the changing Algerian city has remained the locus of a debate colored by various sorts of nostalgia Graebner demonstrates that nostalgia was symptomatic of historical anxiety generated by colonial conditions but with literary consequences for mainland France as well History s Place is a comprehensive and valuable addition to the study of French literature and cultural studies
