Cultural Critique Through the Detour of Art Kris Rutten,Keyan G. Tomaselli,2025-06-30 This book brings together a selection of articles that have been published throughout a series of special issues of the journal Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies that originally focused on the so called ethnographic turn in contemporary arts An increasing wave of art events has occurred since the 1990s that have displayed significant similarities with anthropology and ethnography in their theorizations of cultural difference and representational practices The aim of these works was to revisit the ethnographic turn in contemporary art by bringing together contributions from theorists artists and critics to engage critically with the ethnographic perspective in their work This focus on the ethnographic turn has been expanded in subsequent special issues to explore how culture and society can be critically explored and challenged through the detour of art how contemporary art practices engage with participation interaction and technology in an increasingly digital screen culture and what the role can be of critical art to conceptualize contest and or develop an engaged and critical pedagogy This collection aims to re expose the special issues to an international audience by presenting a non exhaustive selection of articles that exemplify the different perspectives and discussions that are tackled throughout It starts with three of the introductory articles that have attracted large readerships and that give a detailed introduction for the special issues The compilation ends with three so called Vignettes these are short statements and reflections by artists about their practice which are an important feature of the special issues Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic, ...
