Montserrat Miller, 2015-01-12 The food markets of Barcelona host thousands of customers daily from tourists eager to sample fresh fruits and grilled seafood to neighborhood cooks in search of high quality ingredients While other countries experienced major shifts away from the public market model in the twentieth century Barcelona s food markets remained fundamental to the city s identity economy and culture Montserrat Miller s Feeding Barcelona 1714 1975 examines the causes behind the extraordinary vibrancy and tenacity of the Barcelonan market system Miller argues that recurrent revolutionary uprisings in Barcelona beginning in the mid eighteenth century forced ongoing collaboration between the public and private sectors to ensure adequate and effective food distribution Municipal support permitted small scale food sellers in Barcelona to survive in a period more commonly characterized by increasing capitalization in food retail while the importance of food markets to Barcelona s social networks enhanced vendors ability to recognize and adapt to changing customer demands In addition a high number of stalls owned by women contributed both to the financial well being of vendor families and to the sociability patterns that placed neighborhood food markets at the center of daily life in the city The shared commitment of vendors shoppers and government officials to a market model of food sales created the lasting and unique market system that persists in Barcelona to this day Drawing from extensive archival research and numerous interviews with individuals at all levels of the market system Feeding Barcelona 1714 1975 is the first detailed history of the historical and social influences that create urban food markets Disagreeing Virtuously Vainio, Olli-Pekka, 2017 Disagreement is inevitable particularly in our current context marked by the close coexistence of conflicting values and perspectives in politics religion and ethics How can we deal with disagreement ethically and constructively in our pluralistic world In Disagreeing Virtuously Olli Pekka Vainio presents a valuable interdisciplinary approach to that question drawing on insights from intellectual history the cognitive sciences philosophy of religion and virtue theory After mapping the current discussion on disagreement among various disciplines Vainio offers fresh ways to understand the complicated nature of human disagreement and recommends ways to manage our interpersonal and intercommunal conflicts in ethically sustainable ways

Philosophy in Seven Sentences Douglas Groothuis, 2016-01-06 Philosophy is not a closed club or a secret society It s for anyone who thinks big questions are worth talking about In this lively introduction Douglas Groothuis unpacks seven short yet pivotal sentences from the history of Western philosophy including key ideas from Protagoras Socrates Aristotle Augustine Descartes Pascal and Kierkegaard

The Taste for Civilization Janet A. Flammang, 2009-10-06 This book explores the idea that table activities the mealtime rituals of food preparation serving and dining lay the foundation for a proper education on the value of civility the importance of the common good and what it means to be a good citizen The arts of conversation and diplomatic speech are learned and practiced at tables and a political history of food practices recasts thoughtfulness and generosity as virtues that enhance civil society and democracy In our industrialized and profit centered culture however foodwork is devalued and civility is eroding Looking at the field of American civility Janet A Flammang addresses the gendered responsibilities for foodwork s civilizing functions and argues that any formulation of civil society must consider food practices and the household To allow space for practicing civility generosity and thoughtfulness through everyday foodwork Americans must challenge the norms of unbridled consumerism work life balance and domesticity and caregiving Connecting political theory with the quotidian activities of the dinner table Flammang discusses practical ideas from the delicious revolution and Slow Food movement to illustrate how civic activities are linked to foodwork and she points to farmers markets and gardens in communities schools and jails as sites for strengthening civil society and degendering foodwork
