and its relations to modernity were inseparable from the emergence of the post war world order imperial collaboration and collisions and national aspirations Empires of Antiquities uniquely combines a history of the internationalization of a new regime of archaeology under the oversight of the League of Nations and its web of institutions a history of British passions for Near Eastern antiquity on the ground colonial mechanisms and nationalist claims on the past It points to the centrality of the mandate system particularly mandates classified A in Mesopotamia Iraq Palestine and Transjordan formerly governed by the Ottoman Empire and of Egypt in a new culture of antiquity Drawing on an unusually wide range of archives in several countries as well as on visual and material evidence the book weaves together imperial international and local histories of institutions people ideas and objects and offers an entirely new interpretation of the history of archaeological discovery and its connections to empires and modernity Classical Weekly ,1923 Iranian Classical Music Laudan

Nooshin,2017-03-02 Questions of creativity and particularly the processes which underlie creative performance or improvisation form some of the central areas of interest in current musicology Yet the predominant discourses on which musicological thought in this area are based have rarely been challenged In this book Laudan Nooshin interrogates musicological discourses of creativity from the perspective of critical theory and postcolonial studies examining their ideological underpinnings the relationships of alterity which they sustain and the profound implications for our understanding of creative processes in music The repertoire which forms the book s main focus is Iranian classical music a tradition in which the performer plays a central creative role Addressing a number of issues regarding the nature of musical creativity the author explores both the discourses through which ideas about creativity are constructed exchanged and negotiated within this tradition and the practice by which new music comes into being For the latter she compares a number of performances by musicians playing a range of instruments and spanning a period of more than 30 years focusing on one particular section of repertoire dastg h Seg h and providing transcriptions of the performances as the basis for analytical exploration of the music s underlying compositional principles This book is about understanding musical creativity as a meaningful social practice It is the first to examine the ways in which ideas about tradition authenticity innovation and modernity in Iranian classical music form part of a wider social discourse on creativity and in particular how they inform debates regarding national and cultural identity The Classical Weekly ,1928 The Classical World ,1907
