Rethinking the Needham Question

Raymond W. K. Lau,2024-12-24 This book offers a new investigation of the Needham Question Why did modern science emerge in Europe but not in any of the advanced non European civilizations Eurocentric accounts attribute it to certain qualities said to be unique to Europe Opposed to the Eurocentric view is a position known as the dialogical perspective Dialogism argues that Europe borrowed heavily from non European scientific knowledges and that scientific exchanges were key to the development of modern science Neo Eurocentric arguments have emerged in response to the challenge of dialogism and the debate between Eurocentrism neo Eurocentrism and dialogism currently stands at a stalemate In this book Raymond Lau brings a new theoretical methodological framework to finally settle this debate The historical analysis developed here shows that to secure the non Eurocentric case and decisively rebut Eurocentrism and neo Eurocentrism it is necessary to go beyond dialogism both theoretically and methodologically

A World Art History and Its Objects David Carrier, 2008-11-28 Is writing a world art history possible Does the history of art as such even exist outside the Western tradition Is it possible to consider the history of art in a way that is not fundamentally Eurocentric In this highly readable and provocative book David Carrier a philosopher and art historian does not attempt to write a world art history himself Rather he asks the question of how an art history of all cultures could be written or whether it is even possible to do so He also engages the political and moral issues raised by the idea of a multicultural art history Focusing on a consideration of intersecting artistic traditions Carrier negotiates the way meaning and understanding shift or are altered when a visual object from one culture for example is inserted into the visual tradition of another culture A World Art History and Its Objects proposes the use of temporal narrative as a way to begin to understand a multicultural art history
