Trends in European Tourism

Planning and Organisation Carlos Costa, Emese Panyik, Dimitrios Buhalis, 2013-10-07 Written by leading international tourism researchers this book examines the key trends in European tourism planning and organisation. It introduces a theoretical framework to tourism planning and organisation using a procedural and structural approach. Despite having a European focus it is globally relevant as many lessons from Europe can be applied to international tourism development. The book identifies and discusses six key themes in the context of European tourism planning and organisation: territory actors and structures, economics, policy, methods and techniques, and vision. It also identifies leading and emerging practices and offers a new vision for European tourism planning.

Global Perspectives on Religious Tourism and Pilgrimage El-Gohary, Hatem, Edwards, David John, Eid, Riyadh, 2017-12-01 Religious studies and research has gained a lot of interest and considerable attention from researchers, policy makers and practitioners during the last few years. Though interest has increased, religious tourism is vastly underrepresented in modern research and not much is known on the subject's presence in most countries. Global Perspectives on Religious Tourism and Pilgrimage provides emerging research on religious tourism, the cultural impact of religion and religiosity's impact on new market products. Highlighting the prevalence of religiosity, readers will learn tourism's impact on the world economy and the growing research in religious tourism. This book is an important resource for academic societies, entrepreneurs, policy makers, researchers and educators.

European Studies in Asia Georg Wiessala, 2014-03-21 As countries across Asia continue to rise and become more assertive global powers, the role that Higher Education has played and continues to play in this process is an issue of growing pertinence. Furthermore, understanding the relationship between Europe and Asia, fostered by historical and contemporary knowledge transfer including Higher Education, is crucial to analysing and encouraging the progress of both regional integration and inter-regional cooperation. With a specific focus on international Higher Education, European Studies in Asia investigates knowledge transfer and channels of learning between Europe and Asia from historical, contemporary and teaching perspectives. The book examines a selection of significant historical precedents of intellectual dialogue between the two regions and in turn explores contemporary cross-regional discourses both inside and outside of the official frameworks of the European Union (EU) and the Asia-Europe Meetings (ASEM). Drawing on extensive case studies based on many of his own teaching experiences, Georg Wiessala addresses key questions such as the nature and construction of the European Studies in Asia curriculum, aspects of values co-constructed learning and adult pedagogy in the discipline of European Studies in Asia.

the politics of Asian host cultures the internationalization of Asian Higher Education and the experiences and expectations of tertiary sector students of this subject in Asia Australia and New Zealand In doing so the author articulates a range of outcomes for the further development of Higher Education cooperation agendas between Asia and Europe in the discipline of European Studies and in related fields such as International Relations This case study led book makes an original and novel contribution to our understanding of European Studies in Asia As such it will be of great interest to students and scholars of Asian Education Comparative Education European Studies and International Relations Lonely Planet Discover Germany
