Longman Companion to Twentieth Century Literature Alfred Charles Ward,1975-01-01 The Historical Jesus in the Twentieth Century Walter P. Weaver,1999-07-01 Written in a clear and engaging style Weaver s story chronicles not only the progress of Jesus research but also the cultural drifts and sociological phenomena that relate to the varying pictures of Jesus that scholarship has produced Twentieth-Century Suspense Clive Bloom,1990-05-01 This series aims to bring to academics students and general readers the best contemporary criticism on neglected literary and cultural areas This volume contains 17 critical essays on influential suspense writers of the 20th century Domestic Modernism, the Interwar Novel, and E.H. Young Chiara Briganti,Kathy Mezei,2016-12-05 Domestic Modernism the Interwar Novel and E H Young provides a valuable analytical model for reading a large body of modernist works by women who have suffered not only from a lack of critical attention but from the assumption that experimental modernist techniques are the only expression of the modern In the process of documenting the publication and reception history of E H Young s novels the authors suggest a paradigm for analyzing the situation of women writers during the interwar years Their discussion of Young in the context of both canonical and noncanonical writers challenges the generic label and literary status of the domestic novel as well as facile assumptions about popular and middlebrow fiction canon formation aesthetic value and modernity The authors also make a significant contribution to discussions of the everyday and to the burgeoning field of homeculture as they show that the fictional embodiment and inscription of home by writers such as Young Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bowen Ivy Compton Burnett Lettice Cooper E M Delafield Stella Gibbons Storm Jameson and E Arnot Robertson epitomize the long standing symbiosis between architecture and literature or more specifically between the house and the novel Twentieth-century Literary Movements Dictionary Helene Henderson,Jay P. Psychological Constructs and the Craft of African Fiction of Yesteryears Linus Tongwo Asong, 2012 The novel remains the most popular genre in the African literary landscape In the very large body of criticism that has been devoted to the craft of African fiction this very stimulating study of six African novels will hold its own distinctive place for a long while It brings to African critical thought not only an exceptional acumen of interpretation and analysis but something much more important to most of the previous serious literary study than mere technical dissection a keen sense of the experience and imaginative truth that make Asong s selected African texts living books as well as authentic record of human and moral values Many of Asong s perceptions are not only critically shrewd but humanly searching alert to aesthetic quality and invention No one interested in creative criticism of African fiction will read this book without finding its approach a challenge to his or her own reading of African fiction and a stimulus to understanding the growth and enduring richness of the best of the African novel The book balances nicely in its choice of three texts in English and three in French the two dominant colonial languages in Africa South of the Sahara Even more interesting is the fact that although all the French texts have been translated into English Asong opts to treat the three in the original language in which they were conceived and executed a decision which keeps the reader as close as possible to the original idiom
