Lorna McGregor:

International Prosecution of Human Rights Crimes Wolfgang Kaleck, Michael Ratner, Tobias Singelstein, Peter Weiss, 2006-11-22 1 In his separate opinion in the Nuclear Weapons case Judge Mohammed Bedoui then the President of the International Court of Justice called nuclear weapons the absolute evil There are a few other things which merit being called solutely evil They are the predicates of the International Criminal Court and of various domestic laws patterned on the Rome Statute war crimes crimes against humanity genocide and aggression A conference organized by the Berlin based Republikanischer Anwaltinnen und Anwalteverein Republican Lawyers Association and the New York based Center for Constitutional Rights was held in Berlin in June 2005 under the title Globalverfassung versus Realpolitik Global Constitution versus Realpolitik It dealt with the tension between these universally accepted norms and the actual practice of governments in an age characterized by the ill defined concept of the war on terror This book is the outcome of that conference It is intended for a wide variety of readers academics all kinds of jurists as well as human rights activists who sometimes know more about the applicable law than the legal experts It owes its existence to a paradox On the one hand new structures for dealing with the most serious international crimes are being put into place Routledge Handbook of International Human Rights Law Scott Sheeran, Sir Nigel Rodley, 2014-08-07 The Routledge Handbook of International Human Rights Law provides the definitive global survey of the discipline of international human rights law Each chapter is written by a leading expert and provides a contemporary overview of a significant area within the field As well as covering topics integral to the theory and practice of international human rights law the volume offers a broader perspective through examinations of the ways in which human rights law interacts with other legal regimes and other international institutions and by addressing the current and future challenges facing human rights Providing up to date and authoritative articles covering key aspects of international human rights law this book work is an essential work of reference for scholars practitioners and students alike Chapter 35 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 3.0 license https://www.routledgehandbooks.com/doi/10.4324/9780203481417_ch35 Wallace's American Trotting Register ... John Hankins Wallace, 1911 An Introduction to International Criminal Law and Procedure Robert Cryer, 2010-05-27 This market leading textbook gives an authoritative account of international criminal law and the investigation and prosecution of crime and guides the reader through controversies with an accessible and sophisticated approach Now covers developments in the ICC victims rights alternatives to international criminal justice and has extended coverage of terrorism Research Handbook on Warfare and Artificial Intelligence Robin Geiß, Henning Lahmann, 2024-07-05 The Research Handbook on Warfare and Artificial Intelligence provides a multi disciplinary exploration of the urgent issues emerging from the increasing use of AI supported technologies in military operations Bringing together scholarship from leading experts in the fields of technology and security from across the globe it sheds light on the wide spectrum of existing and prospective cases of AI in armed conflict Transitional Justice in Tunisia Simon Robins, Paul Gready, 2022-07-15 This book engages comprehensively with the dynamics of the transitional justice process in Tunisia and its mechanisms elaborating lessons for transitional justice practice globally Grounded in new empirical material as well as a broader awareness of transitional justice this book provides a thorough assessment of transitional justice in Tunisia Beyond an overview of the process it critically engages with key questions such as the extent to which the process articulated global contemporary practice such as liberal state building and narrow conceptions of justice as civil political rights and to which it generated novel approaches at odds with the mainstream that can inform global practice The book examines how the transitional justice process in Tunisia has been contextualised and made relevant to the nation's circumstances and needs It looks at innovation at the level of formal mechanisms and at the dynamics of mobilisation and contestation surrounding transitional justice both from civil society organisations and victims groups Bringing together analysis from legal scholars social scientists as well as activists and practitioners the book challenges the legalism of transitional justice discourse globally engendering a dialogue between these legal and judicial approaches on the one hand and alternative more diverse and radical approaches to justice on the other in order to both deal with the past and to address ongoing injustice This first book in English to address the dynamics and mechanisms of the transitional justice process in Tunisia will appeal to students and scholars of transitional justice human rights peacebuilding conflict and peace studies development and security studies as well as policymakers and practitioners in these fields and others with interests in Middle Eastern studies

Counterterrorism Law and Practice in the East African Community Christopher E. Bailey, 2019-02-11 This book examines the existing counter terrorism laws and practices in the six member East African Community EAC as it applies to a range of law enforcement and military activities under various international legal obligations Dr Christopher E Bailey provides a comparative examination of existing national law for EAC countries including compliance with obligations under international human rights and international humanitarian law and offers a range of legal reform recommendations This book addresses two primary related research questions To what extent do the current national counter terrorism laws and practices of the EAC Partner States comply with existing international human rights safeguards What laws or practices can the EAC adopt to achieve better compliance with human rights safeguards in both civilian and military counter terrorism operations

Justice for Victims before the International Criminal Court Luke Moffett, 2014-06-27 Many prosecutors and commentators have praised the victim provisions at the International Criminal Court ICC as justice for victims which for the first time include participation protection and reparations This book critically examines the role of victims in international criminal justice drawing from human rights victimology and best practices in transitional justice Drawing on field research in Northern Uganda Luke Moffett explores the nature of international crimes and assesses the role of victims in the proceedings of the ICC paying particular attention to their recognition participation reparations and protection The book argues that because of the criminal nature and structural limitations of the ICC justice for victims is symbolic requiring State Parties to complement the work of the Court to address victims needs In advancing an innovative theory of justice for victims and in offering solutions to current challenges the book will be of great interest and use to academics practitioners and students engaged in victimology the ICC transitional justice or reparations

Transitional Justice in Comparative Perspective Samar El-Masri, Tammy Lambert, Joanna R. Quinn, 2020-01-17 What if we could change the conditions in post conflict post authoritarian countries to make transitional justice work better This book argues that if the context in countries in need of transitional justice can be ameliorated before processes of transitional justice are established they are more likely to meet with success As the contributors reveal this can be done in different ways At the attitudinal level changing the broader social ethos can improve the chances that societies will be more receptive to transitional justice At the institutional level the capacity of mechanisms and institutions can be strengthened to offer more support to transitional justice processes Drawing on lessons learned in Colombia Democratic Republic of the Congo The Gambia Lebanon Palestine and Uganda the book explores ways to better the conditions in post conflict post authoritarian countries to improve the success of transitional justice

Just Peace Fernando Enns, Annette Mosher, 2013-09-17 Christian theology and ethics have wrestled with the challenge to apply Jesus's central message of nonviolence to the injustices of this world Is it not right to defend the persecuted by using violence Is it unjust if the oppressed defend themselves if necessary by the use of violence in order to liberate themselves and to create a more just society Can we leave the doctrine of the just war behind and shift all our attention toward the way of a just peace In 2011 the World Council of Churches brought to a close the Decade to Overcome Violence to which the churches committed themselves at the beginning of the century Just peace has evolved as the new ecumenical paradigm for contemporary Christian ethics Just peace signals a realistic vision of holistic peace with justice which in the concept of shalom is central in the Hebrew Bible as well as in the gospel message of the New Testament This paradigm needs further elaboration VU University gathered peacebuilding practitioners and experts from different parts of the world Africa Latin America North America Asia and Europe and from different disciplines anthropology psychology social sciences law and theology voices from across generations and Christian traditions to promote discussion about the different dimensions of building peace with justice

Violence, Inequality and Transformation: Apartheid Survivors on South Africa's Ongoing Transition Jasmina Brankovic, Brian Mphahlele, Sindiswa Nunu, Agnes Ngxukuma, Nompumelelo Njana, Yanelisa Sishuba, 2020-01-29 Despite its lauded political transition in 1994 South Africa continues to have among the highest levels of violence and inequality in the world Organised survivors of apartheid violations have long maintained that we cannot adequately address violence in the country let alone achieve full democracy without addressing inequality This book is built around extensive quotes from members of Khulumani Support Group the apartheid survivors social movement and young people growing up in Khulumani families It shows how these survivors who bridge the past and the present through their activism understand and respond to socioeconomic drivers of violence Pointing to the continuities between apartheid oppression and post apartheid marginalisation in everyday life the narratives detail ways in which the democratic dispensation has strengthened barriers to social transformation and helped enable violence They also present strategies for effecting change through collaboration dialogue and mutual training and through partnerships with diverse stakeholders that build on local level knowledge and community based initiatives The lens of violence offers new and manageable ways to think about reducing inequality while the lens of inequality shows that violence is a complex web of causes pathways and effects that requires a big picture approach to unravel The survivors narratives suggest innovative strategies for promoting a just transition through people driven transformation that go well beyond the constraints of South Africa's transitional justice practice to date A result of participatory research conducted in collaboration with and by Khulumani members this book will be of interest to activists students researchers and policy makers working on issues of transitional justice inequality and violence

Values for a Post-Pandemic Future Matthew J. Dennis, Georgy Ishmaev, Steven Umbrello, Jeroen van den Hoven, 2022-09-13 This open access book shows how value sensitive design VSD responsible innovation and comprehensive engineering can guide the rapid development of technological responses to the COVID 19 crisis Responding to the ethical challenges of data driven technologies and other tools requires thinking about values in the context of a pandemic as well as in a post COVID world Instilling values must be prioritized from the beginning not only in the emergency response to the pandemic but in how to proceed with new societal precedents materializing new norms of health surveillance and new public health requirements The contributors with expertise in VSD bridge the gap between ethical acceptability and social acceptance By addressing ethical acceptability and societal acceptance together VSD guides COVID technologies in a way that strengthens their ability to fight the virus and outlines pathways for the resolution of moral dilemmas This volume provides diachronic reflections on the crisis response to address long term moral consequences in light of the post pandemic future Both contact tracing apps and immunity passports must work in a multi system environment and will be required to succeed alongside institutions incentive structures regulatory bodies and current legislation This text appeals to students researchers and importantly professionals in the field

Transitional Justice Hakeem O. Yusuf,Hugo van der Merwe,2021-09-06 Transitional justice is the way societies that have experienced civil conflict or authoritarian rule and widespread violations of human rights deal with the experience With its roots in law transitional justice as an area of study crosses various fields in the social sciences This book is written with this multi and inter disciplinary dynamic of the field in mind The book presents the broad scope of transitional justice studies through a focus on the theory mechanisms and debates in the area covering such topics as The origin context and development of transitional justice Victims victimology and transitional justice Prosecutions for abuses and gross violations of human rights Truth commissions Transitional justice and local justice Gender political economy and transitional justice Apology reconciliation and the politics of memory Offering a discussion of the impact and outcomes of transitional justice this approach provides valuable insight for those who seek both an introduction alongside relatively advanced engagement with the subject Transitional Justice Theories Mechanisms and Debates is an important text for postgraduate and advanced undergraduate students who take courses in transitional justice human rights and criminal law as well as a systematic reference text for researchers

Access to Social Justice Katie Boyle,Diana Camps,Kirstie English,Jo Ferrie,Aidan Flegg,Gaurav Mukherjee,2025-01-31 Available open access digitally under CC BY NC ND licence This book proposes a conception of social justice according to international human rights law Social rights include everyday rights such as housing food fuel and social security Drawing on extensive research with frontline practitioners the book frames access to social justice as a journey that should end with the realisation of an effective remedy It highlights discourses that marginalise and disempower rights holders and reclaims the narrative around social rights as legal rights This is a unique contribution to our understanding of access to social justice from a social rights perspective complete with key recommendations for policy and practice
