Accidental Allies Michael Knights, Wladimir van Wilgenburg, 2021-10-21 The U S led effort to fight the Islamic State in northeastern Syria since 2014 has been as controversial and poorly understood as it has been significant Advocates of fighting by with and through the Kurdish led Syrian Democratic Forces SDF view the campaign as a near ideal case study of a cost effective U S military intervention that should be duplicated in the future Critics of the campaign say that the U S allied itself with a terrorist group and endangered its ties with Turkey a long standing NATO partner losing sight of strategic priorities in order to win tactical victories at low cost This book combines general research with 50 interviews gathered in Syria with Kurdish Arab and Christian SDF officers and 50 interviews with U S and French officials and military officers with on the ground involvement in the war It provides an unprecedented window into how the war was really prosecuted in the eyes of the participants at all levels uniquely looking not only at how U S soldiers view their partner forces but how the local partners view them in return This is a unique and essential insight into US strategy in Syria and beyond American Indians at the Margins H. Roy Kaplan, 2022-05-11 Since the earliest days of America racist imagery has been used to create harmful stereotypes of the indigenous people In this book the conflict between invading European white settlers and the indigenous groups who occupied the land that became the United States is described through the context of race and racism Using depictions from art literature radio cinema and television the origin and persistence of such stereotypes are explained and their debilitating effects on the well being of Indians are presented This text also explores their accomplishments in attempts to maintain their sovereignty dignity and respect Islamic State in Australia Rodger Shanahan,2022-12-30 This book fills a gap in our knowledge about the activities of Western supporters and members of Islamic State by examining the experience of their Australian cohort More than 200 Australian men women and children travelled to Syria and Iraq to fight with Islamist groups and to help establish an Islamic State by force Dozens more assisted Islamic State by supporting those overseas or by planning or carrying out terrorist attacks in Australia For all that little is publicly known about the impact of the Syrian conflict on Australia s radical Islamists This book provides a well researched examination of how and why so many Australians travelled to fight for or otherwise supported Islamic State From the failed attempt to bring down an Etihad passenger plane en route from Sydney to Abu Dhabi to showing their children holding the heads of Syrian soldiers Australians were prominent in carrying out Islamic State s directions Using a range of Australian and foreign court records social and mainstream media content this book provides the first detailed look at who these people were what tasks they carried out how they came to adopt this radical view of Islam and what long term legal and security implications are likely to result from their actions This book will be of interest to students of terrorism political Islam and security studies

Cyberbullies, Cyberactivists, Cyberpredators Lauren Rosewarne,2016-01-25 Written by an expert in media popular culture gender and sexuality this book surveys the common archetypes of Internet users from geeks nerds and gamers to hackers scammers and predators and assesses what these stereotypes reveal about our culture s attitudes regarding gender technology intimacy and identity The Internet has enabled an exponentially larger number of people individuals who are members of numerous and vastly different subgroups to be exposed to one other As a result instead of the simple jocks versus geeks paradigm of previous eras our society now has more detailed stereotypes of the undesirable the under the radar and the ostracized cyberperverts neckbeards goths tech nerds and anyone with a non heterosexual identity Each chapter of this book explores a different stereotype of the Internet user with key themes such as gender technophobia and sexuality explored with regard to that specific characterization of online users Author Lauren Rosewarne PhD supplies a highly interdisciplinary perspective that draws on research and theories from a range of fields psychology sociology and communications studies as well as feminist theory film theory political science and philosophy to analyze what these stereotypes mean in the context of broader social and cultural issues From cyberbullies to chronically masturbating porn addicts to desperate online daters readers will see the paradox in popular culture s message that while Internet use is universal actual Internet users are somehow subpar less desirable less cool less friendly than everybody else Not Hockey Angie Abdou,Jamie Dopp,2023-08-29 In this carefully curated collection of essays editors Jamie Dopp and Angie Abdou go beyond their first collection Writing the Body in Motion to engage with the meaning of sport found in Canadian sport literature How does sport differ from physically risky recreational activities that require strength and skill Does sport demand that someone win At what point does a sport become an art With the aim of prompting reflections on and discussions of the boundaries of sport contributors explore how literature engages with sport as a metaphor as a language and as bodily expression Instead of a focus on what is often described as Canada's national pastime contributors examine sports in Canadian literature that are decidedly not hockey From skateboarding and parkour to fly fishing and curling these essays engage with Canadian histories and broader societal understandings through sports on the margin Interspersed with original reflections by iconic Canadian literary figures such as Steven Heighton Aritha Van Herk Thomas Wharton and Timothy Taylor this volume is fresh and intriguing and offers new ways of reading the body The Routledge Companion to Literature of the U.S. South Katharine A. Burnett, Todd Hagstette, Monica Carol Miller, 2022-07-11 The Routledge Companion to Literature of the U S South provides a collection of vibrant and multidisciplinary essays by scholars from a wide range of backgrounds working in the field of U S southern literary studies With topics ranging from American studies African American studies transatlantic or global studies multiethnic studies immigration studies and gender studies this volume presents a multifaceted conversation around a wide variety of subjects in U S southern literary studies The Companion will offer a comprehensive overview of the southern literary studies field including a chronological history from the U S colonial era to the present day and theoretical touchstones while also introducing new methods of reconceiving region and the U S South as inherently interdisciplinary and multi dimensional The volume will therefore be an invaluable tool for instructors scholars students and members of the general public who are interested in exploring the field further but will also suggest new methods of engaging with regional studies American studies American literary studies and cultural studies Cracking the SAT with 5 Practice Tests, 2020 Edition The Princeton Review, 2019-07-16 Make sure you're studying with the most up to date prep materials Look for the newest edition of this title Princeton Review SAT Prep 2021 ISBN 9780525569350 on sale May 2020 Publisher's Note Products purchased from third party sellers are not guaranteed by the publisher for quality or authenticity and may not include access to online tests or materials included with the original product Cracking the SAT Premium Edition with 8 Practice Tests, 2020 The Princeton Review, 2019-07-16 Make sure you're studying with the most up to date prep materials Look for the newest edition of this title Princeton Review SAT Premium Prep 2021 ISBN 9780525569343 on sale May 2020 Publisher's Note Products purchased from third party sellers are not guaranteed by the publisher for quality or authenticity and may not include access to online tests or materials included with the original product

The Global Muslim Brotherhood in Britain Damon Perry, 2018-07-17 Since 2011 with the British Government's counter radicalisation strategy Prevent non violent Islamist groups have been considered a security risk for spreading a divisive ideology that can lead to radicalisation and violence More recently the Government has expressed concerns about their impact on social cohesion entryism and women's rights The key protagonists of non violent Islamist extremism allegedly include groups and individuals associated with the Muslim Brotherhood and Jama'at al Islami They have been described as part of the global Muslim Brotherhood but do they constitute a singular phenomenon a social movement This book shows that such groups and individuals do indeed comprise a movement in Britain one dedicated to an Islamic revival It shows how they are networked organisationally bonded through ideological and cultural kinship and united in a conflict of values with the British society and state Using original interviews with prominent revivalist leaders as well as primary sources the book also shows how the movement is not so much Islamist in aspiring for an Islamic state but concerned with institutionalising an Islamic worldview and moral framework throughout society The conflict between the Government and the global Muslim Brotherhood is apparent in a number of different fields including education governance law and counterterrorism But this does not simply concern the direction of Government policy or the control of state institutions It most fundamentally concerns the symbolic authority to legitimise a way of seeing thinking and living By assessing this multifaceted conflict the book presents an exhaustive and up to date analysis of the political and cultural fault lines between Islamic revivalists and the British authorities It will be useful for anyone studying Islam in the West government counter terrorism and counter extremism policy multiculturalism and social cohesion

Feeling blue Victoria Bates,2025-08-19 Feeling blue is the first book length history of colour in modern hospitals It examines colour in relation to six key themes hygiene emotion humanisation homeliness play consumerism which are tied together by the idea of the modern hospital The book does not simply describe changes to the appearance of hospitals over time but instead thinks expansively about the role of colour in shaping how hospitals felt It uses colour to understand the layered meanings of modernity in twentieth century Britain and its relationship to the mundane or everyday life of hospitals

Confederates from Canada Ralph Lindeman,2023-10-17 Unable to achieve sustained military success in the Civil War the Confederacy tried a daring strategy in 1864 commando style raids into northern states from Canada Taking advantage of the undefended border rebels hit targets along the Great Lakes where growing antiwar sentiment was an election year problem for the Lincoln administration Revisiting one of the forgotten chapters of the war this is a deeply researched history of the South s operations in Canada One of the most significant raids is covered in detail for the first time Virginia planter turned Confederate agent John Yates Beall s attempt to liberate 2 700 Confederate officers from a prison camp on Lake Erie

Slow Media Jennifer Rauch,2018-09-11 Slow Media examines innovative theories and practices that connect mediated life with social and environmental sustainability including mindful use of media green media consumption and other new and compelling perspectives on media s socio cultural impact Jennifer Rauch reveals the surprising connections between human well being the natural world and everyday media choices
