Lost Restaurants of Walla Walla Catie McIntyre Walker, 2018 Dining in Walla Walla blossomed from an influx of mining transplants in the late 1800s Within decades a roadhouse called the Oasis boasted a seventy-two ounce slab of beef and the old Pastime Caf opened at 5:30 a.m. with white toast and whiskey for breakfast In the early 1950s Ysidro Berrones opened one of the valley's first Mexican restaurants the El Sombrero Tortilla Factory and Caf Owner of Denney's Hi Spot for two decades Joe Denney also satisfied locals with his morning crooning to piano on KTEL Native and local wine writer Catie McIntyre Walker celebrates this rich heritage with decades of departed beloved establishments and the people behind them

Cucamonga Valley Wine: The Lost Empire of American Winemaking George M. Walker & John Peragine, 2017 The Cucamonga Valley was once America's largest wine producing region crafting quality vintages decades before Napa and Sonoma Secondo Guasti an ambitious and enterprising Italian immigrant established the region's first vineyard in 1901 and others soon followed Wineries like the Vai Brothers Padre Galleano Brookside and more made the valley the epicenter of a burgeoning industry Not even Prohibition could halt production While domestic breweries and distilleries shuttered Cucamonga's brandy and sherry continued to be legally made for culinary and medicinal purposes Yet by the late 1970s harvests had dwindled and vineyards vanished Urbanization vine disease and property taxes effectively ended production Today local vintners and wine enthusiasts are reviving the region's proud heritage Authors George M. Walker and John Peragine uncork a legacy too delectable to die Historic Restaurants of Tucson Rita Connelly, 2018-02-12 Tucson's culinary journey began thousands of years ago when Native American tribes developed an agricultural base along the Santa Cruz River. In modern times restaurants ranging from tiny taquerias to fine dining spaces all contributed to the local food culture. El Charro serving Mexican cuisine since 1922 still attracts crowds from all over. Folks head straight to Pat's for a hot dog, Lucky Wishbone for some fried chicken or Eegee's for a grinder and a cold frosty drink. On any given night the patio at El Corral is filled with diners anticipating their famous prime rib and tamale pie. Local food writer Rita Connelly brings to life the stories of beloved eateries that have endured for decades and continue to delight with incredible flavors. Lost Restaurants of El Paso El Paso County Historical Society, 2021. El Paso was a crossroads long before it was a border town and its restaurant history represents the same intersection of foodways and culinary traditions. When the Ladies Auxiliary for the YMCA produced El Paso's first known community cookbook in 1898 a number of its recipes appeared in English for the first time. Many of the eateries that supported that variety are now gone but places like Jaxson's, Griggs and the Central Caf changed the city's tastebuds forever. Walk the colonnade of the Hollywood Caf or plop down at Bill Parks Bar B Q in this collection of standbys served up by the El Paso County Historical Society. The final chapter in this section explores the uses of food in the classroom. Congressional Record United States Congress, 1968. Cumulated Index Medicus, 2000. When Matter Became Mind Dana Xavier Kerola, 2025-08-25. This book is a scientific story that chronicles the origin and evolution of the mutually connected physical and mental aspects of our universe. This work examines in an engaging way two of the greatest mysteries in all of science and philosophy: the origin of the universe itself and the nature of human consciousness. The author invites the reader to travel with him mentally to ponder the deep question: Why is there something rather than nothing? The author infuses memories of events in his own life to showcase the marvelous magic of human memory. The book also reveals the sheer power of rational thought embodied in great achievements by the likes of Georg Cantor with his proof of distinct levels of mathematical infinity and Kurt Godel in the formulation of his Incompleteness Theorems that lie at the root of our ability to gain absolute knowledge about the universe. This educationally entertaining work will appeal to a broad spectrum of readers from scientist authors and educators to anyone who is seeking to discover a new cosmic perspective they each might adopt for themselves.

In the city that invented the diner so many amazing restaurants remain only in memories. The Silver Top had fresh coffee every twenty minutes and the Ever Ready was hot dog heaven. Miss Dutton's Green Room and the Shepard Tea Room beckoned shoppers in their Sunday finest. At Childs the griddle chef made butter cakes in the window for night owls and Harry Houdini supped at midnight with H.P. Lovecraft at the Waldorf Lunch. Themed lounges like the Beachcomber and the Bacchante Room chased away the Prohibition blues. Downcity Diner offered a famous meatloaf and Ming Garden's Ming Wings were a staple for regulars.
