Love In A Time Of Loneliness Three Essays On Drive And Desire:

Love in a Time of Loneliness Paul Verhaeghe, 2011-10 Noted Belgian psychoanalyst Paul Verhaeghe shows us what it is about sex that both keeps us moving and inhibits us at the same time The first essay The Impossible Couple is both a humorous and razor sharp analysis of the contemporary relationship between man and woman In the second essay Fleeing Fathers the author demonstrates that today the Freudian Oedipus complex has disappeared with a resulting shattering of classic gender roles Post modern morals are strange compared to previous morality because they convey an obligation to enjoy Things become even stranger when one finds that the expected enjoyment fails to come and instead of that we are faced with boredom anxiety and anger The reasons for this are discussed in the third essay The Drive Today sexual abuse is omnipresent with the male in the role of offender women and children reduced to his victims Paul Verhaeghe reconsiders the opposition between Eros and Thanatos as an opposition between two forms of sexual pleasure The fact that this opposition is ever present in heterosexual love demonstrates that gender differentiation goes beyond temporal cultural forms

Love in a Time of Loneliness Paul Verhaeghe, 2018-04-17 The first essay The Impossible Couple is both a humorous and razor sharp analysis of the contemporary relationship between man and woman In the second essay Fleeing Fathers the author demonstrates that today the Freudian Oedipus complex has disappeared with a resulting shattering of classic gender roles Post modern morals are strange compared to previous morality because they convey an obligation to enjoy Things become even stranger when one finds that the expected enjoyment fails to come and instead of that we are faced with boredom anxiety and anger The author reconsiders the opposition between Eros and Thanatos as an opposition between two forms of sexual pleasure The fact that this opposition is ever present in heterosexual love demonstrates that gender differentiation goes beyond temporal cultural forms Accessibly written and provocatively argued Love in a Time of Loneliness is a polemic whose very informality belies its serious intent In these three fascinating essays The author leaves the ordinary paths of thinking and sets out to discover what drives us in sex and love

Lacan Slavoj Zizek, 2020-05-05 Jacques Lacan is the foremost psychoanalytic theorist after Freud Revolutionising the study of social relations his work has been a major influence on political theory philosophy literature and the arts but his thought has so far been studied without a serious investigation of its foundations Just what are the influences on his thinking so crucial to its proper understanding In Lacan The Silent Partners Slavoj Zizek the maverick theorist and pre eminent Lacan scholar has marshalled some of the greatest thinkers of our age in support of a dazzling re evaluation of Lacan s work Focussing on Lacan s silent partners those who are the hidden inspiration to Lacanian theory they discuss his work in relation to the Pre Socratics Diderot Hegel Nietzsche Schelling Holderlin Wagner Turgenev Kafka Henry James and Artaud This major collection including three essays by Zizek marks a new era in the study of this unsettling thinker breathing new life into his classic work

Time Driven Adrian Johnston, 2005-07-27 Freud outlines two types of conflict that between drives and reality and that between the drives themselves Adrian Johnston identifies a third the conflict embedded within each and every drive      Sexuation Renata Salecl,2000-07-24 A Lacanian investigation of sexuality and sexual difference      Desire After Affect Marie-Luise Angerer,2014-11-24 Desire is a term often used in conjunction with the subject This desire is directed towards the real which is defined as the generic core of the linguistic order As a result of the focus on affect the three terms desire the subject the real have been fundamentally shaken up and called into question Affect in various forms is now a matter of concern across a wide range of disciplines including neuroscience psychology the humanities and social sciences All of these fields have a declared interest in affect in emotions and sensations in pathos passions and the senses Desire After Affect argues that this affective euphoria cannot be explained solely in terms of a repression of language logos and reason It argues that the affective turn is symptomatic of a fundamental shift in modes of thinking about the human condition It explores what this means for the human and the posthuman animal and machine and calls for a new theory of subjectivation a philosophy of media affect      The Digital Age on the Couch Alessandra Lemma,2017-04-21 The Digital Age is on the couch Working today it is essential that clinicians understand the world we live in The transition from an industrial economy to an information economy impacts not just the external structure of society and commerce but also the internal psychic economies of our brains and inevitably how clinicians conceptualise the analytic setting in which they practice as therapists and analysts The Digital Age on the Couch seeks to understand more about how new technologies interact with the prerogatives of an individual s internal world how they may alter psychic structure itself in fundamental ways and the implications this may have for the individual s functioning and for the operation of society This book attempts from the perspective of a working clinician to make some sense of this The impact of mediation via technology and the consequent disintermediation of the body represent central themes throughout as they impact on the experience of embodiment on the work of desire and on the way new media influences psychoanalytic practice New media offer opportunities for increasing accessibility to mental health care including psychoanalytic interventions However this requires a sophisticated understanding of how to best create and safeguard the analytic setting Alessandra Lemma here guides the clinician through an exploration of the limitations and risks of mediated psychotherapy illustrated with clinical examples throughout The Digital Age on the Couch offers an accessibly written guide to combining existing psychoanalytic theory and practice with the challenges presented by digital media It will appeal to psychoanalysts psychoanalytic psychotherapists and counsellors      Beyond Gender Paul Verhaeghe,2013-03-26 In this volume Paul Verhaeghe s lectures on the development of psychoanalytic theory between Freud and Lacan are reproduced as a written work of astonishing versatility which stands at the vanguard of Lacanian studies Beyond Gender examines Freud s discovery of the unconscious and Lacan s elaboration of this discovery as a gap in the subject between what s he knows and the real driving forces in the psyche The implications of this gap are manifold and their impact on areas of study and practice from gender theory to obsessional neurosis trauma hysteria and dream interpretation are profound It is Verhaeghe's contention that far from being the bedrock of gender differentiation castration masks another anxiety over another original lack that is beyond gender. This book elaborates the relationship between body and psyche beyond the classic binary opposition. Beyond Gender postulates that the sexual relationship must be re-examined as does the troublesome notion of gender identity. Youth Fantasies: The Perverse Landscape of the Media Jan Jagodzinski, 2004-08-20

Youth Fantasies is a collection of studies conducted in cross-cultural collaboration over the past ten years that theorizes youth fantasy as manifested through the media of TV, film, and computer games. Unlike other media studies and education books, the authors employ both Lacanian and Kleinian psychoanalytic concepts to attempt to make sense of teen culture and the influence of mass media. The collection includes case studies of X-Files fans, the influence of computer games, and the Lara Croft phenomenon and the reception of Western television by Tanzanian youth. The authors see this book as a much-needed reconciliation between cultural studies and Lacanian psychoanalysis and attempt to highlight why Lacan is important to note when exploring youth fantasy and interest in the media, especially in shows like X-Files. Retrotopia Zygmunt Bauman, 2017-03-06

We have long since lost our faith in the idea that human beings could achieve human happiness in some future ideal state, a state that Thomas More, writing five centuries ago, tied to a topos, a fixed place, a land, an island, a sovereign state under a wise and benevolent ruler. But while we have lost our faith in utopias of all hues, the human aspiration that made this vision so compelling has not died. Instead, it is re-emerging today as a vision focused not on the future but on the past, not on a future to be created but on an abandoned and undead past that we could call retrotopia. The emergence of retrotopia is interwoven with the deepening gulf between power and politics that is a defining feature of our contemporary liquid modern world: the gulf between the ability to get things done and the capability of deciding what things need to be done, a capability once vested with the territorially sovereign state. This deepening gulf has rendered nation-states unable to deliver on their promises, giving rise to a widespread disenchantment with the idea that the future will improve the human condition and a mistrust in the ability of nation-states to make this happen. True to the utopian spirit, retrotopia derives its stimulus from the urge to rectify the failings of the present human condition, though now by resurrecting the failed and forgotten potentials of the past. Imagined aspects of the past, genuine or putative, serve as the main landmarks today in drawing the road map to a better world. Having lost all faith in the idea of building an alternative society of the future, many turn instead to the grand ideas of the past, buried but not yet dead. Such is retrotopia, the contours of which are examined by Zygmunt Bauman in this sharp dissection of our contemporary romance with the past. Reading Seminar XX Suzanne Barnard, Bruce Fink, 2012-02-01

This collection offers the first sustained in-depth commentary on Seminar XX. Encore, considered the cornerstone of Lacan's work on the themes of sexual difference, knowledge, jouissance, and love. Although Seminar XX was originally popularized as Lacan's treatise on feminine sexuality, these essays by some of today's foremost Lacanian scholars go beyond feminine sexuality to address Lacan's significant intertwining concern with the rupture between reality and the real produced by modern science and the implications of this rupture for subjectivity knowledge jouissance and the body The essays clarify basic concepts but for readers already familiar with Lacan they also offer sophisticated workings through of the more challenging and obscure arguments in Encore both by tracing their historical development across Lacan's œuvre and by demonstrating their relation to particular philosophical theological mathematical and scientific concepts They cover much of the terrain necessary for understanding sexual difference not in terms of chromosomes body parts choice of sexual partner or varieties of sexual practice but in terms of one's position vis-à-vis the Other and the kind of jouissance one is able to obtain In so doing they make significant interventions in the debates regarding sex gender and sexuality in feminist theory philosophy queer theory and cultural studies

The Cinema of the Real Hyon Joo

Yoo, 2024-11-01 A significant intervention into Lacanian film studies this book sets forth a new theory of the psychoanalytic Real in cinema In psychoanalysis the Real ruptures the Symbolic that organizes law ideology and other systems of belief revealing fissures in this underlying order The Cinema of the Real explores how transnational cinema and especially South Korean cinema facilitate an encounter with the Real enabling the emergence of a new political subject Paying close attention to form Hyon Joo Yoo reveals the existence of an emancipatory drive in films by Jang Hun Park Chan Wook Lee Chang Dong Jia Zhangke Michael Haneke Claire Denis and Bong Joon-ho among others Their work in effect provides viewers with a picture of how it looks and feels to be on a trajectory in which the subject and her world can change Far from being a passive consumer of images Yoo's spectator enters the space of the Real Theoretically rigorous and inventive The Cinema of the Real offers new transnationally attuned tools for conceptualizing the body affect femininity and spectatorship as well as fresh readings of both classic and contemporary films

Narratives of Loneliness Olivia Sagan, Eric Miller, 2017-09-28

Rising life expectancies and declining social capital in the developed world mean that an increasing number of people are likely to experience some form of loneliness in their lifetimes than ever before Narratives of Loneliness tackles some of the most pressing issues related to loneliness showing that whilst recent policies on social integration community building and volunteering may go some way to giving an illusion of not being alone ultimately they offer a rhetoric of togetherness that may be more seductive than ameliorative as the condition and experience of loneliness is far more complex than commonly perceived Containing thought provoking contributions from researchers and commentators in several countries this important work challenges us to rethink some of the burning issues of our day with specific reference to the causes and consequences of loneliness Topics include the loneliness and mental health of military personnel loneliness and social media loneliness and sexuality urban loneliness and the experiences of transnational movement and adopted children This book therefore makes an overdue multidisciplinary contribution to the emerging debate about how best to deal with loneliness in a world that combines greater and faster connectedness on the one hand with more intensely experienced isolation on the other Since mile Durkheim first claimed that the structure of society could have a strong bearing on psychological health in the 1890s researchers in a range of disciplines have explored the probable impact of social context on mental health and wellbeing Interdisciplinary in approach Narratives of Loneliness will therefore be of great interest to academics postgraduate students and researchers in social sciences the arts psychology and psychiatry Critical Resilience for Nurses Michael Traynor, 2017-03-27 The nursing profession is under pressure Financial demands student debt the target culture political scrutiny in the wake of major care scandals and increasing workloads are all taking their toll on professional morale and performance This timely book considers the meaning of resilience in this adverse context and explains why measures to preserve individual nurses and students well being are flawed if they don't take into account wider political and organizational perspectives Arguing that healthcare can be thought about and experienced differently this book provides a summary of the latest research on resilience explaining its relevance and also limitations for nurses considers debates about compassion and highlights the effects of policy agendas on nurse education and nursing work re evaluates nursing's professional identity including where nursing has come from and the effects of class gender and race on its powerbase assesses the role of politics and social media both in driving change and feeding resistance and introduces the idea of critical resilience as a complete framework for resisting bullying and fostering survival and change in the nursing workforce Direct upbeat at times provocative and witty this agenda setting book enables nurses to understand why they feel the way they do It also lists what opportunities are available to them to change resist and survive in what has become a complex challenging if still deeply rewarding line of work

Architecture Post Mortem Donald Kunze, David Bertolini, Simone Brott, 2016-04-15 Architecture Post Mortem surveys architecture's encounter with death decline and ruination following late capitalism As the world moves closer to an economic abyss that many perceive to be the death of capital contraction and crisis are no longer mere phases of normal market fluctuations but rather the irruption of the unconscious of ideology itself Post mortem is that historical moment wherein architecture's symbolic contract with capital is put on stage naked to all Architecture is not irrelevant to fiscal and political contagion as is commonly believed it is the victim and penetrating analytical agent of the current crisis As the very apparatus for modernity's guilt and unfulfilled drives modernity's debt architecture is that ideological element that functions as a master signifier of its own destruction ordering all other signifiers and modes of signification beneath it It is under these conditions that architecture theory has retreated to an Alamo of history a final desert outpost where history has been asked to transcend itself For architecture's hoped for utopia always involves an apocalypse This timely collection of essays reformulates architecture's relation to modernity via the operational death drive architecture is but a passage between life and death This collection includes essays by Kazi K Ashraf David Bertolini Simone Brott Peggy Deamer Didem Ekici Paul Emmons Donald Kunze Todd McGowan Gevork Hartoonian Nadir Lahiji Erika Naginski and Dennis Maher

Hegelian-Lacanian Variations on Late Modernity Alireza Taheri, 2020-12-29 The current rise in new religions and the growing popularity of New Ageism is concomitant with an increasingly anti philosophical sentiment marking our contemporary situation More specifically it is philosophical and psychoanalytic reason that has lost standing faced with the triumph of post secular spirituality Combatting this trend this treatise develops a theoretical apparatus based on Hegelian speculative reason and Lacanian psychoanalysis With the aid of this theoretical apparatus the book argues how certain conceptual pairs appear opposed through an operation of misrecognition christened following Hegel as diremption The failure to reckon with identities in difference relegates the subject to more vicious contradictions that define central aspects of our contemporary predicament The repeated thesis of the treatise is that the deadlocks marking our contemporary situation require renewed engagement with dialectical thinking beyond the impasses of common understanding Only by embarking on this philosophical psychoanalytic path of despair Hegel will we stand a chance of achieving joyful wisdom Nietzsche Developing a unique dialectical theory based on readings of Hegel Lacan and Iek in order to address various philosophical and psychoanalytic questions this book will be of great interest to anyone interested in German idealism and or psychoanalytic theory

Thoughts of Love Fiona Peters, Gary Peters, 2013-07-29 Perhaps because love is a feeling rather than a thought there is a serious shortage of thinking on love available for the increasing number of students studying on courses devoted to the subject This volume aims to address this lack providing a much needed resource that will support and enliven research across a wide range of disciplines The essays collected here have been contributed by both established and emerging international scholars in the field and are drawn from a variety of subject areas including continental philosophy ethics critical theory psychoanalysis feminist theory post colonial theory literary theory and personal memoir Addressing a varied but overlapping set of concerns that speak of desire friendship obsession destructiveness sympathy and loss the writers here bring a shared commitment to the theme of love in the face of its denial and destruction in so many quarters so much of the time In such dark times it is work such as this that perhaps can restore our faith in the power of thinking This volume will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as researchers in the field but most of all is intended for all readers whether specialist or non specialist who wish to give some serious thought to the most human of human feelings love

Theorizing Desire K. Gorton, 2008-03-13 What is the nature of desire This book gives an accessible introduction to the concept and a coherent critique of the competing theories of desire within contemporary theory Through analysis of representations of desire in television and film it considers ways in which the concept is theorized and presented on screen

Democracy Works Torry D. Dickinson, Terrie A. Becerra, Summer B.C. Lewis, 2015-12-03 Throughout the world from the United States to Tanzania Chechnya and Sri Lanka people increasingly work together and take actions to improve their lives end inequality and change global society Action groups and movements see dialogue and learning as important ways to extend democracy and with their inclusiveness remake society By putting strategy with theory local groups and movements are able to begin making changes in civil society and institutions that allow people to begin living in new ways Written for activists people and students interested in change this book takes readers on a journey of discovery as it shows how various groups have brought theory and action together to make urban rural and transnational change The case studies and explanatory articles reveal how feminist antiracist ecological and peace movements reinforce each other to initiate and achieve well placed and enduring change

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
