Watch a Video For Better Tara Parker-Pope,2010-05-06 The most credible and interesting marital self help book of all time Newsweek Editor of The Washington Post s Wellness Department and former New York

Times columnist Tara Parker Pope is one of the most popular and e-mailed journalists in the nation. In this eye-opening and ultimately optimistic look at marriage today, Parker Pope reveals the heart behind the statistics to bust the myths and share the true secrets to marital happiness. Among her surprising findings: most marriages today are succeeding; newlywed couples who don't fight are at a higher risk for divorce than those who do; how couples divide household chores influences how often they have sex. Whatever their stage of life or marital status, readers will be fascinated and buoyed by this classic in the making.

Nonverbal Communication in Close Relationships Robert J. Sternberg, Aleksandra Kostić, 2022-03-15 This book is an up-to-date compendium of knowledge on the secret language of close relationships, namely nonverbal routes of communication. In close relationships, as everyone learns sooner or later, the usefulness of words can be somewhat limited because people can mean different things by the same words but mean the same thing by different words. Sometimes we find it hard to express our feelings in words, and we lie. Nonverbal signals therefore often provide the best means of communication. The book points out how decoding/interpreting nonverbal signals is a major key to success because often what people say wholly belies how they feel; nonverbal signals reveal their true feelings rather than what they want other people to think their feelings are. This book helps decode those secret signals. The book is written by the leading worldwide experts in the field of nonverbal communication to ensure accuracy, comprehensiveness, and timeliness.

Your Body at Work David Givens, 2024-09-04 HOW DO YOU MAKE IT IN BUSINESS? STOP LISTENING AND START WATCHING. Your Body at Work is a guide to seeing past the words that fill the hallways, conference rooms, and e-mails of your workplace and to deciphering the hidden meanings that lie behind them. Through real-life examples from the world of business and with background from the science of communication, you'll learn to "sight read" colleagues and use your own body language to your best advantage. You'll find out how a co-worker's hands tell you much more than her words tell you how she felt about your presentation. Why gestures at a meeting are more memorable than words. When a shrug of the shoulders can mean the difference between job well done and job could be better. How to train a nosy boss to back off without uttering a single word. What your shoes and your hair may be saying about your commitment to the job. Why you'll find more smiley face stickers in cubicles than in corner offices. David Givens has been a consultant to some of the biggest companies in the United States. With his expertise, he'll help you look past the words so you can really read your workplace.
