Dinah's story Ahmed Musa, 2024-12-14 Dinah s days became a blur of careful plotting The world outside her home continued as normal school friendships fleeting moments of distraction but inside her focus never wavered The people around her didn t know the turmoil that had become her constant companion Her teachers saw only a quiet polite girl who didn t raise her hand too often didn t seek the limelight Her classmates noticed the absence of her previous spark but none of them could understand the storm that raged within her She could never explain it never tell them that she was in the midst of planning something that would irrevocably change everything She couldn t risk revealing her thoughts her vulnerabilities Her emotions had become a carefully curated fa ade a mask that hid the darkness brewing just beneath the surface

Living in The Story Charlotte Vaughan Coyle, 2021-08-26 What kind of book is the Bible Is it a rulebook or a guidebook for moral living Is it a history book or a book filled with fascinating and sometimes fantastic stories Did humans write the Bible or did God somehow speak a perfect message that the authors transcribed Many people have asked these questions about the nature of this beautiful odd comforting disturbing book the church calls its Holy Scripture Charlotte Vaughan Coyle shares her own journey to make sense of the Bible in this read through the Bible in a year project She discovered that the crucial work of asking hard questions and even arguing with the Bible revealed the Scriptures to be a symphony of polyphonic voices a work of art that paints an alternative vision of reality a complex novel like story unavoidably embedded in its own culture and time and yet able to give witness to the God beyond history who has acted and continues to act within history With the heart of a pastor and the passion of a preacher Rev Coyle invites seekers and students both church and un church to strap on their scuba gear and join her for a deeper dive beneath the surface of this immense colorful mysterious world of the Bible

From the Brink Paul W. Ashton, 2020-06-16 A commonly encountered experience of both analyst and analysand is that of the void It is spoken about at different stages of therapy and refers to experiences that have different origins Sometimes the experience of the void is around a relatively limited aspect of the psyche but at other times the void seems much more global and threatens to engulf the entire personality the whole individual psyche then seems threatened by the possibility of dissolution into nothingness decide what behavior is acceptable and when it is time to cut her losses. This book will be especially valuable for those women who for whatever reason will not seek professional counseling and may be too embarrassed to discuss her problems with family and friends. In Love In Pain focuses on how women respond to what we perceive as love and how they behave in order to try to keep that love. The book reveals how women put themselves in physical, emotional, spiritual, and oftentimes physical danger to stay in a relationship that is not nourishing, supportive, or fulfilling. In Love In Pain also divulges how women conspire against other women by dating men who are committed to others and supporting men in dishonest schemes. In Love in Pain illustrates how women will accept crumbs and tell themselves that they should be grateful for them and additionally how much women will give up even when they don't get anything in return. The book does not give advice as to what action each woman should take; it merely points out the consequences of various decisions. It is designed to be a non-judgmental self-help counseling guide where women are allowed to make decisions toward healthy or dysfunctional relationships. In Love in Pain allows women to analyze their own behavior patterns in relationships and decide to make changes or not. When people grew tired of the man's continual criticism and nitpicking comments about the windows. One day over coffee the businessman carried the subject just too far. Before leaving a fellow store owner suggested the man get his own windows washed. He followed the advice and the next day at coffee he exclaimed, "I can't believe it! As soon as I washed my windows my competitor must have cleaned his too. You should see them shine." Confucius once declared, "Don't complain about the snow on your neighbor's roof when your own doorstep is unclean." Wise men and philosophers throughout the ages have disagreed on many things, but many are in unanimous agreement on one point: We become what we think about. Ralph Waldo Emerson said, "A man is what he thinks about all day long." The Roman emperor Marcus Aurelius put it this way: "A man's life is what his thoughts make of it." In the Bible we find, "As a man thinks in his heart, so is he." One Sunday afternoon a cranky grandfather was visiting his family. As he lay down to take a nap, his grandson decided to have a little fun by putting Limburger cheese on Grandfather's mustache. Soon grandpa awoke with a snort and charged out of the bedroom saying, "This room stinks." Through the house he went, finding every room smelling the same. Desperately he made his way outside only to find that the whole world stinks. So it is when we fill our minds with negativism. Everything we experience and everybody we encounter will carry the scent we hold in our mind. For this book we scanned hundreds of anecdotes, success stories, and bits of wisdom to bring you this collection of the top 100 inspiring anecdotes and stories. We find these witty, inspiring, amusing, eye-opening, and spirit-soothing. We hope you'll enjoy reading them as much as we enjoyed putting them together.

Your Fairy Tale Fails Kristen Michaels, 2021-09-03 Kristen Michaels grew up in an immensely faithful and wholesome family. This average girl next door fell in love with her college sweetheart. She spent ten years in a marriage that didn't quite add up until she found the missing piece. Her husband had a sexual addiction. Her marriage forced her to learn more about prostitution than she ever desired. In When Your Fairy Tale Fails, she recounts the brutal trajectory of how she fell for a sex addict and how she conquered the devastation of discovering his secret life. In this memoir, Michaels describes how the combination of confusion, panic, and pain disoriented her in a way she had never experienced. She laboriously searched for answers, seeking to understand what was happening to her and why. When Your Fairy Tale Fails shares a story about pain, betrayal, and uncertainty but also about finding peace, joy, and freedom. It is about how God mended all the rips and tears of her heart. Cali's Story Dr. Deborah Cox Wood PhD, ND, Cali's Story is a biographical account on how to understand, cope, and survive child abuse.

Narrative and Dramatic Approaches to Children's Life Story with Foster, Adoptive and Kinship Families Joan E. Moore, 2019-12-06. Narrative and Dramatic Approaches to Children's Life Story with Foster, Adoptive and Kinship Families outlines narrative and dramatic approaches to improve vulnerable family relationships. It provides a model which offers new ways for parents to practise communicating with their children and develop positive relationships. The book focuses on the Theatre of Attachment model, a highly innovative approach which draws from a strong theoretical base to demonstrate the importance of narrative and dramatic play for sharing the children's life history in the family home with their adoptive, foster, or kinship parents. An emphasis is on having fun, ways to work through complex feelings and divided loyalties so as to secure attachment. This practice model aims to raise children's self-esteem and communication skills and to combat the profound effects of abuse, neglect, or trauma on children's development. This book will be of great interest for academics, postgraduate students, universities, and Training bodies, service providers, and practitioners involved in social work and creative therapies, child psychologists, child psychotherapists, and public and private adoption and foster care agencies.
