Grawemeyer Award for Music Composition Karen R. Little, Julia Graepel, Scott R. Adams, 2007-01-16 The University of Louisville's annual Grawemeyer Award for Music Composition is the largest monetary award offered in its field. The international prize is offered for outstanding achievement by a living composer in a large musical genre such as choral, orchestral, chamber, electronic, song cycle, dance, opera, musical theater, or extended solo work. Since the award was first offered in 1985, the Dwight Anderson Memorial Music Library, one of the largest new music collections in North America, has housed the competition submissions. In order to keep an accurate listing detailing the holdings of this collection, this catalog was developed. Grawemeyer Award for Music Composition: The First Twenty Years catalogs every submission for this prestigious award, offering complete information on all the competition submissions, including title, composer, format, length, instrumentation, and information on where to find or purchase the composition. The bulk of the catalog is listed alphabetically by composer so that users can learn whose works were submitted over the 20 years covered by the award. The additional appendixes provide the opposite perspective: a year-by-year glance at the award and those who submitted works each year. Concluding with an index, this catalog increases awareness of this collection and acknowledges the work of these important composers and their consequence to recent music history. National Union Catalog, 1973 Music, Books on Music, and Sound Recordings, 1974 Marching to Order Conrad Riker, Restore Order in a World That Wants Boys Soft and Men Silent. Ever feel society mocks male strength yet demands you lead? Tired of boys raised without discipline becoming lost men? See music reduced to noise instead of forging unity. This book delivers 27 scientifically backed marching songs for boys aged 5-15. How rhythm builds discipline faster than lectures. Why male-only groups create unbreakable loyalty. Music's proven role in developing wartime resilience. Fixing the empathy trap weakening modern sons. Leadership patterns from military drill instructors. Physical training synced to musical tempo. Replacing screens with sweat and synchronized sound. If you want sons who lead rather than follow, buy this book today. From My Life Tom Moore, 2023-05-22 From My Life the autobiography of the famed music critic Eduard Hanslick appeared toward the end of his life in 1894 when it went through three printings. It was republished in 1911 and again more recently in 1987 by Breuninger and in 2011 by Taschenbuch. Born in Prague, Hanslick studied piano with Tomaschek and though like other compatriots and contemporaries he studied law and became a government functionary, he went on to become the most noted and honored music critic in nineteenth-century Vienna, making his mark with his relatively brief disquisition On the Musically Beautiful first issued in 1854. In the Brahms-Wagner controversy, he was on the side of the former and was the target of Wagner's vicious anti-Semitism even though he had been among the first to champion Wagner's work in Vienna. His long and informative autobiography has never appeared in complete translation to English or any other language. Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1968 A cumulative list of works represented by Library of Congress printed cards. Driven Into Paradise Reinhold
