Powell, Jon Hendricks, 2009-06-10 In recent years major social forces such as ageing populations social trends migration patterns and the globalization of economies have reshaped social welfare policies and practices across the globe Multinational corporations NGOs and other international organizations have begun to influence social policy at a national and local level Among the many ramifications of these changes is that globalizing influences may hinder the ability of individual nation states to effect policies that are beneficial to them on a local level With contributions from thirteen countries worldwide this collected work represents the first major comparative analysis on the effect of globalization on the international welfare state The Welfare State in Post Industrial Society is divided into two major sections the first draws from a number of leading social welfare researchers from diverse countries who point to the nation state as case studies highlighting how it goes about establishing and revising social welfare provisions The second portion of the volume then moves to a more global perspective in its analysis and questioning of the impact of globalization on citizenship ageing and marketization The Welfare State in Post Industrial Society seeks to encourage debate about the implications of the most pressing social welfare issues in nation states and integrate analyses of policy and practice in particular countries struggling to provide social welfare support for their needy populations Marriages and Families in the 21st Century Tasha R.

Howe, 2017-08-01 Marriages and Families in the 21st Century puts contemporary relationships and family structures in context for today's students Using a bioecological framework the book reveals how families are shaped by multiple influences from biological to cultural that interact with one another Chapters cover topics from parenting to gender issues within an interdisciplinary context weaving in stories visuals and examples of diverse families to dispel longstanding myths The book creates a personalized learning experience with frequent self assessments and strengths exercises while ensuring that students come to understand the research and build scientific analysis and critical thinking skills along the way Robust digital tools and resources including SAGE edge and an interactive eBook with SAGE Premium Video help readers develop a multi layered understanding of today's modern families while challenging them to re evaluate their own assumptions and experiences SAGE Premium Video included in the Interactive eBook Families Today videos boost comprehension and bolster analysis easily accessible via the interactive eBook SAGE coursepacks Our Content Tailored to Your LMS SAGE coursepacks makes it easy to import our quality instructor and student resource content into your school's learning management system LMS Intuitive and simple to use SAGE coursepacks allows you to customize course content to meet your students needs

Women and Religion in the West Sonya Sharma, 2016-02-11 What is the relationship between women and secularization In the West women are abandoning traditional religion Yet they continue to make up the majority of religious adherents Accounting for this seeming paradox is the focus of this volume If women undergird the foundations of religion but are leaving in large numbers why are they leaving Where are they going What are they doing And what's happening to those who remain Women and Religion in the West addresses a neglected yet crucial issue within the debate on religious belonging and departure the role of women in and out of religion and spirituality Beginning with an analysis of the relationship between gender and secularization the book moves its focus to in depth examination of women's experiences based on data from key recent qualitative work on women and religion This volume addresses not only women's place in and out of Christianity the normal focus of secularization theories but also alternative spiritualities and Islam asking how questions of secularization differ between faith systems This book offers students and scholars of religion sociology and women s studies as well as interested general readers an accessible work on the religiosity of western women and contributes fresh analyses of the rapidly shifting terrain of contemporary religion and spirituality Diversity in Family Life Elisabetta Ruspini, 2014-12-03 As the variety and number of nontraditional families grow so does the need for new models of family and parenthood Diversity in Family Life discusses the relationship between shifting gender identities and the processes of family formation examining non traditional family structures including asexual couples child free couples living apart together couples single parents and homosexual and transsexual parents Calling for bold reformulations it argues that it is possible to live love and form a family in an astounding variety of ways Examining Stereotypes and Parenting Behaviours of South Asian Heritage Parents: Discourse and Case Studies Bhandari, Renu, 2024-06-17 In the field of academic scholarship the study of parenting has been extensive yet it has often been unable to capture the full essence of this complex endeavor The existing literature has often confined itself to the boundaries of individual disciplines This limitation has hindered our understanding of the intricate interplay between these aspects and the values and beliefs that guide parenting Furthermore in the context of South Asian parents in the UK the existing research has typically focused on parents from East and Southeast Asia often leaving the unique experiences of South Asian parents overlooked Examining Stereotypes and Parenting Behaviors of Asian Heritage Parents Discourse and Case Studies offers a pioneering solution to this problem It represents a groundbreaking initiative to break free from the constraints of traditional research methodologies and provide an unfiltered in depth look at the real narratives of South Asian parents in the UK By weaving together the psychological emotional social and cultural dimensions of parenting this book uncovers a holistic view of this complex journey one that transcends the limitations of sociology psychology or cultural studies It does not aim to solve problems but rather seeks to capture authentic family stories and parenting experiences directly from the voices of the parents themselves Handbook of Families in the Arab Gulf States Md Mizanur Rahman, Kaltham Al-Ghanim, Ziarat Hossain, Sharique Umar, 2025-06-30 This open access book collates and advances the body of knowledge about the factors directions and magnitudes of change in Arabian Gulf families from interdisciplinary perspectives Family life across the globe is being impacted by unprecedented diversity in household living arrangements and by sweeping economic cultural and social change and this is not an exception in the Gulf region The book demarcates how Gulf families are experiencing many formidable challenges and undergoing profound changes due to speedy economic transformation educational reforms extensive use of social media rapid urbanization migration women empowerment and the intersections of popular culture from both the East and the West Notwithstanding such challenges and changes Gulf families often seem to retain and continue many of the traditional roles and functions of families in a sustained manner It contributes to current debates that revolve around questions of what has changed and what has stayed the same in

Healthy Europe: confidence and uncertainty for young people in contemporary Europe Council of Europe, 2016-03-01 What is it like to be young in a Europe faced with conflict and austerity Volume 3 of the series Perspectives on youth focuses on healthy Europe not just in the narrow sense but in the broader sense of what it is like to be young in a Europe faced with conflict and austerity and what it feels like to be young as transitions become ever more challenging The assumption when planning this issue was that health in this broader sense remains a controversial area within youth policy where the points of departure of policy makers on the one hand and young people themselves on the other are often dramatically different in fact young people tend to interpret the dominating discourse as limiting patronising maybe even offensive The question of health brings the old tensions between protection and participation as well as agency and structure to the forefront Not all questions are addressed in detail but many are touched upon It is intentionally an eclectic mix of contributions to provide a diversity of argumentation and to promote reflection and debate As has been the intention of Perspectives on youth throughout we have sought to solicit and elicit the views of academics policy makers and practitioners presenting theoretical empirical and hypothetical assertions and analysis Perspectives on youth is published by the partnership between the European Union and the Council of Europe in the field of youth in co operation with and with support from four countries Belgium Finland France and Germany Its purpose is to keep the dialogue on key problems of child and youth policies on a solid foundation in terms of content expertise and politics The series aims to act as a forum for information discussion reflection and dialogue on European developments and trends in the field of youth policy youth research and youth work while promoting a policy and youth work practice that is based on knowledge and participatory principles The editorial team of this volume is composed of 12 members representing the supporting countries the Pool of European Youth Researchers PEYR the co ordinator of the youth policy reviews of the Council of Europe the EU Council of Europe youth partnership and the co ordinator of the editorial team

Migration History in World History Jan Lucassen,Leo Lucassen,Patrick Manning,2010-01-01 Migration is the talk of the town On the whole however the current situation is seen as resulting from unique political upheavals Such a historical interpretations ignore the fact that migration is a fundamental phenomenon in human societies from the beginning and plays a crucial role in the cultural economic political and social developments and innovations So far however most studies are limited to the last four centuries largely ignoring the spectacular advances made in other disciplines which study the deep past like anthropology archaeology population genetics and linguistics and that reach back as far as 80 000 years ago This is the first book that offers an overview of the state of the art in these disciplines and shows how historians and social scientists working in the recent past can profit from their insights Publisher description
